

Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee offering for sale, by public auction or private contract, any real or personal estate of the said Bankrupt, or the equity of redemption thereof, upon such terms as the said Assignee may think proper for the advantage of the Bankrupt's estate; also to the Assignee concurring with any mortgagee of the said Bankrupt's estates in the sale or disposal thereof, whether legal or equitable, and to the Assignee making any arrangement with the said mortgagees with respect to any claim on such mortgage, or compounding the same, or otherwise contesting the validity of any mortgage, claim, or agreement made or executed by said Bankrupt; also to the said Assignee prosecuting or defending any action at law, or suit in equity, for annulling any agreement or mortgage entered into or executed by the said Bankrupt, or for protecting the said Bankrupt's estate; and agreeing, compounding, and submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any action, suit, matter, or thing relative thereto; and to the said Assignee adopting all such measures as he the said Assignee may deem beneficial to the said Bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Henry Kempster, of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey, Rectifier and Wine Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 12th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to sanction and confirm the continuance of the Bankrupt's retail business, from the date of the Commission to the sale of the goodwill, with a view to the preservation thereof, and the purchase of goods for that purpose; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, fixtures, and utensils, household furniture, goods, and other his property and effects, either by public auction or private contract, to any person or persons who shall be willing to become the purchaser of the same, or any part thereof, and either for ready money or upon credit, at such time and place as they shall think proper; and to their buying in the same, or any part thereof, at such auction, and reselling the same at any future auction, or by private contract, at such price or prices, and in such manner as the said Assignees shall think fit and proper, without being liable to answer or bear any loss which may accrue or happen upon such resale; and also to their employing or authorising the said Bankrupt, or his Clerk, or any other person, to collect, recover, and receive the several debts and sums of money due and owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, from any person or persons whomsoever; and to their employing the Bankrupt, or his Clerk, or any other person, to assist in making up the books and accounts, and otherwise winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupt, and paying or allowing the said Bankrupt, or his Clerk, or such other person, a reasonable salary, per centage, or allowance, for his or their services in that behalf; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees retaining, or giving up to the said Bankrupt, or to any person or persons, claiming to be the true owner thereof, certain articles of household furniture, plate, and other effects in the reputed possession of the said Bankrupt at the time of his Bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery, defending, or protecting of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate or effects; and also to said Assignees compounding with any debtor to the said Bankrupt's estate, and taking any part of the debt in discharge of the whole, and giving time, or taking security for the payment of any such debt, and submitting any dispute between such Assignees and any persons concerning any matter relating to such Bankrupt's estate to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing in relation thereto; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's Creditors in all matters relating to his estate and effects, in such manner as to them the said Assignees shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Jeremiah Brettell, of the City of Bristol, Cheese-Factor, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 12th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Messrs. Gregory and Smith, Solicitors, New Buildings, Small-Street, in the City of Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, by public sale or private contract, all or any part of the Bankrupt's freehold and leasehold messuages, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises, and also the Bankrupt's stock in trade, household furniture, book debts, and other effects, and either to the Bankrupt himself, or to any other person or persons, and to the said Assignees giving such credit and taking such securities, from the purchasers of the said stock in trade, furniture, debts and effects, as they shall think proper, and to ratify and confirm any sale or sales already, or which may be made by the said Assignees previously to such meeting, and every matter and thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the wages due to the clerks, shopmen, and servants of the said Bankrupt, and also certain costs, charges, and expences incurred by some of the Creditors in investigating the Bankrupt's affairs preparatory to the opening of the said Commission, and to the said Assignees employing an accountant to investigate and make up the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt's estate, and also of the respective accounts and affairs of the late Partnerships in which the said Bankrupt has been engaged, and all other accounts touching and concerning the same, and to receive the debts due to the Bankrupt's estate, and to make such compensation to such accountant as the said Assignees shall think reasonable; and also as to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, and to filing and answering any petition or petitions in relation to the said estate and effects; and also to the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, settling, and arranging all or any debts, matters, and things whatsoever relating to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and generally to authorize and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, in such way and manner as they shall from time to time be advised; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Weaver and Benjamin Hickman, of Ludlow, in the County of Salop, Mercers and Drapers, Dealers and Chapman (carrying on business of Mercers and Drapers in Copartnership at Ludlow aforesaid), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Saturday the 10th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Angel Inn, Ludlow aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing to carry on the business lately carried on by the said Bankrupts, until the whole of the stock in trade of the said Bankrupts shall be sold and disposed of, in such manner as they may deem most advantageous to the said estate, under the superintendance of such person or persons as they may deem proper, and at such salary as they may agree upon, or to substitute others in his or their place if they shall think necessary; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the real and personal estate, furniture, and other effects belonging to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, either together or in lots, by public auction, private contract, or valuation and appraisement, or otherwise, and at such time or times, to such person or persons, and under such terms, and at such price or prices in ready money or on credit, with or without security, as the said Assignees may think most proper and advantageous, with power at any sale by auction to buy in and resell the same as the said Assignees may think best, at the expence and risk of the said Bankrupts' estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by private contract, to Francis Boulton, of Ludlow aforesaid, all their interest in the stock in trade with him, late the property of the said Bankrupts, at a valuation price, then and there to be named, and to take such security for the purchase-money as to the said Assignees shall seem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action at law, or suit in equity, or other proceedings, for the recovery of, or in relation to, any part of the said Bankrupts' estate or effects, or any lien, claim, or incumbrance charged, or alleged to be charged, thereon, or to which the same may be said to be liable; and to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or settling any accounts, debts, matters or things in relation to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them;
