FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 28, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 8th of March, instead of the 7th, it being Ash Wednesday.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 2d day of March 1832,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IT is this day ordered by their Lordships, that the Order, bearing date the thirteenth day of October last, for placing all vessels arriving in the United Kingdom, or at the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any port or place situate between the Skaw and Rotterdam, inclusive, or from the Danish territories outside the Baltic, or from ports or places on the River Weser, be, together with their crews, pilots, and all persons, vessels, and boats having had communication therewith, &c. subjecting the said vessels to the restraint of quarantine, according to the provisions of the Act of the sixth of George the Fourth, chap. 78, should be revoked, and the same is hereby revoked and annulled accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of February 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any order or orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such order or orders, to revoke, renew, alter, and vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any constituted; and that all such Boards of Health persons suffering under or likely to be affected by the said disease: and whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain: and whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), necessary and expedient, in order to prevent the spread of the said disease, that all Boards of Health established within cities, towns, and districts of England and Wales, and constituted by any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall remain and continue in the execution of their respective duties as
