THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Bradley, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 21st day of February next, at Ten in the Forenoon of the same day, at the Offices of Messrs. Atkinson and Birch, Solicitors, Norfolk-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking such proceedings, at law or in equity, as they shall be advised, for the recovery and obtaining possession of certain land and premises and other effects devised or conveyed to the said Bankrupt by Miss Catherine Hampson, deceased, or entering into such arrangement respecting the same with the party or parties claiming an interest therein, as the said Assignees shall think most advisable for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, in case they shall think fit, the lien claimed by the said Bankrupt's attorney upon any deeds and other documents in his possession, relating to the said property and effects, in order to obtain possession of such deeds and documents; and also to their selling and disposing of, at the risque of the said Bankrupt's estate, by auction or private contract, and either together or in parcels, of the stock in trade, household furniture and effects of the said William Bradley, either for ready money or for payment on a future day, with or without taking security for the payment of the purchase-moneys, or any part thereof; and to the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupt, or such other person or persons as they shall think proper, to sell and dispose of the said stock in trade, and paying him or them such salary or compensation for his or their trouble as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees defending, at the expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, all such actions, suits, petitions and proceedings which may be brought, commenced, presented or instituted by any person whomsoever in respect of certain portions of the household goods and furniture seized at the said Bankrupt's dwelling-house, and sold and disposed of under the said Commission; or to submit to arbitration or otherwise arrange and agree any dispute or difference concerning the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees consenting and agreeing that certain persons holding a bill of exchange accepted by a debtor to the said Bankrupt's estate may, without prejudice to their proof on the said Bankrupt's estate, settle, compromise, arrange and agree with such acceptor respecting such bill, on such terms and conditions as they shall think proper, either by allowing time for the payment of the said bill in full, or accepting a composition thereon, and releasing and discharging the said acceptor in consideration of such composition, or executing any deed of assignment which he may make for the benefit of his Creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Burnett, late of Stroud, in the County of Gloucester, Tankeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 14th day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the George Inn, in Stroud aforesaid, for the purpose of authorising and empowering the said Assignees (in order to avoid the delay and expence of a suit in equity), to settle and agree with the wife of the said Bankrupt, or the Trustees or surviving Trustee under a certain indenture of settlement made and entered into by her late father and mother, bearing date the 1st day of November 1816, as to what part, share, or proportion of the moneys to which she is, or may be hereafter entitled in her own right, under such settlement shall be paid to her by the said Trustees for her own separate use; and also in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking proceedings at law, for the recovery of certain debts due and owing to the said Bankrupt's estate; or for compounding, settling and adjusting the same, or for referring to arbitration any question or difference which may arise relative to such debts; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Wakeford, William Wakeford, and Robert Wakeford, of Andover, in the County of Southampton, Bankers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Friday the 17th day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Star and Garter Inn, in Andover aforesaid, respecting a matter in dispute between the said Assignees and Mr. Joseph Wakeford, of Cricklade, in the Parish of Andover aforesaid, Miller, relative to a claim made by the said Joseph Wakeford, of Cricklade, to hold a certain mill and farm, called or known by the name of Cricklade Mill and Cricklade Farm, in the said Parish of Andover, in his occupation as tenant to the said Bankrupts, at the time of their bankruptcy, and still in his occupation as tenant to the said Assignees until Michaelmas 1835, under an agreement alleged to have been entered into between the said Joseph Wakeford, of Cricklade, and the said Bankrupts before their bankruptcy, whereby the said Joseph Wakeford, of Cricklade, contends the said Bankrupts agreed to grant a lease to him of such mill and farm for a term of ten years, commencing at Michaelmas in the year 1825, and at which meeting is intimated by the said Assignees to take the opinion of the said Creditors as to the expediency of admitting or disputing the said claim to the said lease, and also upon the most advantageous mode of proceeding to a sale of the said estate; and at the said meeting the said Creditors will be consulted as to the course it will be expedient for the Assignees to adopt in disposing or otherwise converting into money a certain security made and executed to the said Bankrupts from Edward Lansley, late of Penton Mewsey, in the said County of Southampton, Common Brewer, deceased, and Martha his wife for the sum of £450, and interest, and also a policy of assurance effected on the life of the said Martha Lansley, and the opinion of the Creditors will be taken as to the expediency of the said Assignees continuing on foot the said policy of assurance; and the Creditors of the joint estate of the said Bankrupt, and those Creditors who have proved their debts against the separate estate of the Bankrupts, Joseph Wakeford and William Wakeford, will be requested at such meeting to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising on certain terms then and there to be stated to the said Creditors, a certain claim made by Robert Moore, of Andover aforesaid, Shopkeeper, and Martha his wife, and Elizabeth Mercey, of the same place, Widow, whereby the said Robert Moore and Martha his wife, and Elizabeth Mercey, claim a lien or equitable mortgage for £200, and interest, at the rate of £5 per centum per annum, from the 21st day of December 1812, on certain hereditaments and premises, in Soper's-Lane, in Andover aforesaid, contracted to be sold by the said Assignees to Mr. John Poore, of Andover aforesaid, Merchant, and which said hereditaments and premises are part of the separate estate of the said Joseph Wakeford and William Wakeford; and also at the said meeting the said Assignees will consult with and take the opinion of the said Creditors on the joint estate of the said Bankrupts, and the separate estate of the said Joseph Wakeford, as to the most desirable mode of selling and disposing of a certain mortgage security from Charles Porter, of Andover aforesaid, Bricklayer, to Joseph Wakeford, one of the said Bankrupts, for £186 9s. 3d. and an arrear of interest due thereon and secured on certain messuages and tenements and premises, in Soper's-Lane, in Andover aforesaid, in the respective occupations of Charles Frederick Eaton, John Goddard, John Willis, and the said Charles Porter; and at the said meeting the said Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and reimbursing to their Solicitors under the said Commission, certain fees paid by them to the Commissioners acting under the said Commission, and other costs and expences incurred in consequence of double or extra meetings having been held from time to time on the same day, and which was deemed advisable by the said Assignees in order to facilitate and expedite the proceedings under the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to and reimbursing the said Solicitors the fees, costs, and expences occasioned by a meeting of the Commissioners under the said Commission held in London, pursuant to a requisition to the said Assignees from certain of the said Creditors, and which meeting was advised by the Counsel of such Creditors to be necessary preparatory to their presenting a certain petition to the Lord Chancellor, for an order for a dividend, which order was subsequently obtained, and as to the said Assignees paying, out of the said estate of the said Bankrupts, the fees, costs, and expences due to and incurred by the junior Commissioner under the said Commission for his attendances in London, on the business of the said Commission; and the said Creditors will be consulted by the said Assignees at the said meeting on other special affairs relating to the said bankruptcy.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Daniel Henry Rucker, John Anthony Rucker, and Henry John Rucker, of Wormwood-Street and Mining-Lane, both in the City of London, Wool-Merchants, West India-Merchants, Dealers, Chapmen, and Partners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Thursday the 16th day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees purchasing and shipping, or concurring in purchasing and shipping, the stores and supplies which may be required to be sent from the United Kingdom, for the use of all or any of the plantations or estates, situate in the West Indies or America, in which the said Bankrupts, or any of them, were interested at the time of their becoming Bankrupts, or of the negroes or other slaves, and live stock employed or worked upon the said plantations or estates, and paying for such stores and supplies as may be so shipped by them with and out of the moneys arising from the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, and entering into and making, or concurring in entering into and making, such arrangements in relation to the management and cultivation of the said plantations or estates as to the said Assignees may appear expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees engaging or employing the said Bankrupts, or any of them, or any other person or persons, in collecting and recovering the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or in managing and conducting the affairs and business relating thereto, and paying to them respectively such allowances or salaries as to the said Assignees shall appear fair and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving or selling and delivering to the said Bankrupts, or any of them, or otherwise permitting them, or any of them, to retain all or any part of their plate, linen, china, and furniture or other effects, upon such terms as the said Assignees shall think reasonable or expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing or prosecuting any suit or suits in equity, for foreclosing the equity of redemption, or enforcing a sale of all or any of the plantations or estates, lands, slaves, cattle, live and dead stock, hereditaments and effects which the said Bankrupts, or any of them were, interested in or entitled unto as Mortgagees; or commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law, or in equity, concerning the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or any of them; or compromising, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Abraham Ward Collard, now or late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, and of Walton Brook, near Liverpool aforesaid, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 15th day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Messrs. Watson and Byron, situate in Exchange-Alley North, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from an arrangement entered into, or proposed to be entered into, by the said Assignees for the sale of the furniture and effects of the said Bankrupt, in and about his dwelling-house, to the said Bankrupt, on credit, and to take such security for payment thereof as they may think proper, or otherwise to ratify and confirm any such arrangement as may then have been entered into relative thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling, or agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under the Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Saxon and William Royston of Handforth, in the Parish of Cheadle, in the County of Chester, Paper-Dealers, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Tuesday, the 21st day of February next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, at the Offices of Messrs. Atkinson and Birch, Solicitors, Norfolk-Street, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee taking such proceedings, at law or in equity, as he may be advised, to dispute and resist the claim of the Crown to the machinery, goods, and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, seized under an extent for duties of Excise, or to the said Assignee entering into and making such other arrangement respecting the same as he may think proper, and most advantageous to the said Bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from the Assignee selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise; and either in one lot or in parcels, the machinery, goods, furniture, and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, either for ready money or payment on a future day, and with or without taking security for the payment of the purchase-moneys, or any part thereof, with power for the said Assignee, at the risk of the said Bankrupt's estate, to bid for and buy in any part or parts thereof, and again to offer the same for sale, in like manner, at pleasure; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying and discharging, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the rent distrained for by the landlord of the said Bankrupt's mill and premises, on entering into such other arrangement respecting the same as he may think proper, and to give up and relinquish all interest and benefit in the lease to the said Bankrupts of the said mill and premises, upon such terms and conditions as he the said Assignee shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing actions at law against any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupts' estate, or allowing time to him or them for payment of any debt or debts, or accepting any composition or compositions from any such debtor or debtors in full discharge of any debt or debts, and releasing such debtor or debtors therefrom, or executing any deed of assignment made by any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate, for the benefit of his or their Creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying the accountants to the said Bankrupts' estate such allowance and compensation for inspecting, examining and making up the books and accounts of the said Bankrupts, and collecting the debts owing to the estate as he the said Assignee shall think proper; and on other special affairs.
