Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 23, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 8th of March, instead of the 7th, it being Ash Wednesday.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of February 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, did, on the eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, deem it expedient that an Order in Council should be, and an Order accordingly was, issued, placing under quarantine all vessels coming from, or having touched at, any port or place in Russia, or any port or place in the Baltic, or in the Cattegat Sea, or any port or place on the Elbe, and bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom, or to the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man (having clean bills of health), as well as all vessels, boats, and persons having had communications with such vessels, should proceed to such of the under-mentioned ports as might be the nearest and most convenient to their port of destination, viz. Cromarty-bay, in the Murray Frith; to the anchorage in the Frith of Tay, near Dundee; in the Frith of Forth, between the North Queen's Ferry and Lord Elgin's Lime Kilns; White Booth Roads, between Hull and Grimsby; Standgate Creek; the Motherbank, at Portsmouth; Plymouth; Falmouth; Milford Haven; Brombro' Pool, in the River Mersey, near Liverpool; Holy Loch, in the Frith of Clyde; and all vessels arriving with foul bills of health, or coming (without bills of health) from any port or place where the cholera was known to prevail, should proceed either to Cromarty-bay, in the Murray Frith; to Standgate Creek; or to Milford Haven, and should there perform quarantine, and be subject, with their crews, pilots, and all persons having communication with such vessels, to all the rules and regulations established by His late Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five:

And whereas His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hath determined to revoke and annul the said Order in Council, of the eighth of
