

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1831.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of August 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or place not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His

Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica:

And the Right Honourable the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

County of Wexford.

Robert Shapland Carew, of Castle Boro, in the county of Wexford, Esq. Lord Lieutenant of the said county, in the room of Arthur Chichester, Esq. now Baron Templemore, and one of the Peers of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Borough of New Malton.

Charles Christopher Pepys, Esq. in the room of William Cavendish, Esq. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Whitehall, October 1, 1831.

The King has been pleased to ordain and declare that Dame Charlotte Georgiana Bedingfeld, widow and relict of Sir Richard Bedingfeld, late of Oxburgh-hall, in the county of Norfolk, Bart. deceased, and sister of the Right Honourable George William

Baron Stafford, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, and precedence as if her late father, Sir William Jerningham, Bart. had been summoned to Parliament as Baron Stafford:

And also to command, that the said grant be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 1, 1831.

The King has been pleased to grant unto George Yeldham Ricketts, of Tapton-house, near Chesterfield, in the county of Derby, Esq. his royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with the will of Isaac Wilkinson, late of Tapton-house aforesaid, Esq. deceased, take the name of Wilkinson only, and bear the arms of Wilkinson; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 22, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Wednesday the 31st day of August last, a wheat stack, the property of Mr. John Harvey, of Cold Harbour Farm, at Out Elmstone, in the parish of Barham, near Canterbury, in the county of Kent, was maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the before mentioned felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

NEW LIGHT-HOUSE ON TORY ISLAND.

Ballast-Office, Dublin, August, 1831.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin, &c. give notice, that a Light-house is now building on the North Point of Tory Island, situate off the N. W. coast of Ireland, county Donegal, from which a fixed bright light will be exhibited on the evening of the 1st of August 1832, and continue thenceforth to be lit from sunset to sun-rise.

Tory Island Light-house bears by Compass,

From Arranmore Light-house, N. E. b. E. distant $18\frac{1}{2}$ nautic miles.

From Bloody Farland Point, N. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ N. distant 8 nautic miles.

From Horn Head, N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. distant 10 nautic miles.

From Lough Swilly Light-house, W. N. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. distant $20\frac{1}{2}$ nautic miles.

From Malin Head, W. b. N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. distant 29 nautic miles.

From Innistrahul Light-house, W. b. N. distant $35\frac{3}{4}$ nautic miles.

The light will be seen seawards, but in passing through the Sound it will be shut by the Cliffs at the south of the island, from N. b. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. to N. N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W.

The lantern will be elevated 125 feet over the level of high water of spring tides.

N. B. The light now shown from Arranmore Island will cease to be exhibited, after the lighting of that on Tory Island.

By order,

John Cassart, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill, and to obtain an Act for repealing an Act passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the more effectually repairing the road from Harlow Bush-common, in the parish of Harlow, to Woodford, in the county of Essex, and the road from Epping, through the parishes of Northweald, Bassett, Bobbingworth, High Ongar, Chipping Ongar, and Shelley, to the Four Want Way, in the parish of Shelley, and from thence through the parishes of High Ongar and Norton Mandeville, to the parish of Writtle, in the said county;" and for granting further, better, and more effectual powers for repairing and otherwise improving the said roads, which said roads pass from, through, and into the several parishes or places of Harlow, Latton, Northweald, Bassett, Epping, Waltham Holy Cross, Loughton, Chigwell, Thoydon Garnon, Bobbingworth, High Ongar, Chipping Ongar, Shelley, and Norton Mandeville, in the said county of Essex; and powers are intended to be taken by the said Act for making turnpike and maintaining the present line of road which passes from, into, and through the several parishes or places of Waltham Holy Cross, Loughton, and Chigwell aforesaid, as well as a new line of road now making, communicating with the old road near the Wake Arms, in the said parish of Waltham Holy Cross, and which said new line of road passes into and through the said several parishes or places of Waltham Holy Cross, Loughton, and Chigwell aforesaid, and for continuing the said new line of road into the parish of Woodford aforesaid, to join the new branch or cut of the metropolis roads at the junction thereof with the Middlesex and Essex road, near Higham-house, and for maintaining the same; and it is also intended in the said Act to obtain powers for making and maintaining a new line or branch of road from a certain place called Fair Mead Bottom, in the said county of Essex, to and into the parish of Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, which said last mentioned line or branch of road will pass from, through, and into the several parishes of Loughton, Waltham Holy Cross, Chigwell, Woodford, Chingford, and Walthamstow, in the said county of Essex, and Tottenham, in the said county of Middlesex; in which bill provision is also intended to be made, for altering or increasing the tolls authorised to be taken on the said roads.—Dated this 24th day of September 1831.

John Windus, Clerk to the Trustees.
