TUESDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1831.

St. James's-Palace, December 23, 1831.

THE following Addresses—praying for Parliamentary Reform—expressing their feeling on the rejection of the Reform Bill—declaring their confidence in the King's Ministers—and praying His Majesty to exercise his prerogative of creating Peers—have been presented to His Majesty and graciously received:

From the Inhabitants of New Mills, in the parish of Glossop, and its neighbourhood, in the county of Derby.

From the Inhabitants of the town of Worthing, in public meeting assembled.

From the Magistrates, Bankers, Gentlemen, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of Devises, or its immediate vicinity, in the county of Wilts.

From the Magistrates, Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Chesterfield, in the county of Derby, in public meeting assembled.

From the Freeholders of the county of Hereford, assembled at a meeting convened by the High Sheriff.

St. James's-Palace, December 23, 1831.

THE following Address has been presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects, the Convener, Master of Hospital, Seven Deacons, and whole other Members of the Seven Incorporated Trades of the city of Aberdeen, beg leave most humbly and respectfully to approach your Majesty to tender to your Majesty our sincere and joyful congratulations on the august and auspicious solemnity of placing the Royal Diadem upon the head of your Majesty, as Consort of our beloved Sovereign.

We feel justly proud in having a Queen upon the Throne of this great empire, in whom every virtue is combined which can adorn your Majesty's exalted station, add lustre to the British Crown, or endear your Majesty to your affectionate people.

Permit us, Madam, upon this happy occasion to express those feelings of admiration and respect which, in unison with all ranks of your Majesty's loyal and affectionate subjects, we entertain towards your Majesty, and to offer to your Majesty that homage which is justly due to so much virtue, benevolence, and goodness.

That your Majesty, in conjunction with your Royal Consort, our beloved Sovereign, may, by the blessing of God, long be preserved in health, in happiness, and in prosperity, to reign in the hearts and command the homage, esteem, and admiration of a loyal, affectionate, and happy people, is the fervent prayer of, Madam, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Convener, Master of Hospital, Seven Deacons, and whole other Members of the Seven Incorporated Trades of the City of Aberdeen.

Signed in the name and by the appointment of the said Seven Incorporated Trades, in Common-hall assembled, this 28th day of September 1831 years, and their seal hereunto appended,

David Carter, Convener; William Smith, Master of Hospital; Alex. Cooper, Deacon of Hammermen; William Crabb, Deacon of Bakers; John Mowat, Deacon of Wrights and Coopers; Wm. M. Conachie, Deacon of Tailors; P. Taylor, Deacon of the Shoe-Makers; Herod Laing, Deacon of Weavers; Wm. Spark, jun. Deacon of Fishers.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st day of November 1831.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels, provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon, or in respect of, British vessels:

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into, or exported from, the dominions of the Emperor of Austria, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from the said dominions of the Emperor of Austria, in Austrian vessels, and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the dominions of the Emperor of Austria than are levied on Austrian vessels: His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date hereof, Austrian vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Austrian vessels shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st day of November 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to allow the importation of lumber, and of fish and provisions, duty free, into the islands of Barbadoes and St. Vincent, and to indemnify the Governors and others for having permitted the importation of those articles duty free," it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, lumber, and fish and provisions, shall and may be imported into the said islands respectively, duty free, until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to continue in force the provisions of the said Act until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two; and whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to continue in force the provisions of the said Act, His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and direct that the provisions of the said Act shall be continued in force until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

The King has been pleased to nominate, constitute, and appoint George Joseph Bell, Esq. Advocate, to be one of the Six Ordinary Clerks of Session in Scotland, in the room of Robert Hamilton, Esq. deceased.

Whitehall, November 25, 1831.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Forde, of Northallerton, in the county of York, Esq. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 15, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, late in the evening of Tuesday the 6th day of December instant, the body of a female (since identified to be that of a person named Hannah Hobbs), was discovered at Aldrington, near Brighton, in the county of Sussex, the head being severed from the body, and both arms cut off close to the elbow joints; and that a coroner's inquest having been subsequently held upon the same, a verdict has been returned of "wilful murder against some person or persons unknown;"

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed or assisted in the perpetration of such murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, December 27, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the Reverend W. Griffith, Wesleyan Minister, of Devonport, in the county of Devon, has been missing since about nine o'clock on the night of Tuesday the 20th day of December instant, when he parted from a friend on Makerheights, on the road from Kingsand to Cremill-passage, in the county of Cornwall, and that there is every reason to believe that he has been murdered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed such murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £70 by the Reverend W. Hayman, Morice-street, Devonport.

of such moneys as the said Assignees may deem expedient and right; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, or such other person as they may think fit, to collect and get in the several debts due to the said estate, and making such allowance for the same as the said Assignees may think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or defence of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or in anywise relating or incident thereto; and to the Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or settling any accounts, or any other matters or things whatsoever due or in any wise relating to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Andrew White and William Metcalf, of Lamb's-Conduit-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Linnen-Drapers, Silk-Merchants, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Saturday the 7th day of January next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting an offer made for the purchase of the outstanding debts due to the Bankrupts' estate, or to their selling and disposing of the same by public auction or private contract, or otherwise in such manner, and upon such terms as they shall see fit; also to the said Assignees selling and disposing of the interest of the said William Metcalf, in certain leasehold premises, or the rents arising therefrom, or to their releasing and relinquishing the same in favour of the said William Metcalf, in part satisfaction of his statuteable allowance, if any, to which he may be entitled under the Commission; and on other separate affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Boast, now or late of Hunslet, in the Parish of Leeds, in the County of York, Innkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 18th day of January next, at Eleven in the Forenoon, at the Court-House, in Leeds aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, as shall be advised against any person or persons, and more especially against the Sheriff of the County of York, and also certain other persons, who will be named at the said meeting, or any of them, for the recovery or benefit of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said Bankrupt, in such manner as shall appear to them most proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Gibbs, of Savage-Gardens, in the City of London, Wine-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 19th day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing of the whole or any part as well of the real as of the personal estate of the said Bankrupt, to any person or persons, in one or more lots, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, either for ready money or on credit, in such manner as the said Assignee shall think fit and proper; and also to confirm the acts of the said Assignee in prosecuting or carrying on a certain action commenced by the said Bankrupt before his Bankruptcy against a person to be named at the said meeting, for a debt due to the said Bankrupt; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee prosecuting or defending any other suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate or effects; or compounding; submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, settling, or adjusting the same; and on other special matters.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt under the Great Seal of Great Britain, awarded and issued forth and now in prosecution against John Cross, of Burnley, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinner and Manufacturer, and also a Coal Dealer, at Habergham-Eaves, in the said County of Lancaster, Dealer and Chapman, (carrying on business at Habergham-Eaves aforesaid, in Partnership with John Yates and John Haslop, under the firm of John Cross and Co.), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, at the Office of Mr. Hitchcock, Solicitor, in Brown Street, in Manchester, in the said County, on the 17th day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, in order to allow, sanction, ratify and confirm the acts, deeds and proceedings of the petitioning Creditor and provisional Assignee, in the carrying on and continuing the trade and business of the said Bankrupt for the benefit of his Creditors, previous and subsequent to the opening of the said Commission, and to authorise and empower the said Assignees to pay the petitioning Creditor and provisional Assignee, or otherwise permit him to retain, out of the proceeds of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, all such monies as he may have advanced or paid for wages and other matters in carrying on and continuing the said business, with interest for the same, from the respective times when such monies were advanced or paid; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on and continuing the Cotton-Spinning and Manufacturing business of the said Bankrupt, at the expence and risk of the estate, and for the benefit of the Creditors, for such time and so long as the same shall be deemed advisable and expedient by the said Assignees, or for a period to be named at such meeting; and in case the Creditors shall assent to the said trade and business being carried on, to give all necessary powers and authorities to the Assignees for that purpose, and to their employing the said Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, workmen and servants in and about the said business, at the expence of the estate, as they said Assignees shall deem necessary and expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, the household goods and effects, or any part thereof, of the said Bankrupt, to him or any other person, for ready money or payment on a future day, with or without security; and also to the said Assignees selling and disposing of the whole of the machinery, gearing, utensils and effects, in, upon, and about the mill and premises in Burnley aforesaid, and lately occupied by the said Bankrupt, as well as his estate and interest (if any) in a certain lease of the said mill and premises, by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, to any person or persons whomsoever, at a valuation, or otherwise, and in such manner, either for ready money or on credit, with or without security, and upon such terms and conditions as the said Assignees shall think fit, and in case of any sale or sales by auction, to authorise and empower the said Assignees from time to time to buy in and resell the same, or any part thereof, at the risk and expence of the Bankrupt's estate, if they shall think fit so to do; and also to the said Assignees, in like manner, selling and disposing of the interest of the said Bankrupt in certain coal-mines and property at Habergham-Eaves aforesaid, or to the said Assignees adopting or rescinding any contract made by the Bankrupt with Mr. Clegg, or any other person or persons, in relation thereto, or settling, arranging and agreeing with the party or parties having an interest therein on such terms and conditions as the Assignees shall think most beneficial to the estate of the said Bankrupt; and also to the said Assignees selling and disposing of any other property, real or personal, of the said Bankrupt, in manner aforesaid, as they may deem advisable; and also to the said Assignees, at the expence of the said estate, employing the Bankrupt, or an accountant or other person, to investigate and wind up the Bankrupt's affairs; and also to the said Assignees entering into, accepting or executing any arrangement, composition or deed of assignment and release with, from, or to any debtor or debtors to said Bankrupt's estate, on such terms and conditions as they the said Assignees shall think most advantageous to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to the said Assignees settling, arranging, and agreeing with any person or persons having or claiming a lien or liens on any goods or effects of the said Bankrupt, in such manner as they the said Assignees shall think fit; and also to allow and confirm all acts, deeds, buyings, sellings, payments, dealings, contracts and transactions already, or which may in the meantime be, executed, made, done, entered into or transacted by the said Assignees in or about the said trade and business, or in the preservation and management of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing actions at law or other proceedings against any person or persons indebted to the said Bankrupt for the recovery of such debts; and to submit to arbitration or otherwise agree any dispute or difference respecting any of such debts, or any other matter or thing connected with or relating to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Baker Billows, of the Town and County of Poole, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 17th day of January 1832, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the London Tavern Inn, Poole, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's freehold estates, and also the stock in trade, household furniture, plate, linen and other effects, either by public auction, private contract, valuation, appraisement or otherwise, as the said Assignees shall think proper, and in such lots or parcels, at such times or places, at such prices, upon such terms and conditions, either for ready money or upon such credit as the said Assignees shall think proper, with full liberty to and for the said Assignees to buy in and afterwards resell the said estate and effects, or part thereof respectively, in such manner as they shall think proper, without being answerable for any loss or diminution in price at any such resale, or for any expence which may have been occasioned by any such buying in and the resale; and also to assent to and dissent from the said Assignees paying off and discharging any mortgages, liens or other charges or incumbrances upon the estate of the said Bankrupt, if they shall think proper; or to the said Assignees joining or concurring with any mortgagee or mortgagees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt in effecting any sale or sales thereof as the said Assignees may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being allowed the costs, charges and expences paid Mr. James Adamson, together with the bill of the messenger, and the costs, charges and expences incurred by George Ledgard, of Poole aforesaid, Banker, and Joseph Moore, of Poole aforesaid, Bookseller, the former Assignees, as well for the proceedings as also for expunging the proof of Henry Jones, of Fetter-Lane, in the City of London, Carver and Gilder, and for taking the opinions of Counsel under a former Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against the said George Baker Billows, bearing date the 3d day of November 1831, and afterwards of superseiding the said Commission, and incidental to the said several matters; and also to assent to or dissent from allowing, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, all payments, costs, charges and expences incurred, disbursed or paid under the said Commission by the said George Ledgard and Joseph Moore, or either of them, on account of the said Bankrupt's estate, or relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees under the existing Commission being allowed the costs, charges and expences of and relating or incidental to any petition or petitions which they might hereafter be advised to present to the Lord High Chancellor, or any other court, for the purpose of expunging any proof of debt or proofs of debt under the said Commission; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to take such measures in the management and arrangement of the said Bankrupt's affairs, and relative to his estate and effects, and to pay such costs, charges and expences thereout as to the said Assignees may seem expedient and proper; and also to confirm such acts as the said Assignees shall have done in and about the affairs of the said Bankrupt previously to the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed: and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 24th day of December 1831, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

THOMAS SCHOFIELD, of Wakefield, in the County of York, Innkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
