PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels, provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon, or in respect of, British vessels :

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into, or exported from, the dominions of the Emperor of Austria, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from the said dominions of the Emperor of Austria, in Austrian vessels, and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the dominions of the Emperor of Austria than are levied on Austrian vessels : His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date hereof, Austrian vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels ; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Austrian vessels shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st day of November 1831.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, in-tituled "An Act to allow the importation of lumber, and of fish and provisions, duty free, into the “ islands of Barbadoes and St. Vincent, and to indemnify the Governors and others for having permitted the importation of those articles duty free,” it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, lumber, and fish and provisions, shall and may be imported into the said islands respectively, duty free, until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to continue in force the provisions of the said Act until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two; and whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to continue in force the provisions of the said Act, His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and direct that the provisions of the said Act shall be continued in force until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, December 23, 1831.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Benjamin Lawson Johnson, of the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 27, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the Reverend W. Griffith, Wesleyan Minister, of Devonport, in the county of Devon, has been missing since about nine o'clock on the night of Tuesday the 20th day of December instant, when he parted from a friend on Makerheights, on the road from Kingsand to Cremillpassage, in the county of Cornwall, and that there is every reason to believe that he has been murdered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown; His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed such murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence: — £100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £70 by the Reverend W. Hayman, Morrice-street, Devonport.

MELBOURNE.

Admiralty-Office, December 28, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Thursday the 2d of February next, at eight o'clock in the morning:

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. John Clark, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

George Eliot.

BY virtue and in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of the late King George the Third, intitled “ An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, commons, and waste lands, in the parish of Caddington, in the counties of Bedford and Hertford,” I, John Pedley, of the parish of Caddington aforesaid, Esq. do hereby give notice, that I intend to apply to the first Quarter Session of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Bedford, in the week after the 31st day of March next ensuing (that is to say), on Tuesday the 3d day of April next, to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by or from or by means of the London Gazette, so long as the returns of the average price of corn or grain shall have been published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such other ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Bedford, for ten years then last past; which said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall, by their report to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Session to be held in and for the said county of Bedford, in the first week after the 24th day of June next ensuing (that is to say), on Tuesday the 3d day of July next, set forth such average price, to the intent that the yearly corn rent charged by virtue of the said Act upon certain lands in the said parish of Caddington, in the county of Bedford, belonging to me, and payable to the Vicar for the time being of the said parish of Caddington, may be increased or diminished in proportion thereto.—Dated this 26th day of December 1831. John Pedley.

BY virtue and in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-eighth year of the reign of the late King George the Third, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands in the parish of Harlington, in the county of Bedford," I, Thomas Pearse, Clerk, Vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Harlington aforesaid, do hereby give notice, that I intend to apply to the first Quarter Session of the Peace to be held in and for the said county, in the week after the 31st day of March next ensuing (that is to say), on Tuesday the 3d day of April next, to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by or from or by means of the London Gazette, so long as the returns of the average price of corn or grain shall have been published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such other ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Bedford, for twenty-one years then last past; which said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall, by their report to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Session to be held in and for the said county of Bedford, in the first week after the 24th day of June next ensuing (that is to say), on Tuesday the 3d day of July next, set forth such average price, to the intent that the yearly corn rent charged by virtue of the said Act, and payable to the Vicar for the time being of the said parish of Harlington, may be increased or diminished in proportion thereto.—Dated this 26th day of December 1831.

Thomas Pearse.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Friday's until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

Notice to the Creditors of Alexander Stuart, late of the half-pay of His Majesty's 42d Regiment, formerly living at the Army and Navy Coffee-House, Saint Martin's-Lane, afterwards of Northumberland-Court, Strand, and of Manchester-Buildings, Cannon-Row, Westminster, some time since discharged from Whitecross-Street Prison, under the Insolvent Debtors' Act.

THE Creditors are requested to meet the Assignee at the George, George-Court, Strand, on the 29th day of January instant, to make a sixth dividend of the estate and effects of the said Alexander Stuart.

THE Creditors of John Meads, late of Brighton, in the County of Sussex, Builder and Grocer, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from the Gaol of Horsham, in the said County, on Thursday the 11th day of August last, are requested to meet on Monday the 16th day of January instant, at the House of James Ireland, known as the Kerrison Arms, situate in Waterloo-Street, in the Parish of Hove, in the County aforesaid, at Six o'Clock in the Evening precisely, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the Insolvent's estate and effects.

In the matter of John Phillips, an Insolvent Debtor.

THE Creditors of John Phillips, heretofore of Hilderstone, in the Parish of Stone, in the County of Stafford, following the business of a Miller, Farmer and Butcher, and afterwards of Day-Hills, in the Parish of Millwich, in the said County of Stafford, first following the business of Butcher, Farmer and Victualler, and afterwards being out of business, and now an Insolvent Debtor and a Prisoner in Stafford Gaol, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, on the 24th day of January 1832, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Fountain Inn, at Stone, in the said County of Stafford, to order and approve of a time and place for the sale of the real and personal estate of the said Insolvent, and the manner of selling and disposing of the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignee commencing a suit in equity against a person to be named at the said meeting, and claiming to be a mortgagee of the said Insolvent's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits against any of the debtors to the estate of the said Insolvent.—Dated the 31st day of December 1831.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignees of the estate and effects of William Smallwood, late of the White Horse, Sunbury, Middlesex, Victualler, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a Prisoner in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, have caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignees at the Office of Mr. Edward Bousfield, Solicitor to the said Assignees, 12, Chatham Place, Blackfriars, on the 15th day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the said Assignees will declare the amount of the balance in their hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignees, or any Creditor object to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
