Whitehall, December 15, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, late in the evening of Tuesday the 6th day of December instant, the body of a female (since identified to be that of a person named Hannah Hobbs), was discovered at Aldington, near Brighton, in the county of Sussex, the head being severed from the body, and both arms cut off close to the elbow joints; and that a coroner's inquest having been subsequently held upon the same, a verdict has been returned of "wilful murder against some person or persons unknown;"

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed or assisted in the perpetration of such murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

SHROPSHIRE LIEUTENANCY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenancy of the county of Salop will be held at the Shirehall, in Shrewsbury, on Tuesday the 3d day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Lowdale, Clerk of the General Meetings.

GRAND WESTERN CANAL.

WHEREAS the Committee of Management of the affairs of the Company of Proprietors of the Grand Western Canal, for the time or times being did, at several different meetings of the said committee, duly held on several different days before the 14th day of April, 1830, make several different calls from the several proprietors of the navigation and undertaking authorised to be made and carried on by the said Company of Proprietors, for several different sums of money for and in respect of every share in the said navigation and undertaking, the same being at the several times found wanting and necessary by the said committee, in order to defray the expenses of and to carry on the said navigation and undertaking, and did appoint the same to be paid into the hands of Henry Skinner, Esq. Treasurer to the said Company of Proprietors, in Cullompton, in the county of Devon, on or before the several days next after such calls were made, as aforesaid, and long since expired, before the said 14th day of April; and whereas the committee of management of the affairs of the said company did, on the said 14th day of April, at a meeting of the said committee, duly held on that day, make a call from the several proprietors of the said navigation and undertaking for the sum of five pounds for and in respect of every share in the said navigation and undertaking; and whereas the committee of management of the affairs of the said company did, on the 8th day of December 1830, at a meeting of the said committee duly held on that day, make a call from the several proprietors of the said navigation and undertaking for the sum of five pounds for and in respect of every share in the said navigation and undertaking, the same two several calls for five pounds, and five pounds, being found wanting and necessary by the committee for the time being, making the said calls as aforesaid, in order to defray the expenses of and to carry on the said navigation and undertaking, and did appoint the first mentioned call for five pounds to be paid on or before the 10th day of June then following, and did appoint the last mentioned call for five pounds to be paid on or before the 10th day of February then following, into the hands of Sir John William Lubbock, Bart. Lubbock, Forster, Clarke, and Co. bankers, London, the Treasurers of the said Company of Proprietors; and the said committees did severally cause such notices of all the said calls to be given as is directed by the Act of Parliament in that case made and provided; and whereas the several persons mentioned in the schedule or list of shares hereunder written, marked with the letter A, were respectively before the said 14th day of April 1830, and the same several persons and also the several persons mentioned in the schedule or list of shares in the said Grand Western Canal, marked with the letter B, hereunder written, were respectively on the said 14th day of April 1830, and also on the said 8th day of December 1830, and thenceforth respectively until the respective forfeitures hereinafter mentioned, proprietors of the several and respective shares in the said canal set against their respective names in the said schedules or lists, and distinguished by the numbers also set against their several and respective names in the same schedules or lists, and have respectively neglected to pay their respective proportionable parts or any part of the money so called for as aforesaid, for and in respect of their respective shares in the said navigation and undertaking, for the space of three calendar months after the several times appointed for payment thereof as aforesaid, whereby they severally and respectively absolutely forfeited their several and respective shares, parts, and interests in the said undertaking, and all profit and advantage thereof, and all money theretofore advanced by them respectively on account thereof, to and for the use and benefit of the other proprietors of the said undertaking.

Now notice is hereby given, to the said several persons mentioned in the said schedules or lists respectively marked with the letters A, B, hereunder written, their respective executors, administrators, and assigns, of the said respective forfeitures, and that unless they or their respective executors, administrators, or assigns, shall respectively, on or before the 31st day of December instant, pay into the hands of Sir John William Lubbock, Bart. Lubbock, Forster, Clarke, and Co. bankers, London, the Treasurers of the said Company, their respective proportionable parts of the several sums of money so called for as aforesaid, for and in respect of their said respective shares, the said committee will at their general meeting, intended to be held on the 25th day of January next, at the office of the said company, No. 4, Tokenhouse-yard, in the city of London, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, declare the said shares respectively to be forfeited, and that advantage will be taken of the said forfeitures respectively, by and on behalf of the other proprietors of the said undertaking.—Dated this 3d day of December, in the year of our Lord 1831.

By order of the said Committee,
Fred. Leigh, Principal Clerk to the said Company of Proprietors.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
