Church Commissioners' Office, No. 13, Great George-Street, August 23, 1831.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, dividing the parish of Trentham, in the county of Stafford, into three distinct and separate parishes, under the provisions of the 16th section of the 58 Geo. 3, c. 45:

At the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of August 1831, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is amongst other things enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such divisions, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal, and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe lands, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act; passed in the last session of Parliament, for building; and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect: and whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, in the year 1821, when the last census was taken, the parish of Trentham, in the county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, contained a population of 2303 persons, which has since considerably increased; that there are in the said parish, besides the parish church, two chapels, one of which is situated in the township of Blurton otherwise called Blurton and Lightwood, and the other in the township of Hanford, which, together with the parish church, afford accommodation for 1142 persons; that the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that the said parish should be divided into three distinct and separate parishes, under the 16th section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; and that the said parishes should be named respectively, the parish of Trentham, the parish of Blurton, and the parish of Hanford; and that the parish of Trentham should comprise the township of Trentham, Hanchurch, and Butterton; that the parish of Blurton should consist of the present township of Blurton otherwise Blurton and Lightwood; and that the parish of Hanford should comprise the township of Hanford and Clayton Griffith; that about one acre of glebe will remain and be within the parish of Blurton; that about twelve acres of glebe will remain and be within the parish of Hanford; that no tithes or moduses accrue or will arise to the Ministers of any of the said parishes; that the parish of Hanford is endowed by the Commissioners of Queen Anne's Bounty with a sum of one thousand four hundred pounds, which, at the present rate of interest paid, produces forty-five pounds and ten shillings a year; and that the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues is as follows; one half of the whole to the parish of Trentham, and one fourth each to the parishes of Blurton and Hanford:

That the consents of the Lord Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry and the Marquess of Stafford, the patron of the parish church of Trentham, have been obtained, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of His Majesty King George the Third; and humbly praying that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His Royal consideration; and to make such order in respect thereto as His Majesty shall seem meet:—His Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
