To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dundee, most humbly approach your Majesty on the occasion of your Majesty's Coronation, to express our devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We would, at the same time, beg leave to express to your Majesty, the sentiments of admiration and of gratitude which we feel on account of the firmness, the decision, and the wisdom of your Majesty, in regard to the great question of reform in the parliamentary representation of the country; and also our heartfelt thanks for your Majesty's gracious Order in Council, which restored to the Burgesses of Dundee the exercise of their ancient right of electing their Magistrates and Council, and which has been the means of procuring, by legislative enactment, for this community, a municipal constitution, in every way calculated to secure the peace and to promote the improvement of the Burgh.

That your Majesty, in the full enjoyment of health and of every blessing, may long reign over a free, a loyal, and happy people, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and grateful subjects.
