

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and affectionate subjects, the Grand Master, Officers, and Members of the Nottingham Ancient Imperial United Order of Odd Fellows, again offer to your Majesty the honest and heartfelt congratulations of the Fraternity on the occasion of your Majesty's recent Coronation; viewing it as we do, not as an empty pageant, but as the public ratification of the solemn compact wherein the Sovereign vows to govern, not for his own aggrandisement, but for the good of the people.

We thank your Majesty for the many acts of liberality that have hitherto distinguished your reign, we pray that it may be for many years prolonged for the benefit of these realms, but we especially thank your Majesty for your having appointed, and continued your confidence in, Ministers who are pledged to the great principles of reform, retrenchment, and peace, and we hope that the great measure for amending the representative system, which they have introduced, and which has received the sanction of a great majority of the Commons of the realm, may speedily reach your Majesty's hand, to be passed into a law, for the surer stability of your Throne, the better security of the Peerage, and the future well being of all classes of the community.

Given under our hands and the seal of the order, at a general meeting of the whole fraternity, held in the Exchange Hall, Nottingham, on Friday, September the 30th, 1831.

Rawcliffe, Grand Master; Thos. Wakefield, Deputy Grand Master; Wm. Bennet Martin, Grand Secretary; S. Hy. Swann, Grand Tyler.

[Presented by the Lord Chancellor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Councilmen of your ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghnote assembled, approach your Majesty with the sincerest congratulations on your Majesty's Coronation.

This event was hailed by all your Majesty's most loyal subjects as a public testimony of your Majesty's determination to promote the prosperity and happiness of your people, and to protect them in the enjoyment of their laws and liberties, most graciously expressed by your Majesty on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne.

Relying with the most unbounded confidence on your Majesty's assurances of protection and paternal care, and devoutly attached to your Majesty's Royal Person, we most fervently pray that Almighty God will grant to your Majesty long life and a prosperous reign over a dutiful, loyal, and affectionate people; and that your Majesty may see many anniversaries of a day which the people of this country will long hold in veneration.

Given under our common seal this 20th day of September 1831.

[Presented by Lord Fordwich, M. P. and Mr. Watson, M. P.]
