Whitehall, October 18, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 10th day of October instant, a large body of men proceeded, in a riotous and tumultuous manner, to Nottingham-castle, the property of his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, and, after committing various acts of depredation, maliciously and feloniously set fire to the same, whereby it was totally consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Exchequer Bill Loan-Office, South Sea-House, London, October 4, 1831.

WHEREAS an Act has passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend several Acts passed for authorising the issue of Exchequer Bills, and the advance of money, for carrying on public works and fisheries, and employment of the poor, and to authorise a further issue of Exchequer Bills for the purposes of the said Acts;"

Notice is hereby given, that applications, in writing, for loans under the said Acts, specifying the amount required, the purposes for which the same is applied for, and the security proposed, are to be addressed to William Holden, Esq. Secretary to the Commissioners constituted by the said Acts, at their Office as above.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill, and to obtain an Act for repealing an Act passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the more effectually repairing the road from Harlow Bush-common, in the parish of Harlow, to Woodford, in the county of Essex, and the road from Epping, through the parishes of Northweald, Bassett, Bobbingworth, High Ongar, Chipping Ongar, and Shelley, to the Four Want Way, in the parish of Shelley, and from thence through the parishes of High Ongar and Norton Mandeville, to the parish of Writtle, in the said county;" and for granting further, better, and more effectual powers for repairing and otherwise improving the said roads, which said roads pass from, through, and into the several parishes or places of Harlow, Latton, Northweald, Bassett, Epping, Waltham Holy Cross, Loughton, Chigwell, Thoydon Garnon, Bobbingworth, High Ongar, Chipping Ongar, Shelley, and Norton Mandeville, in the said county of Essex; and powers are intended to be taken by the said Act for making turnpike and maintaining the present line of road which passes from, into, and through the several parishes or places of Waltham Holy Cross, Loughton, and Chigwell aforesaid, as well as a new line of road now making, communicating with the old road near the Wake Arms, in the said parish of Waltham Holy Cross, and which said new line of road passes into and through the said several parishes or places of Waltham Holy Cross, Loughton, and Chigwell aforesaid, and for continuing the said new line of road into the parish of Woodford aforesaid, to join the new branch or cut of the metropolis roads at the junction thereof with the Middlesex and Essex road, near Higham-

House, and for maintaining the same; and it is also intended in the said Act to obtain powers for making and maintaining a new line or branch of road from a certain place called Fair Mead Bottom, in the said county of Essex, to and into the parish of Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, which said last mentioned line or branch of road will pass from, through, and into the several parishes of Loughton, Waltham Holy Cross, Chigwell, Woodford, Chingford, and Walthamstow, in the said county of Essex, and Tottenham, in the said county of Middlesex; in which bill provision is also intended to be made, for altering or increasing the tolls authorised to be taken on the said roads.—Dated this 24th day of September 1831.

John Windus, Clerk to the Trustees.
