NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's Levees will be discontinued till further orders.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS in divers parts of Great Britain, and more particularly in the towns of Derby and Nottingham, and in the city of Bristol, tumultuous assemblages of people have taken place, and outrages of the most violent description have been committed both upon the persons and property of divers of Our subjects; and whereas all the restraints of law and order have been overborne and trodden under foot by such lawless multitudes, the mansions of individuals violently entered, pillaged, and set on fire, the ordinary course of justice forcibly interrupted, the goals for the confinement of criminals broken into and destroyed, and malefactors and persons charged with offences let loose upon the public, to the great disturbance and danger of the common weal, and the subversion of established Government: And whereas the welfare and happiness of all nations do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon the observance and enforcement of the law: And whereas it is Our firm determination faithfully to discharge the duty imposed on Us; to preserve the public peace, and vigorously to exert the powers which We possess for the protection of all Our subjects, in the entire enjoyment of their rights and liberties; We, therefore, being resolved to suppress the wicked and flagitious practices aforesaid, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, solemnly warning all Our liege subjects to guard against every attempt to violate the law, and to abstain from every act inconsistent with the peace and good order of society; and We do hereby charge and command all sheriffs, justices of the peace, chief magistrates of cities, boroughs, and corporations, and all the magistrates throughout Great Britain, that they do effectually repress all tumults, riots, outrages, and breaches of the peace within their respective jurisdictions; and that they do make diligent enquiry in order to discover and bring to justice the movers and perpetrators of all such seditious and wicked acts as aforesaid: And We do further earnestly and solemnly exhort, enjoin, call upon, and command all Our liege subjects, of all ranks and conditions, that they do come forward upon the first appearance or apprehension of any such disturbances as aforesaid, as they are bound by their duty to Us, by their regard for the general interest, and by the obligation of the law, and that they be actively aiding and assisting to all sheriffs, justices of the peace, and other magistrates, in enforcing the law against evil doers, and in protecting their fellow-subjects in the enjoyment of their property and the exercise of their rights, against all forcible, illegal, and unconstitutional interference, controul, or aggression.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this second day of November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d day of November 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare forms of prayers to Almighty God, to be used in all churches and chapels during the continuance of Our danger from the pestilence now spreading over a great part of Europe: And it is hereby further ordered, that His Majesty's Printer do forthwith print a competent number of the said forms of prayers, that the same may be forthwith sent round and read in all the cathedral, collegiate, and parochial churches and chapels throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland, as soon as the Ministers thereof shall receive the same.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d day of November 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that every Minister and Preacher, as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as of the Episcopal Communion protected and allowed by an Act, passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, c. 7, and intituled "An Act to prevent the disturbing those of the Episcopal Communion in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, in the exercise of their religious worship, and in the use of the Liturgy of the Church of England," and for repealing the Act, passed in the Parliament of Scotland, intituled "An Act against irregular baptisms and marriages," do, whilst Our danger continues from the pestilence now spreading over a great part of Europe, at some time during the exercise of Divine Service in such respective church, congregation, or assembly, put up their prayers to Almighty God on account of such danger.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
