AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 15th day of March 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IT having been brought to the knowledge of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that several Masters of Vessels sailing from infected and other ports in the United Kingdom, have evaded the quarantine regulations, by communicating with vessels, ports, and places prior to their being visited by the proper Officer of Customs; it is hereby ordered by their Lordships, that in the event of any person dying, or of any person being affected with symptoms of cholera, on board of any vessel, or boat of any description, sailing from any port of the United Kingdom, at the time of or subsequently to her leaving her port of lading, the master or other person in charge of such vessel shall cause a yellow flag to be kept hoisted, and shall not himself leave his vessel, or permit any other person to do so, or to have any communication with any other vessel, or with the shore, in any port of the United Kingdom, until the said vessel shall have been examined by the proper Officer of Customs, and regularly released, or ordered to a quarantine station, where she will be subject to the rules, regulations, and penalties established by the Act of 6th George Fourth, ch. 78, and His Majesty's Order in Council of the nineteenth July one thousand eight hundred and twenty five.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the decease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the parish of Lambeth is at the present time affected with the said disease :

And whereas by an Order made on the sixth day of the present month of March, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was amongst other things ordered and directed that every Board of Health constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish or place, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act above recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money of a fixed and declared amount for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof :

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate of all the necessary expences, amounting in the whole to the sum of two hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health of the parish of Lambeth to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry hath declined to give any authority or directions to the Board of Health, or to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon :

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before recited Act, that the said Board of Health for the parish of Lambeth shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers or district churchwardens of the said parish of Lambeth, commanding them to pay the sum of two hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next thereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish ; which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in him by the before recited Act :

And the Lords and others of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, district churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 22d day of March 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled " An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect

any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order, in writing, of one justice of the peace dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make) commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same :

And whereas by an Order made on the sixth day of the present month of March, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, duly constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish or place for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the before recited Act, and the measures of precaution in such Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by such vestry :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled " An Act for the better management of the poor " in the several parishes and hamlets in the city " of Norwich, and county of the same city," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that on the Monday fortnight next after the passing of that Act, and on the first Monday in the month of June in each succeeding year, there shall be elected for the several parishes and hamlets in the city and county of the city of Norwich, sixty-three persons to be guardians of the poor of the said city and county ; and that the said guardians so elected shall be a corporation, by the name of " the Governor, Deputy-Governor, and Guardians of the Poor of the city and county of Norwich, and liberties of the same ;" and that such corporation shall have the care of, and provide for, the maintenance of the poor, with power to appoint the churchwardens and overseers of the several parishes and hamlets, to assess the rates for the relief of the poor thereof :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), necessary and expedient, in order to carry into effect the purposes of the before recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships before mentioned, in the most convenient manner, within the said city and county of the city of Norwich, that the Board of Health for such city and county should be empowered and authorised to apply for all the necessary powers and expences to the guardians of the poor for such city and county, in lieu and stead of applying to the vestries of the several parishes and townships therein :

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) that the Board of Health constituted for the said city and county of the city of Norwich, shall and may apply to the clerk of the said corporation to convene a general court of the said guardians of the poor for such city and county, (which court the said clerk is hereby commanded and directed forthwith to convene), and the said Board of Health, by their chairman or secretary, shall and may submit proposals, accounts, and estimates to such court, and apply for the necessary powers and authority, and for a certain sum of money to defray the reasonable expences thereof, delivering their proposals to such guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in the place and stead of making any such application to the vestries of the several parishes as in the before recited Order mentioned. And the said guardians of the poor for the said city and county shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, if they think proper so to do, to confer upon the Board of Health of the said city, all or any of the powers and authorities mentioned in the said Order of their Lordships ; and the said guardians of the poor for the said city and county are further ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum to be allowed for carrying into effect the purposes of the before-recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships before-mentioned, and of any other Order of their Lordships, in the place, and in lieu and stead of the vestries in the before-recited Order mentioned, and to use and exercise all other the functions and powers given by such Order of their Lordships to select or parish vestries ; and for all acts and deeds properly done by such guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in execution and furtherance of this, or of any other Order or Orders of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.
