Whitehall; December 23, 1831.

THE following Addresses and Petitions—praying for Parliamentary Reform—expressing their feeling on the rejection of the Reform Bill—declaring their confidence in the King's Ministers—and praying His Majesty to exercise his prerogative of creating Peers—having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

From the Freeholders, Leaseholders, and Householders of the county of Devon.

From the Inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Yeovil.

From the Householders and other Inhabitants of the town and parish of Stewarston, assembled at a public meeting duly convened.

From the Inhabitants of the royal burgh of Kilkenny and vicinity, in Fife.

From the Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants of the town of Barnard Castle and neighbourhood, in public meeting assembled.

From the Tradesmen, Mechanics, and Artisans of the city of Limerick.

From the Inhabitants of the town and liberties of Kinsale, in the county of Cork, assembled at a public meeting held at the Court-house.

From the Inhabitants of the parish of Berry Pomeroy, in the county of Devon, assembled at a public meeting.

From the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Landholders, and Inhabitants of the county of Longford, assembled by public advertisement.

From the Inhabitants of the town of Swansea and its neighbourhood, in the county of Glamorgan.

From the Inhabitants of the county of Tipperary.

From the Inhabitants of the parish of Pucklechurch and Wick and Abson, in the county of Gloucester.

From the Magistrates, Clergy, Farmers, and others; Freeholders of the county of Hereford (whose names are signed to the Petition), against Reform.

The notice in the Gazette of the 20th instant, of the Address from the Inhabitants of Edinburgh, presented to His Majesty at Brighton, by the Duke of Buccleugh, should have been as follows:—an Address against any general reconstruction of that system of representation under which this country has so long maintained a dignity in its external relations, and enjoyed a course of internal prosperity, peace, and security, which they believe to be without example in the history of the world.

Foreign-Office, December 23, 1831.

The King has been graciously pleased to appoint Edmund Molyneux, Esq. to be His Majesty's Consul in the State of Georgia, to reside at Savannah.

Whitehall, December 20, 1831.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend John Simon Jenkinson, A. M. to the Rectory of Sudbourn cum Capellâ de Orford, in the county of Suffolk and diocese of Norwich, void by the death of the Reverend Christopher Smear.
