FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1831.

St. James's-Palace, October 5, 1831.

THE following Addresses to the King, on the occasion of their Majesties' Coronation, were this day presented to His Majesty at the Levee, and graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Guildry Incorporation of the city of Perth, North Britain, beg to approach the Throne, with sentiments of loyalty and devotion, to congratulate your Majesty and your Royal Consort, on your Coronation, and the completion of that solemn contract between your Majesty and your people, required by the Constitution, whereby the reciprocal duties of both are defined and made manifest.

We presume, at the same time, to offer our heartfelt thanks to your Majesty, for the firmness and constancy hitherto displayed by you in the great cause of reform, and to express our confidence, that your Majesty, under the advice of your present popular Ministers, will, by a just, well timed, and manly exercise of the undoubted prerogative of the Crown, prevent the wishes of the Nation from being thwarted, in a measure in which the King and his people are so cordially united.

That your Majesty and your Royal Consort the Queen, may long be spared to reign in peace and happiness over a free, loyal, contented, and united people, is our sincere and ardent prayer.

Signed by appointment of a general meeting of the Guildry Incorporation of Perth, this 16th September 1831. R. Mathews, Dean of Guild.

[Presented by Earl Grey.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Master, Pilots, and Seamen of the Corporation of the Trinity-House, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Master Pilots and Seamen of the Corporation of the Trinity-House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg leave most humbly and respectfully to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the happy celebration of the august solemnity of your Majesty's Royal Coronation, and that of your Majesty's Illustrious and Royal Consort Queen Adelaide, whose eminent virtues adorn her exalted station, and justly endear her to all your Majesty's faithful people.

We dwell with pleasure on the remembrance of your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms, and beg dutifully to renew to your Majesty the declaration of our devoted loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, and humbly to assure your Majesty of our earnest prayers, that blessed with health, and crowned with length of days, your Majesty and your Illustrious Consort may long continue to reign over this realm, the beloved Monarchs of a free, loyal, and grateful nation.

Given under the Seal of this Corporation, the 28th day of September 1831.

Charles Jackson, Deputy Master.

[Presented by Earl Grey.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, Inhabitants of the Town of Alnwick, in public meeting assembled, friends of parliamentary reform, beg leave most respectfully to present to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on the event of your Majesty's Coronation, and that of your Majesty's Illustrious Consort, Queen Adelaide.

Happy are the people who find in the King, whom they venerate, a man whom they love. We flatter ourselves with being that fortunate people; and we, therefore, hail the event of your Majesty's Coronation with an emotion similar to that with which each individual hails the dawn of that day which is to light him to some bright object of his hope.

Inheriting that love of independence and of rational liberty, which placed the Family of your Majesty upon the Throne of these United Kingdoms, cherishing in our bosoms that exaltation of sentiment which has its root in freedom alone, we view with delight the benevolent intentions, and the patriotic exertions of your Majesty to improve those institutions which, in their primary operation, so much benefitted the people of these realms, but which subsequent ages considered, and the present generation have experienced, as inadequate to the exigencies of modern times.

We adjure your Majesty not to deviate, but to persevere; to be unbending in the line of conduct upon which your Majesty has determined for the reform of our institutions. Yes, we would adjure your Majesty to be as unchangeable in that particular, were it possible for man to be so, as that Being is unchangeable whose blessing upon the councils and upon the Royal Family of England we sincerely implore.

John Carr, Chairman.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Bridgwater and its vicinity, assembled in the Guildhall of the said Borough.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor and Inhabitants of Bridgwater and its vicinity, beg leave humbly and respectfully to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to express our most unfeigned delight and satisfaction at the ratification of the compact between your illustrious Majesty and your dutiful and attached subjects; and, in offering to your Majesty our sincere and cordial congratulations, we beg most respectfully to express our attachment to your Majesty's illustrious Person, and to assure your Majesty that we deem it one of the greatest blessings which it has pleased Providence to confer on our beloved country, that we have a Prince to reign over us whose wise and prudent measures have shewn that his feelings are in accordance with the wishes of his people.

Signed, on behalf of the meeting,

John Evered, Mayor.

To His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH.

The humble Address of the Members of the Primitive Episcopal Church, assembled in All-Saints' Church, Liverpool.

Sire,

WE, the Members of the Primitive Episcopal Church, assembled in All-Saints' Church, Liverpool, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty with the most dutiful assurances of unshaken attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

We fully participate in the general pleasure which your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms has excited in every loyal bosom; and, with the most sincere and heartfelt congratulations, we hail the benign Sceptre which your Majesty extends to a devoted people.

We feel gratefully sensible of the many and important benefits which have accrued to these your Majesty's kingdoms and foreign dependencies, since the accession of your illustrious House; and rejoice, in common with our fellow-subjects, at the glory to which this nation has been raised, beyond all former precedent, since the Government first passed into your royal line.

But the glory of this world is not that at which we aim: our sole object is, the promotion of Vital Christianity throughout your Majesty's empire; which, we conscientiously believe, is the only solid basis of pure morals and national prosperity.

That religion has been cultivated, and the fullest liberty of conscience secured, under the mild and paternal reign of the Royal Line of Hanover, is that which, in our humble conception, sheds the brightest lustre on your illustrious House.

His late Majesty's gracious assurance on his accession to the Throne, "That it should be his most anxious endeavour to preserve unimpaired the laws, the religion, and the liberties of these kingdoms," inspires us with the fullest confidence in the glorious continuance of what was then so auspiciously announced; and that the Sceptre, handed down to your Majesty through a long line of distinguished Princes, will be successfully wielded, for the protection of all classes of your faithful subjects, and for the maintenance of pure and undefiled religion in our favoured land.

That your Majesty may surpass in happiness and length of days the most glorious of your Royal Progenitors, and that when you cease to reign on earth, you may obtain a crown of glory which shall never fade away, is the most ardent and most earnest prayer of, Sire, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and affectionate subjects.

G. W. West, Chairman; H. T. Turner, Minister;

On behalf of the Clergy, Vestry, Church-Wardens, and the unanimous voice of the Members assembled in All-Saints' Church, on Wednesday the 14th day of September, in the year of our Redemption 1831.

Whitehall, October 7, 1831.

THE following Address to the King and Queen, on the occasion of their Majesties Coronation, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, was by him presented to their Majesties, who were pleased to receive the same very graciously:

Unto His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM THE FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, and to Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN ADELAÏDE.

WE, your Majesties' loyal and dutiful subjects, the Burgesses, Heritors, Householders, and Inhabitants of the City of Aberdeen and its vicinity, assembled in the public Court-house of the City of

Signed by appointment, in presence, and in name and behalf of a public meeting of the Burgesses, Heritors, Householders, and Inhabitants of the City of Aberdeen and its vicinity, assembled in the public Court-house of the City of Aberdeen, this 24th day of September 1831 years,

Permit us, Most Gracious Sire, on this happy occasion, to renew our expressions of inviolable attachment and loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; and to assure your Majesty of our deep sense of those truly generous and patriotic exertions which your Majesty has made for the lessening of the public burdens, for the redress of public abuses, for the amending of the imperfections which have crept into our glorious Constitution, and for the wise and able Ministers whom your Majesty has called to your enlightened Councils, for carrying those generous and patriotic exertions into effect; these must render loyalty not merely the duty, but the pride of every British subject.

That Almighty God, by whom alone Kings reign, may bless your Majesty with length of life and happy days, to reign in the hearts of a free, a happy, and a grateful people; that the unfeigned loyalty and sincere attachment of your Majesty's subjects may be the brightest and most unperishable gems in your royal diadem; and that future ages may bless the memory of so patriotic and beloved a Monarch, are the sincere and heartfelt prayers of, Sire, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects, the Convener, Master of Hospital, Seven Deacons, and whole other Members of the Seven Incorporated Trades of Aberdeen.
