

preparations for the next Campaign, and we are told that so soon as these matters are settled his Highness will return to Hungary where Count Staremberg is to have the chief command in the next time. They write from thence that the King of Poland, who has with the Emperor's consent granted the Hungarians some few places for Winter-quarters, intended to part from Esperies on the 12th of this month on his return to Cracow, where it's still said his Majesty intends to hold a Dyet. This day parted from hence, the Count de Berke, the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary to the Kings of Denmark and Sweden. The Ambassadors which his Imperial Majesty is sending to Moscow, will begin their journey in few days. The Emperor having presently after the raising the siege of Vienna made Count Staremberg Marechal de Camp General, his Majesty has since given like Commissions to Count Leslie, Count Caprara, Count Caplieres, and the Duke of Saxe-Lawenburg; the first is appointed to command the Emperor's Troops in Croatia; the second the Imperial Horse in Hungary; Count Caplieres, who is Vice-President of the Council of War, is by reason of his great age to remain at Court; and the Duke of Saxe-Lawenburg is at present at his Estate in the Lower Saxony.

Frankfort, December 10. The Elector of Bavaria arrived at Municken the 23. of the last month, making a publick Entry into that City. We are assured that his Electoral Highness has resolved to encrease his Forces to 20000 men, and that he has already given out Commissions for the making of new Levies. The Count de Serini, whom his Electoral Highness has made choice of to command his Forces, was expected at Municken in few days. From Lintz they write, that most of the Officers had received the moneys allowed them by the Emperor for the making their Recruits, but do not tell us with any certainty what new Regiments are to be raised. And that the Emperor was much dissatisfied that the Vice-Roy of Croatia had separated the Troops which blocked up Caniſka, and put them into their Winter-quarters.

Dantzicke, December 5. We have Letters from Lemberg in Poland of the 19th of the last month, which inform us that the Sieur Krakowski had with the Troops under his Command, besieged Jaszwicke, which the Turks defended very well; and that the Bassa of Caminiea had made an attempt to raise the Siege, having with part of his Garrison and 2000 Tartars fallen upon the Poles, but was repulsed and put to flight, many of the Turks and Tartars being killed and taken Prisoners. The King of Poland was expected at Cracow in his return from Hungary, part of his Baggage being already arrived there.

Hague, December 17. Upon the News of the War being declared at Madrid against France, the States of Holland were assembled on Tuesday last till eight a Clock at night, and have been since every day assembled, but have not yet taken a final Resolution concerning the new Levy, which is the great matter before them. We are told that the Elector of Cologne's Minister has by a Memorial acquainted the States General that the Bishop of Strasbourg was gone for France upon no other design, than to endeavour to obtain a Neutrality for the Country of Liege, and other his Electoral Highnesses Territories. The Heer Van Hairen, whom the States General have made choice of to go in quality of their Ambassador Extraordinary to Sweden, will in few days receive his dispatches, and it's believed he will presently after begin his Journey. They write from Berlin that the Elector of Brandenburg raises men, intending, as they say, to have a good Army in the Field the next Summer.

Marseilles, December 10. Yesterday arrived here a small Vessel from Newfoundland, the Master whereof reports, that touching at Alicant, he found a French and Spanish Man of War engaged in that Bay, and that the latter, after about half an hours fight, blew up, few or none of the men escaping, but by what accident, or any other particulars, he cannot inform us. The French Merchants Resident in Spain, do begin to retire with their Estates, finding a War is going to break out. Here has been a report these five or six days, that Monsieur de Lery had taken the White Horse of Algiers, but it needs a Confirmation. The sixth instant arrived here the Swan Frigate, Captain Habson Commander, from Tangier, and this Morning Sailed again for Genous and Leghorne.

Paris, December 18. The Spanish Ambassador at this Court being called home, has desired his Audiences of leave; and his most Christian Majesty's Ambassador in Spain is likewise on his return hither. We have an account that the Estates and Effects which the Subjects of this Crown have within the Spanish Dominions are seized by order of his Catholic Majesty. The Sieur de la Croix is arrived at Thoulon with the Ratifications of the Peace which Monsieur du Queſne lately concluded with the Government of Tunis. The Duke de la Feuillade lies very ill, inſomuch that his recovery is despair'd of; It's said the Duke of Villeroy will succeed him in the command of Colonel of the French Guards. The Pope's Nuncio here having received orders from Rome to cause the Jubilé lately granted by the Pope to be published in this Kingdom; he hath accordingly sent the same to all the Bishops of France, except the Archbishop of Thoulouse, who is lookt upon at Rome as Excommunicated. Several young Noblemen and other Persons of Quality, are gone to join the Kings Troops, which it's said are marching towards Luxemburg.

Paris, Decemb. 19. Last night the Dauphiness was, to the great joy of this Court, Brought to-Bed of a young Prince, who is called Duke d'Anjou.

Deale, December 12. This day came into the Downs about 22 Sail of Dutch Merchant Ships with their Convoy, outward bound.

Deale, December 13. Yesterday arrived in the Downs from the Westward, His Majesties Ship the Diamond, Captain Jones Commander.

SIR ROBERT VYNER having made some Additions to the Proposals he formerly made. Those who are concerned with him, are desired to call for them at the Vine in Lumbard-street.
