

SECOND SUPPLEMENT

TO

The London Gazette

Of FRIDAY the 18th of NOVEMBER.

Published by Authority.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1831.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of November 1831,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of Quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessels shall not have come from any place from which His Majesty, his heirs and successors, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or any such infectious disease or distemper, may be brought; and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, and other articles aforesaid, on board the same; and in case of any infectious disease or distemper appearing or breaking out in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, to make such orders and give such directions, in order to cut off all communication between any persons infected with any such disease or distemper and the rest of His Majesty's subjects, as shall appear to the said Lords, or others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to be necessary and expedient for that purpose:" and whereas the infectious disease or distemper called the Spasmodic Cholera hath appeared and broken out within the United Kingdom: and whereas, in order to cut off all communication between any persons infected with the said disease or distemper and the rest of His Majesty's subjects, it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council necessary and expedient that Boards of Health, to be constituted as hereinafter mentioned, should be established within such cities, towns, and other places within the United Kingdom as may be affected with, or as may be in danger of becoming affected with, the
