WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock on the morning of Sunday the 9th day of October instant, a large number of persons proceeded, in a riotous and tumultuous manner, to the gaol for the borough of Derby, the doors of which they forced open, and feloniously set at liberty the prisoners who were confined therein;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

National Debt-Office, October 29, 1831.

IN pursuance of the Act, 10 Geo. 4, c. 24, the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the powers vested in them by the said Act, have directed the Life Annuity Tables now in use to be revoked, so far as relates to the rates in the said tables laid down for all ages of both sexes above eighty years; and so much of the said tables are hereby revoked accordingly.

And the Commissioners give further notice, that no future Life Annuity will be granted, in pursuance of the said Act, upon ages above eighty years, for a less consideration than would be required by the tables hitherto in use for either sex at the age of eighty years.

S. Higham, Comptroller General.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 24th of October 1831, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 91, intituled "An Act for enlarging and improving the west end of Cheapside, in the city of London, also St. Martin-le-Grand, Aldersgate-street, St. Ann's-lane, and Foster-lane, and for providing a site for a new Post-Office, between St. Martin-le-Grand and Foster-lane aforesaid;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 24th day of April next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 24th day of April next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £80,000,
