FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 2, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 22d of February next, at two o'clock, and on every succeeding Wednesday till further notice.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, BEFORE twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Office of the Vice-Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, February 16, 1832.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Peeresses and Ladies who purpose to attend the Queen's Drawing-Rooms at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them three cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Ante-room, one to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to the King, and the third to the Queen's Vice-Chamberlain, who will present the Lady to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary, that their names, with the name of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Office of the Queen's Vice-Chamberlain, before twelve o'clock on the Tuesday previous to each Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation, it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Drawing-Rooms but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

Office of the Vice-Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's House, St. James's, February 16, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the cards of those Ladies who propose attending the Queen's Drawing-Room, on Friday the 24th instant, must be sent in to the Office of the Queen's Vice-Chamberlain, before twelve o'clock on Tuesday next the 21st instant, in order that they may be submitted for Her Majesty's approbation.

The Drawing-Room on Friday the 24th instant being appointed for the celebration of the Queen's Birth-day, it is expected that all Ladies do appear out of mourning.

Office of the Vice-Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's House, St. James's, February 9, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen's Drawing-Room, on Friday the 24th instant, being for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, no presentations will take place.

It is particularly requested, that all Ladies attending the Drawing-Room will appear in dresses of British manufacture.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 2, 1832.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Samuel Wilton Rix, of Beccles, in the county of Suffolk, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Bill is about to be brought into Parliament during the present session, for the purpose of obtaining an Act to equalize the ecclesiastical burthens, so far as regards church rates, of the several districts in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex; and with that view, to appropriate the rents and profits of a certain estate, called the Stonefields, belonging to the said parish, towards the expences of celebrating divine worship in the said district churches, and the ordinary repairs thereof; to let the pews in the church and chapel of ease in St. Mary's district; and to relieve the districts of Trinity, St. John, and St. Paul, from their liability to contribute towards the expence of maintaining and supporting the church and chapel of ease of St. Mary's district. Robt. Oldershaw, jun.

Islington, 13th February 1832.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 7th of February 1832, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 91, intituled "An Act for enlarging and improving the west end of Cheapside, in the city of London, also St. Martins-le-Grand, Aldersgate-street, St. Ann's-lane, and Foster-lane, and for providing a site for a new Post-Office, between St. Martins-le-Grand and Foster-lane aforesaid;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 7th day of August next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 7th day of August next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £80,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the fifty-fifth of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 7th day of August, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

Four thousand eight hundred pounds, the remaining part of a bond for ten thousand pounds, under the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, of the fifty-fifth of George the Third, ch. 91, numbered 4; a bond for ten thousand pounds, under the said Act, numbered 5; four bonds, of one thousand pounds each, under the said Act, numbered 1 to 4, both inclusive; and nine hundred pounds, part of a bond for one thousand pounds, under the said Act, numbered 5.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.
