

others, of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them, by the before recited Act, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that all Boards of Health heretofore established in any burgh, town, or district of Scotland, and constituted, appointed, or confirmed, by any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Privy Council, certified under the hand of one of the Clerks in Ordinary of the Privy Council, shall remain and continue as at present constituted; and that all such Boards of Health shall proceed in the execution of the duties to be committed to them in such form, and according to such regulations as shall be directed and prescribed by any Order of His Majesty's Privy Council so certified as aforesaid: and it is further ordered that every practitioner of medicine within every burgh, town or district in which every such Board of Health is or shall be constituted by order of the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall, and he is hereby required and commanded to make to such Board a daily report, under his hand, containing a numerical account of all new cases, deaths, and recoveries of every person attended by such medical practitioner, who may be affected with the said disease, or with any other disease anywise resembling the same. And all medical practitioners who shall neglect or omit to make any such return, at the time or in the manner or form required by the Board of Health of the burgh, town or district in which they reside, or in which the patient they attend resides, or who shall in any return wilfully make any false statement, are hereby warned and admonished, that the penalties and punishments consequent upon any such disobedience to this Order, and to the provisions of the before mentioned Act of Parliament, will forthwith be enforced against them.

And it is further ordered, that the Lord President of the Court of Session, the Lord Chief Justice Clerk, the Lord Advocate, or, in his absence, the Solicitor-General of Scotland, Sir John H. Dalrymple, Baronet, Sir James Gibson Craig, Baronet, the Sheriff of Edinburghshire, and John A. Murray, Esq., Advocate, be, and they are hereby appointed by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) to superintend and assist in the execution of the beforementioned Act in Scotland, and every part thereof.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of February 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, did, on the eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, deem it expedient that an Order in Council should be, and an Order accordingly was, issued, placing under quarantine all vessels coming from, or having touched at, any port or place in Russia, or any port or place in the Baltic, or in the Cattegat Sea, or any port or place on the Elbe, and bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom, or to the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man (having clean bills of health), as well as all vessels, boats, and persons having had communications with such vessels, should proceed to such of the under-mentioned ports as might be the nearest and most convenient to their port of destination, viz. Cromarty-bay, in the Murray Frith; to the anchorage in the Frith of Tay, near Dundee; in the Frith of Forth, between the North Queen's Ferry and Lord Elgin's Lime Kilns; White Booth Roads, between Hull and Grimsby; Standgate Creek; the Motherbank, at Portsmouth; Plymouth; Falmouth; Milford Haven; Brombro' Pool, in the River Mersey, near Liverpool; Holy Loch, in the Frith of Clyde; and all vessels arriving with foul bills of health, or coming (without bills of health) from any port or place where the cholera was known to prevail, should proceed either to Cromarty-bay, in the Murray Frith; to Standgate Creek; or to Milford Haven, and should there perform quarantine, and be subject, with their crews, pilots, and all persons having communication with such vessels, to all the rules and regulations established by His late Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five:

And whereas His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hath determined to revoke and annul the said Order in Council, of the eighth of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one; His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with such advice, hereby revoke and annul the afore-mentioned Order, of the eighth of June last, and the same is hereby revoked and annulled to all intents and purposes whatever:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.
