Borough of New Malton.

Charles Christopher Pepys, Esq. in the room of William Cavendish, Esq. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Whitehall, October 1, 1831.

The King has been pleased to ordain and declare that Dame Charlotte Georgiana Bedingfeld, widow and relict of Sir Richard Bedingfeld, late of Oxburgh-hall, in the county of Norfolk, Bart. deceased, and sister of the Right Honourable George William

Baron Stafford, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, and precedence as if her late father, Sir William Jerningham, Bart. had been summoned to Parliament as Baron Stafford:

And also to command, that the said grant be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 1, 1831.

The King has been pleased to grant unto George Yeldham Ricketts, of Tapton-house, near Chesterfield, in the county of Derby, Esq. his royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with the will of Isaac Wilkinson, late of Tapton-house aforesaid, Esq. deceased, take the name of Wilkinson only, and bear the arms of Wilkinson; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 22, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Wednesday the 31st day of August last, a wheat stack, the property of Mr. John Harvey, of Cold Harbour Farm, at Out Elmstone, in the parish of Barham, near Canterbury, in the county of Kent, was maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the before mentioned felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
