

Ulster then announced to the Chapter, that Ulick John Marquess of Clanricarde had been declared a Knight of the Most Illustrious Order of St. Patrick, and his Lordship being received at the door of the Chapter-Room by the Earl of Meath and the Earl of Fingall, the two Junior Knights present, was conducted between them to His Majesty, preceded by Ulster, (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a velvet cushion), the Marquess kneeling near the Sovereign, and Ulster presenting on his knee the ribband and badge of the Order, His Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland and the Marquess of Thomond, the two Senior Knights present, put the same over the Marquess of Clanricarde's right shoulder, pronouncing the admonition and administering the oath, after which his Lordship again had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand.

The Earl of Charlemont was then introduced and invested with the same ceremonies.

The Chapter being ended, Ulster, by command of the Sovereign, called over the Knights Companions, and a procession was made from the Royal Closet in the same order as before.
