MIDLAND CIRCUIT.

W. J. Law, Esq. Commissioner.

Warwickshire, at Birmingham, Friday, November 25, instead of Monday, November 28, as heretofore appointed.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of August 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or place not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica:

And the Right Honourable the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, September 15, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the premises belonging to North-street Farm, in the parish of Broad Chalk, in the county of Wilts, and in the occupation of Jesse Rumbold, have recently been feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby various buildings and corn were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Earl of Pembroke, and a reward of FIFTY POUNDS by Jesse Rumbold, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, September 16, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about nine o'clock in the evening of Monday the 12th day of September instant, a barn, blacksmith's shop, and cider-house, situate in the parish of Urchfont, in the county of Wilts, and in the occupation of Mr. Robert Edwards, were maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby the same were totally consumed, together with a quantity of corn and hay, and a cider press, the property of Mr. Thomas Alexander, of Urchfont;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED and TEN POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £210 by the Treasurer of the Lavington Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, September 16, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Monday the 12th day of September instant, a corn-stack and hay-rick belonging to Mr. John Sambell, of Callington, in the county of Cornwall, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire and nearly destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £50 by the inhabitants of Callington.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, September 16, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 12th day of September instant, a stack of barley belonging to John Nunnerley, of Rees-heath, in the parish of Whitchurch, in the county of Salop, Farmer, the buildings and corn-stacks of William Darlington, of Twemlows, in the same parish, Farmer, and the buildings and corn and hay-stacks of Thomas Booth, also of Twemlows, Farmer, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire and consumed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS in each of the above cases is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the offender or offenders who caused either of the above fires, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of either of the said offences.—A reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is also offered (with the same exception) by Sir Rowland Hill, Bart.

MELBOURNE.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early on the morning of Sunday the 18th day of September instant, the premises in the occupation of Mr. M. J. J. Donlan, situate at the foot of Westminster-bridge, in the county of Surrey, were, together with a large quantity of New Zealand flax and other goods and machinery of considerable value, entirely destroyed by fire, and that there is every reason to believe the said premises were maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and a further reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS by Mr. Donlan, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Wednesday the 31st day of August last, a wheat stack, the property of Mr. John Harvey, of Cold Harbour Farm, at Out Elmstone, in the parish of Barham, near Canterbury, in the county of Kent, was maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the before mentioned felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for the better paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting, widening, and improving the squares, streets, lanes, markets, and places, within the United Parishes of Saint Andrew, Holborn, above the Bars, and Saint George the Martyr, in the county of Middlesex, including Red Lion-square, Dean-street, Fulwood's-rents, and such parts of Holborn and Chancery-lane as lie within the said parishes, and for the removal and future prevention of encroachments, projections, obstructions, nuisances, and annoyances, within the same ; and for vesting the sole management and controul thereof in Commissioners or persons to be elected by the vestries of the said parishes respectively, and for power to raise money for the several purposes of such Act by rates or assessments on the proprietors and occupiers of lands, houses, buildings, and other tenements, within the limits of the said Act, or by other means to be provided by such Act ; and to repeal the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, that is to say, an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act to enable the present and future proprietors and inhabitants of the houses, in Red Lion-square, in the county of Middlesex, to make a rate on themselves for raising money sufficient to inclose, pave, watch, clean, and adorn the said square ;" an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes, within the city and liberty of Westminster, the parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint George the Martyr, Saint George, Bloomsbury, that part of the parish of Saint Andrew's, Holborn, which lies in the county of Middlesex, the several liberties of the Rolls and Savoy, and that part of the Duchy of Lancaster which lies in the county of Middlesex, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned ;" an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual, an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled 'An Act for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes, within the city and liberty of Westminster, the parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint George the Martyr, Saint George, Bloomsbury, that part of the parish of Saint Andrew's, Holborn, which lies in the county of Middlesex, the several liberties of the Rolls and Savoy, and that part of the Duchy of Lancaster, which lies in the county of Middlesex, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned ;'" an Act, passed in the fourth year of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual, two several Acts of Parliament, made in the second and third years of His present Majesty, for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes, within the city and liberty of Westminster, and other places therein mentioned, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned ;" an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of, and to render more effectual, the several Acts, passed in the second, third, and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, for paving, cleansing, lighting, and otherwise regulating, the squares, streets, and other places, within the city and liberty of Westminster, and other parts in the said Acts mentioned, and for extending the provisions of the said Acts to the Surrey side of Westminster-bridge, and for enlarging the powers of the said Acts with respect to squares ;" an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual several Acts made relating to paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places, within the city and liberty of Westminster, and parts adjacent ;" an Act, passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to alter, explain, amend, and render more effectual, several Acts made for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places, within the city and liberty of Westminster, and parts adjacent, and for putting certain streets therein mentioned, commonly called optional streets, under the management of parochial committees, subject to the controul of the Commissioners appointed by or in pursuance of the said several Acts, and for removing and preventing nuisances, annoyances, obstructions, and encroachments in the said streets and other places, and for other purposes ;" and an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of several Acts of His late Majesty, for amending and rendering more effectual several Acts for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places, in the city and liberties of Westminster and parts adjacent, and for putting certain streets therein mentioned, commonly called optional streets, under the management of parochial committees, subject to the controul of Commissioners; and for other purposes, as far as the same relate to a street and passage called Holborn and Middle-row, in the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, above the Bars, in the county of Middlesex ;" so far as the said several Acts relate to the said united parishes of Saint Andrew, Holborn, above the Bars, and Saint George the Martyr, or as may be necessary for the purposes of the said Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill, and to obtain an Act for repealing an Act passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the more effectually repairing the road from Harlow Bush-common, in the parish of Harlow, to Woodford, in the county of Essex, and the road from Epping through the parishes of Northweald, Bassett, Bobbingworth, High Ongar, Chipping Ongar, and Shelley, to the Four Want Way, in the parish of Shelley, and from thence through the parishes of High Ongar and Norton Mandeville, to the parish of Writtle, in the said county ;" and for granting further, better, and more effectual powers for repairing and otherwise improving the said roads, which said roads pass from, through, and into the several parishes or places of Harlow, Latton, Northweald, Bassett, Epping, Waltham Holy Cross, Loughton, Chigwell, Thoydon Garnon, Bobbingworth, High Ongar, Chipping Ongar, Shelley, and Norton Mandeville, in the said county of Essex ; and powers are intended to be taken by the said Act for making turnpike and maintaining the present line of road which passes from, into, and through the several parishes or places of Waltham Holy Cross, Loughton, and Chigwell aforesaid, as well as a new line of road now making, communicating with the old road near the Wake Arms, in the said parish of Waltham Holy Cross, and which said new line of road passes into and through the said several parishes and places of Waltham Holy Cross, Loughton, and Chigwell aforesaid, and for continuing the said new line of road into the parish of Woodford aforesaid, to join the new branch or cut of the metropolis roads at the junction thereof with the Middlesex and Essex road, near Higham-house, and for maintaining the same ; and it is also intended in the said Act to obtain powers for making and maintaining a new line or branch of road from a certain place called Fair Mead Bottom, in the said county of Essex, to and into the parish of Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, which said last mentioned line or branch of road will pass from, through, and into the several parishes of Loughton, Waltham Holy Cross, Chingford, and Walthamstow, in the said county of Essex, and Tottenham in the said county of Middlesex ; in which bill provision is also intended to be made, for altering or increasing the tolls authorised to be taken on the said roads.—

Dated this 24th day of September 1831.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Dawson and James Kerr, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Nankeen-Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 19th day of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the York Hotel, in King-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the Assignees working up and finishing all or such part as they may deem proper of the materials and goods in process of manufacture of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, and selling and disposing thereof, and of all stock in trade, utensils of trade, household furniture, and all other personal estate and effects whatsoever of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, either by public auction or private contract, appraisement, or otherwise as they may think fit, and to such person or persons, and for ready money or on credit, and upon such security as they may think proper, and to their executing and carrying into effect a certain agreement entered into by the said Bankrupts with a certain person, to be named at the said meeting, for the sale to him of certain buildings, their property, and adopting such steps as they the said Assignees may be advised for making a good title thereto to the purchaser; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the separate real estates of the said Bankrupts respectively, either subject to certain mortgages thereof, to persons who will be named at the said meeting, or in such other way as they the said Assignees may judge proper, or to the said Assignees making such other arrangements with the said Mortgagees, and all other necessary parties in respect of such last mentioned property, and the claims thereupon as they the said Assignees may think best; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees adopting such proceedings as they may think fit for recovery of, or otherwise respecting divers goods and merchandizes, moneys and effects of the said Bankrupts, in the hands of different agents and other persons in divers parts of America, the West Indies, and other places beyond the seas, and in Great Britain, or to their compounding and compromising all claims by and against such agents and other persons, or submitting the same to arbitration; and also to assent to or dissent from their prosecuting a certain suit in equity, now pending at the suit of the said George Dawson against certain persons, to be likewise named at the said meeting, for the recovery of a considerable sum of money claimed by him from them, and paying off a certain lien claimed upon the said suit and the papers therein, by the Solicitors who have hitherto conducted the same, or to their compromising or referring to arbitration the matters in difference between the parties to such suit, or otherwise dealing with reference thereto in such manner as they may deem most expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees opposing a certain petition to the Lord Chancellor, for the admission of a very heavy proof against the joint estate of the said Bankrupts, for moneys alleged to be owing therefrom to the separate estate of the said George Dawson, and for the appointment of an Assignee or Inspector under the said Commission on behalf of the said George Dawson's separate Creditors, or to their arranging with the parties preferring such petition in such manner as they may deem best for the interests of both estates; and also to their adopting such proceedings in law or equity, or by petition as they may think proper in opposition to, or otherwise in respect of, certain proofs sought to be made against the said George Dawson's separate estate, on behalf of his wife under certain settlements of property made by him for her separate use, or to their arranging in respect thereto in such manner as they the said Assignees may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing or prosecuting such proceedings at law or in equity, or otherwise as they may think proper against divers persons, to be named at such meeting, for recovery of certain farming stock and utensils, goods and merchandizes illegally transferred and delivered to such persons respectively, or of damages in respect thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupts, or either of them, and such accountants, clerks, servants, and workmen as they may deem necessary for assisting them the said Assignees in the working up and completing the materials and unfinished goods of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or investigating the affairs, adjusting the accounts, and selling, disposing of, collecting and getting in the estates, moneys, and effects under the said Commission; or in the effectuating the matters and things aforesaid, or any of them, and to their making such remuneration to the persons so employed as they

the said Assignees may deem reasonable and proper out of the estates of the said Bankrupts, and also to their paying and reimbursing to the petitioning Creditor, and other principal Creditors under the said Commission, certain law charges and accountants' charges, and other expences incurred by them respectively in the investigation of the accounts and affairs of the said Bankrupts, and in reference to an intended composition between them the said Bankrupts and their Creditors; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any proceedings which they may be advised or think necessary at law or in equity, for the recovery, or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; or to their compounding any debts or claims by or against the said estates, or submitting the same to arbitration; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking such measures in the winding up, arrangement and settlement of the affairs, estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, as they the said Assignees shall deem most expedient for the interest of the Creditors; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed: and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 24th day of September 1831, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by THOMAS HENRY WEBSTER, of Stafford, in the County of Stafford, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

On the 26th day of September 1831, by

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Creditors of Lewis O'Connor, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Victualler, an Insolvent Debtor, now confined in the Gaol of the Borough of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, are requested to meet the Assignee of his estate and effects, at the Office of Messrs. John and James Brown, Solicitors, No. 2, Exchange-Street East, in Liverpool aforesaid, on Friday the 14th day of October next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, the Insolvent's interest in the lease of the premises in the occupation of the said Insolvent, situate in Old Ropery, in Liverpool aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the household goods, furniture, fixtures, stock in trade, and the good will thereof, and other effects of the said Insolvent, at a valuation or otherwise, to any person or persons whomsoever, for such price or prices as he shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee taking possession personally, or authorising some person or persons to take possession for him, of the said house and premises; or to authorise the said Assignee to pay a sum of money to a person, to be named at such meeting, to obtain possession of the said house and premises; and also to authorise the said Assignee to compromise with the said Insolvent, or any other person, respecting the lease and good will of the said house; and also to indemnify the said Assignee from all costs, damages, and expences the said Assignee, and all persons acting under him, may incur or be put to in obtaining possession of the said house and premises, and disposing of the lease and good will of the said house; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing and prosecuting any actions or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of all or any part of the said Insolvent's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors of Thomas Smith, late of Harlow, in the County of Essex, Carrier, who was discharged from Chelmsford Gaol, in the said County, under and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament for Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, in or about the month of September 1823, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Thomas Smith, at the Office of Mr. R. B. Andrews, Solicitor, High-Street, Epping, in the said County, on Monday the 10th day of October next, at the hour of Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, for the purpose of approving and directing in what manner, and at what time and place, the equity of redemption in and to certain copyhold cottages, part of the estate of the said Insolvent, shall be sold by public auction; and on other special affairs.
