Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 2, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room to be held at St. James's-Palace, on Friday the 24th of February next, being for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

Whitehall, January 10, 1832.

The following Address and Petition, in favour of Parliamentary Reform, have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

From the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Householdors of Suffolk, assembled at a county meeting duly convened by the High Sheriff.
From the Freeholders, Copyholders, and Inhabitants of the town of Watford, and places adjacent, in the county of Hertford.

Master of the Horse's-Office, January 9, 1832.

The King has been pleased to appoint Henry Torrens D'Aguilar, Esq. Page of Honour to His Majesty in ordinary, in the room of William Henry Herve Bathurst, Esq. promoted.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st day of November 1831.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels, provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon, or in respect of, British vessels :

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into, or exported from, the dominions of the Emperor of Austria, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from the said dominions of the Emperor of Austria, in Austrian vessels, and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the dominions of the Emperor of Austria than are levied on Austrian vessels : His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date hereof, Austrian vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels ; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Austrian vessels shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st day of November 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to allow the importation of lumber, and of fish and provisions, duty free, into the islands of Barbadoes and St. Vincent, and to indemnify the Governors and others for having permitted the importation of those articles duty free," it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, lumber, and fish and provisions, shall and may be imported into the said islands respectively, duty free, until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two ; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to continue in force the provisions of the said Act until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two ; and whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to continue in force the provisions of the said Act, His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and direct that the provisions of the said Act shall be continued in force until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, January 2, 1832.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable John-Francis Baron Howden, of Howden and Grimston, in the county of York, in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; Baron Howden, of Grimston and Spaldington, and of Cradockstown, in the county of Kildare, in Ireland, General of His Majesty's Forces, Colonel of the 43d (or the Monmouthshire) Regiment of Foot, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and a Member of the Imperial Ottoman Order of the Crescent, his royal licence and authority that his Lordship and his issue may henceforth assume, take, and use as his and their surname, the name of Caradoc, instead of his present surname of Cradock:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in pursuance of the Act, 10th Geo. 4th, c. 27, s. 1, that the actual Expenditure of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland exceeded the actual Revenue thereof, for the year ended the 10th day of October 1831, by the sum of twenty thousand five hundred and thirty-seven pounds, eighteen shillings, and eleven pence;

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that no sum will be applied by them on account of the Sinking Fund, under the provisions of the said Act, between the 5th day of January 1832 and the 5th day of April 1832.

S. Higham, Comptroller General.

National Debt-Office, January 10, 1832.

Whitehall, January 10, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Saturday the 24th day of December last, upwards of one thousand pitmen riotously assembled together at or about Walldridge Colliery, near Chester-le-street, in the county of Durham, and, while from twenty to thirty men were at work in the mine, stopped the engine, necessarily kept going in order to pump out the water, and then threw large iron tubs, wooden cisterns, coves, and other articles down the shaft; by which stoppage of the engine, throwing down of tubs, &c. the aforesaid workmen were placed in the utmost danger;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed any of the aforesaid acts) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and an additional reward of TWO HUNDRED and FIFTY GUINEAS by the owners of Walldridge Colliery, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. HAISBOROUGH SAND.

Trinity-House, London, January 6, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in compliance with the applications of numerous bodies of merchants, owners and masters of ships, and other persons, this Corporation has caused a Floating Light Vessel to be moored off the North End of Haisborough Sand; and, in conformity with the intention expressed in the advertisement from this House, dated the 27th ultimo, the lights on board the same were exhibited on the evening of the 1st instant. These lights, which will be kept continually burning from sun-set to sun-rise, are exhibited from two lanterns, raised on separate masts; and the vessel is moored in $13\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms at low water spring tides, with the following compass bearings, viz.

Cromer Light-House, W. by N.
Haisborough High Light-House, S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ S.
North Buoy of Haisborough Sand, E. by S. distant about one mile.

The words, "Haisbro' Light," are painted on the sides of this light vessel; and on the sides of the light vessel, in Haisborough Gatt, the word, "Newarp," will be painted, instead of "Happisburgh Gatt," as heretofore.

By order,
J. Herbert, Secretary.

Admiralty-Office, December 28, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Thursday the 2d of February next, at eight o'clock in the morning:

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10; Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. John Clark, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

George Elliot.

Navy-Office, January 4, 1832.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st October to the 31st December last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 16th, 17th, and 18th of January, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 19th, 20th, 23d, 24th, and 25th of January, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 26th and 27th of January, to Masters, Surgeons, and Purser, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attorneys for that purpose, the said Attorneys are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers

"belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of December last, will commence paying on the 16th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

CONTRACT FOR CABIN STOVES.

Navy-Office, December 22, 1831.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 19th of January next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering, at His Majesty's Dock-yards at Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, Cabin Stoves, for His Majesty's Ships, from a First Rate down to a Sloop.

Every person tendering must send with his tender a drawing and pattern of the stove he proposes to supply, and state a price for each of three different sizes, namely, one for first and second rates, one for third and fourth rates, and one for fifth and sixth rates.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, January 1, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned County,

Durham;

North and South Wales;

OATS, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Cantonments and Quarters, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Bedford,	Oxford,
Chester,	Somerset,
Essex,	Stafford,
Hants,	Sussex,
Herts,	Westmoreland,
Hunts,	Worcester,
Leicester.	York;

FORAGE, viz. Oats, Hay, and Straw, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Dorset,	Northumberland (in-
Northampton,	cluding Berwick-
Somerset,	on-Tweed);

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 1st day of March next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Thursday the 9th day of February next; but none will be received after eleven o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be refunded to him.

N. B. It is particularly desired that persons wishing to tender will not make use of any forms but those recently printed, which may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of ten and four.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
January 10, 1832.

PURSUANT to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £82 and under £83 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
E. Bates, Secretary.

London Docks.

London Dock-House, Princes-Street,

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both on the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act. 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

THE Creditors of James Knight, of Castle Cary, in the County of Somerset, Surgeon, Apothecary, and Accoucheur, an Insolvent Debtor, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Insolvent's estate, at the Swan Inn, in Sherborne, in the County of Dorset, on Tuesday the 24th day of January instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, in order to approve of the manner and place of sale of the real estate of the said Insolvent, pursuant to an Act of the seventh George the Fourth, cap. 57, sec. 20, intituled "An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England;" and also to take into consideration several other matters relating to the said Insolvent's estate, which will be then and there submitted to them.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of George Smith, formerly of Easby, near Stokesley, in the North Riding of Yorkshire, Farmer, and then of Stokesley aforesaid, Labourer, and late a prisoner in the Gaol of York Castle, will be held at the George and Dragon Inn, in Yarm, in the said Riding, on Monday the 30th day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to consider and decide in what manner, and at what time and place, the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said George Smith, appointed by the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, shall sell by auction the real estates of the said George Smith.
