THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Alexander Ross and John Ogilvie, late of Argyll-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Bankers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the surviving Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Thursday the 8th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of receiving from the said Assignee a report of the proceedings which have been adopted since the last meeting of the Creditors, and of assenting to or dissenting from a proposition then to be submitted to them touching the concerns of the said Bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Walton, of Kingsland-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Timber-Merchant, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 2d day of December next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting or abandoning the lease of the messuage, timber-yard and premises of the said Bankrupt, situate in Kingsland-Road aforesaid, and also to their accepting or abandoning all or any of the leases and agreements for leases of the said Bankrupt's messuages, lands, tenements, and other estate and effects, situate in or at or near Ormesby-Street, Shap-Street, Maria-Street, and Pearson-Street, Kingsland-Road aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, or joining with the Mortgagee or Mortgagees of the premises respectively, or other person or persons having legal or equitable charges or incumbrances thereon, in the sale and disposal of the leasehold or other estate and interest of the said Bankrupt, in all or any part or parts of the said messuages, lands, tenements, and premises, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public sale and partly by private contract, as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees consenting to or joining with certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, in the sale of three houses, fronting the King's Head public house, Holloway, in the County of Middlesex, and of three other houses, situate in Camden-Road, adjoining or near to the three last mentioned houses, and the agreements for leases of which premises were deposited with the said Bankrupt by certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, by way of security for a debt due to him, and by the said Bankrupt deposited with other persons, to be named at the said meeting, for debts due from him; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees abandoning the said Bankrupt's interest in or to certain messuages or tenements, lands, and premises, in Hanley-Road, near Hornsey-Road, Holloway aforesaid, and in or to the agreements for leases thereof, and to their selling and disposing, or joining with the persons having charges or incumbrances thereon in the sale or disposal of the said last mentioned messuages or tenements, lands, and premises, by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient; and also to or from the said Assignees employing a proper person or persons to collect, keep possession and make sales of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, and any accountant or accountants, to examine and investigate the books and accounts, and to assist in the making up thereof, and collect the debts owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to allow and pay, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the expences already incurred, or hereafter to be incurred, in or about the matters aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate for any debt or debts due from them, and taking any part of such debtors' debts in discharge of the whole, and giving such time, or taking such security for the payment of the same, or any part thereof, as to the said Assignees shall seem proper; and to or from the said Assignees submitting to arbitration or otherwise agreeing any dispute or difference respecting, or in any wise concerning the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and particularly to their submitting in such manner and form as to the said Assignees shall seem meet or desirable to the decision or arbitration of any Barrister or Barristers, or other person or persons, to be agreed upon between them and the other party or parties interested therein, upon a joint case or otherwise, or entering into any other arrangement or agreement which to the said Assignees shall appear more desirable, touching and concerning certain disputes and differences existing and depending, or which may hereafter exist and depend between them and certain other persons, to be named at the said meeting, with reference to the dealings and transactions of the said Bankrupt and other persons in his said trade or business; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, and settling and arranging the same on such terms as the said Assignees shall think expedient; and to authorize the said Assignees generally to take such measures in the arrangement and settlement of the affairs, estate, and effects of the said Bankrupt, as they shall from time to time think necessary, reasonable, just, and beneficial for the estate and Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Scott, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Commission-Agent, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 3d day of December next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Edward Bent, Solicitor, No. 20, late 14, Saint Ann's-Square, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling the stock in trade and household furniture of the said Bankrupt, by private contract, to such person or persons, and for such price or prices in ready money, or upon credit, and for such time, and upon such security, as to the said Assignees shall seem fit; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees in their discretion compounding, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, accepting part in discharge of the whole, taking security, or giving time for the payment, or otherwise agreeing to any accounts, debts, claims, or demands due to or from the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to the said Assignees employing any accountant to assist them in the management, winding up, or disposal of the said Bankrupt's estate; and to their allowing such accountant such remuneration for his or their trouble as to the said Assignees shall seem meet; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Aubone Snowball, of Brook-Street, Ratcliff, in the County of Middlesex, Victualler, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Saturday the 3d day of December next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees selling and disposing of the Bankrupt's freehold property and other estate and effects whatsoever, either together or in separate parcels, and at one or more time or times, and either by public auction or private contract, for prompt payment, or upon credit with or without security, and to any or either of the legatees under the will from whence the said property is derived; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and allowing to the Solicitor of the said Bankrupt, certain costs, charges and expences incurred by him in and about the proving of the said will, and also discharging his real or alleged claims upon the title deeds of the said property so as to enable the said Assignees to get the immediate possession of the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and allowing to the legatees under the said will, all their costs, charges and expences, and also their Solicitors' costs, charges and expences either already incurred, or which may hereafter occur by reason of their being required to join in the conveyance to the purchaser of the said property, or incidental thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees compounding with, or submitting to arbitration, or making such other settlement or arrangement with the legatees under the said will as to them shall seem meet or expedient in the event of the said property not realizing sufficient to pay them in full; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking the opinion of Counsel upon the title to the said property, and settling the particulars thereof or conditions of sale, and adopting such other measures as to them may seem advisable; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 10th day of November 1831, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by CHARLES BARRON COURTENAY, of Robert-Street, Adelphi, Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller and Publisher, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

ROBERT WIGHT, of Painswick, in the County of Gloucester, Clothier, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 11th day of November 1831, by

DUNCAN NEIL SMITH, of Friday-Street, in the City of London, Warehouseman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
