The King has been pleased to grant unto William Dent Hedley, of Short Flatt, in the parish of Bolam, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. son of Matthew Hedley, late of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and grandson of William Hedley, late of the same place, by Ann his wife, formerly Ann Dent, who was the aunt of William Dent, of Short Flatt aforesaid, Esq. deceased, his royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of the aforesaid William Dent, take and use the surname of Dent only, and bear the arms of Dent quarterly with those of Hedley; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 13, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early on the morning of Saturday the 27th day of August last, the premises of Mr. Francis Holland, situated in the parish of Wartling, in the county of Sussex, and in the occupation of Mr. James Bellingham, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby a barn, filled with wheat, &c. three lodges, a stable, and a quantity of agricultural implements, were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and a further reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS by Mr. Bellingham, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, September 15, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the premises belonging to North-street Farm, in the parish of Broad Chalk, in the county of Wilts, and in the occupation of Jesse Rumbold, have recently been feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby various buildings and corn were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Earl of Pembroke, and a reward of FIFTY POUNDS by Jesse Rumbold, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, September 16, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about nine o'clock in the evening of Monday the 12th day of September instant, a barn, blacksmith's shop, and cider-house, situate in the parish of Urchfont, in the county of Wilts, and in the occupation of Mr. Robert Edwards, were maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby the same were totally consumed, together with a quantity of corn and hay, and a cider press, the property of Mr. Thomas Alexander, of Urchfont;
