VICE CHANCELLOR.—Thursday the 1st day of December, in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, 1831, between Samuel Moore, Plaintiff, Richard Moore and Ann his wife, Defendants.

UPON opening of the matter this present day unto this Court, by Mr. Sharpe of Counsel for the plaintiff, it was alleged, that it appears by the affidavit of William Brown, that on the 30th day of May 1831, he went to the dwelling-house of the defendants, situate at Ruggs, in the Parish of Kingsbrompton, in the County of Somerset, to serve them with a notice in writing, purporting that the plaintiff in this cause intended to move this Court for the appointment of a receiver, and for an injunction; that he arrived there about Eight o'Clock in the Morning, when he found the doors of the said dwelling-house closed and fastened; that the deponent knocked at the door repeatedly, and requested to be admitted into the said dwelling-house, but as no person answered, the deponent delivered one of the notices to John Moore, the brother of the said defendant Richard Moore, who stood close to the said dwelling-house, and who then informed the said deponent that the said defendant Richard Moore was within it; and the deponent also put two other copies of the said notices under the door of the said dwelling-house, and with a stick pushed them into the said dwelling-house; that he did on the 31st day of May 1831, again go to the said dwelling-house of the said defendants, situate at Ruggs aforesaid, to endeavour to serve the said defendants with the said notices; that he arrived there about Twelve o'Clock in the day; that he saw the said defendant Ann Moore, who informed the said deponent that the said Richard Moore had gone from home in the morning of that day, and that she did not know where he was gone; and the said deponent thereupon delivered a copy of the said notice to the said defendant Ann Moore, who was standing outside the dwelling-house, at Ruggs aforesaid, the doors of which were still closed and fastened, as they were on the said preceding day; and the said defendant Ann Moore then informed the said deponent, that the said defendants had received the said notices which the said deponent so as aforesaid put under the said door on the said preceding day, and had had one of them read to her, (she not being able to read the same herself,) and was acquainted with the nature and contents thereof; that he did on the 13th day of June 1831, attempt to serve the above-named defendants with a subpoena, issuing out of and under the seal of this Court, whereby the said defendants were directed to appear in this Court, on the said 13th day of June, at the suit of Samuel Moore the plaintiff in this cause, appeared to the said deponent by the label of the said subpoena; that he attempted to serve the said subpoena so, under the seal as aforesaid, by putting the same into the dwelling-house of the said defendants, situate at Ruggs, within the Parish of Kingsbrompton, in the said County, through a hole in the side of the frame of one of the windows of the said dwelling-house; that he arrived at the said dwelling-house, at Ruggs aforesaid, about Twelve o'Clock mid-day, on the 13th day of June, and found the doors and windows thereof fastened; but the said deponent observed through a window by the side of a chimney thereof, that there was fire on the hearth of the said chimney, and a tea-kettle standing by the said fire, and a woman's gown hung up by the side of the fire, and some provisions and plates and dishes left on a table in the same room, where the said fire was, apparently as though persons had then very recently been eating there; that he repeatedly knocked at the door, and called at the windows of the said dwelling-house, but the said deponent could get no answer, nor see any person; and that the deponent remained there nearly or quite an hour, but could not see or hear any person; that immediately before the said deponent left the said dwelling-house he again knocked at the door and called at the windows, but could not then obtain any answer, when the deponent pushed the said subpoena into the said room where the fire and provisions were, through a very small hole, just large enough to admit it but no more, by the side of the said window-frame, with his stick, so securely that no person could, without very great preparation and difficulty, and almost impossibility, take the same out again from without; and the said deponent saw the said subpoena, and left it in the said room, 18 inches from the said small hole into which he so put it, exactly in sight, and in a situation where any person entering the said room must observe it, as the deponent verily believes, immediately before he left the said dwelling-house; that he hath made frequent inquiries after the said defendants, and hath since heard and been informed and verily believes that the said defendants have gone abroad, or are concealed for the purpose of avoiding being served with any process or notices, and believes, from the circumstances before-mentioned, and from the information he hath been able to obtain, that the said defendants are abroad, or concealed, and do so abscond in order to avoid being served with the process of this Court. It was therefore prayed that the defendants may be ordered to appear to the plaintiff's bill, whereupon and upon hearing the said affidavit read, this Court doth order, that the defendants do appear to the plaintiff's bill, on or before the 31st day of December instant.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made the 5th day of December instant in a cause wherein Robert Phillips, George William Wood, and Mark Phillips, are the complainants, and John Collinson, defendant, reciting, amongst other things, that the said complainants (who had theretofore carried on the trade of Hat-Manufacturers and Dealers in Furs, at Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, in Copartnership with the said defendant, under the firm of Phillips, Wood, and Collinson), had, under the circumstances therein mentioned, applied to the said defendant to sign a notice of dissolution of the said Copartnership, in order that the same might be inserted in the London Gazette, and had caused a notice, in writing, dated the 1st day of December instant, and signed by them, to be served upon the said defendant, to the effect that from and after the day of the date thereof the said Partnership should cease and determine; it was ordered, and the said Court did strictly enjoin and restrain the said John Collinson from drawing, accepting, indorsing, or negotiating, and from procuring to be drawn, accepted, indorsed, or negotiated, any bills or bill of exchange, or promissory notes or promissory note, in the name of the said Copartnership concern, and from receiving or getting in the monies, debts, or effects of the said Copartnership concern, or any part thereof, and from selling, pledging, or assigning the same, or any part thereof, and from in any way interfering therewith, or any part thereof.—Dated this 6th day of December 1831.

BY an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Isaac William Webb Horlock and Ann, his wife, and others are plaintiffs, and Thomas Grace Smith and others are defendants, and wherein the said Isaac William Webb Horlock and Ann, his wife, are plaintiffs, and John Pares and others are defendants, it was referred to James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court whether Mary Athorpe, deceased, late the wife of Thomas Athorpe, of the Hatch, near Windsor, in the County of Berks, and of Hull, in the County of York, Esq. and who was one of the daughters of Holled Smith, formerly of Normanton Turville, in the County of Leicester, Esq. deceased, and who died at the Hatch aforesaid, on or about the 13th day of August 1831, died without leaving issue her surviving, and without making any appointment, pursuant to the power given to her by the will of the said Holled Smith, deceased; and it was also referred to the said Master to inquire and state to the Court who was or were the next of kin of the said Mary Athorpe, living at the time of her death, exclusive of her husband, the said Thomas Athorpe, and in case any of them have since died, who is or are the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them, so dying; therefore all persons claiming to be such next of kin of the said Mary Athorpe, at the time of her death, and the personal representative or representatives of such next of kin, who have since died, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 11th day of January 1832, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their kindred, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.
