The under-mentioned Officers, upon full-pay, have been permitted to retire from the service, receiving commuted allowances for their commissions:

Assistant-Surgeon Hugh Caldwell, of the 15th Foot.

Lieutenant Tempest William Stroud, of the 89th Foot.

Commission, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Southampton.

South Avon Troop of Yeomanry Cavalry.

Thomas Penruddocke, Gent. to be Lieutenant, vice George Duff, resigned. Dated 24th February 1832.

Whitehall, March 2, 1832.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that divers large bodies of armed smugglers have lately been feloniously assembled on different parts of the coasts of Kent and Sussex, for the purpose of effecting the landing of uncustomed and prohibited goods; and whereas upon such occasions violent attacks have been made upon the Officers and men in His Majesty's Coast Guard Service, and upon the Officers of Customs, in which several persons have been killed and severely wounded; and whereas it is necessary to put an end to such outrages, and to bring the offenders to justice;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the persons who have been guilty of these felonies and murders, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons so assembled (except those who actually committed violence upon the said Officers and men) who shall discover his accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

MELBOURNE.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs are hereby pleased to offer the following rewards for the detection and apprehension of persons who have been concerned in such offences, that is to say:

ONE THOUSAND POUNDS to any person or persons who shall discover, or cause to be discovered, any person or persons by whose agreement or undertaking such companies were so illegally assembled, or the actual perpetrator or perpetrators of any such murders;

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall discover, or cause to be discovered, any person or persons who was or were armed with fire arms, or other offensive weapons, and assembled to the number of three or more, for the purpose of running such uncustomed and prohibited goods; and

TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall discover, or cause to be discovered, any one or more of such offenders who were concerned in the running of such goods.

The above rewards to be paid by the Collector and Comptroller of Customs at the port of Rye, upon the conviction of any such offenders.

T. WHITMORE, Secretary.

Whitehall, March 6, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, William Wilson, a boy about sixteen years of age, was recently found dead in the parish of Bayford, in the county of Hertford, and supposed to have been murdered on the night of the 21st day of February last, and that a Coroner's inquest having been subsequently held upon the body, a verdict has been returned of "wilful murder against some person or persons unknown;"

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the said murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.
