AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st day of November 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to allow the importation of lumber, and of fish and provisions, duty free, into the islands of Barbadoes and St. Vincent, and to indemnify the Governors and others for having permitted the importation of those articles duty free," it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, lumber, and fish and provisions, shall and may be imported into the said islands respectively, duty free, until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to continue in force the provisions of the said Act until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two; and whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to continue in force the provisions of the said Act, His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and direct that the provisions of the said Act shall be continued in force until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, November 29, 1831.

THE following Addresses and Petitions—praying for Parliamentary Reform—expressing their feeling on the rejection of the Reform Bill—declaring their confidence in the King's Ministers—and praying His Majesty to exercise his prerogative of creating Peers—having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

- From the Inhabitants of the town of Thurso, convened by the Magistrates, and in public meeting assembled.
- From the Inhabitants of Campbletown and its vicinity.
- From the Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the county of Cumberland, assembled at a county meeting duly convened by the High Sheriff.
- From the Freeholders, Heritors, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Inhabitants of the county of Caithness.
- From the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, and Tenants of the county of Lanark.
- From the Inhabitants of the parish of Timwald, in the county of Dumfries.
- From the Inhabitants of the ancient borough and neighbourhood of Hales Owen, in town's meeting assembled.
