

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority

From Thursday January 3. to Sunday January 7 1683.

Leopol, December

FROM Bialacierkow they write, that the Cossacks on this side the Nieper to the number of 2000 have taken Arun, resolving to leave the King of Poland in the War he is now engaged in against the Turks, those on the other side the Nieper seem to have the same disposition, but meet with greater difficulties, the passages of the River being secured by their General Samuelowitz, who is in the Interests of the Moscovites. We have likewise advice that the Sieur Kunitzky who commands a Body of Poles and Cossacks, hath taken the Town and Castle of Niemiraw, and the City of Szarogrodzin, and put good Garrisons into them. And we are assured that the Poles intend to attack Caminiee, which is the only place the Turks remain now possessed of in Podolia.

Cracow, December 10. The King of Poland continues still in Hungary, endeavouring to oblige Caschau, Esperies, and Louischau, to receive Imperial Garrisons, as well to weaken Count Teckeley and his Party, by withdrawing these places from their Interests, as to secure the Winter-quarters that have been assigned his Troops, which in the mean time remain between the River Gran and the Tibise, very much exposed to the Turks of Buda, Pest, Agria, &c. It is confirmed that Count Teckeley is retired to Waradin, and that he has written to many of the Nobility and Towns of Upper Hungary to give them an account thereof, and to assure them that the Turks will be early in the Field the next year, and with a greater Army than they had the last Campaign, and to exhort them not to do any thing in the mean time to the prejudice of their Engagement. Two days since passed through this place an Express who came from Moscow with Letters for our King, which he is gone to deliver to his Majesty in Hungary. It is said here that the Court at Moscow has received with great appearance of satisfaction the Overtures that have been made of an Alliance between the Emperor, the King of Poland, and the Czars, against their common Enemy; and that there is great reason to believe the Ambassador which the Emperor is sending to Moscow, will have the credit of concluding it.

Dantzicke, December 18. Our last Letters from Cracow told us, that the Queen of Poland continued there, expecting the King in his return from Hungary, where it seems his Majesty is detained much longer than he intended, to secure the Winter-quarters assigned his Troops. From Leopol they write that the Sieur Kunierki had above 20000 Cossacks under his command, that they had taken several places from the Turks in the Ukraine, and still kept the Field notwithstanding the sharpness of the Season. That the Turks in Caminiee were in a great Consternation, apprehending a Siege to soon as the Weather will permit it, for which they are very ill provided, and that the Castellan of Cracow was marching with the Troops under his command, to fall up on a Body of Tatars, who he had notice were abroad. There are Letters from Sluck, in Lithuania, which give an account, that the Commissioners of Poland and Moscow for settling the Limits and other Differences between the two Crowns, were to meet as this day at a place called Kedvini on the Frontiers of Moscow.

Stockholm, December 18. The King has named the Sieur Charles Guldensterne, the Sieur Girschler, and the Sieur Stackberg, to go his Ambassadors to Moscow, to be present at the solemnity of the Czars twearing the Heaps between the two Crowns, which was lately performed here, by our King in the presence of the Moscovite Ambassadors.

Genoa, December 22. By a Vessel arrived from the Coast of Barbary we have advice that the Algerines continue resolute not to make a Peace with the French upon the Terms proposed by Monsieur du Questre. That they work day and night to repair their Fortifications towards the Sea. And that they have at present nine Men of War abroad. A Vessel belonging to this place arrived here four days agoe having been visited off of Mallaga by the Chevalier de Lery, who was returning with four Men of War under his command to Thoulon. They write from Rome that the Pope do s extremely press the Republic of Venice to enter into the War against the Turks, and offers towards the enabling them to prosecute it, to give them the Tenth of all the Ecclesiastical Revenues within that State.

Nice, December 25. On Thursday last the Duke of Mantoua, who hath spent some short time here, parted from hence on his return home, intending to be here again against the Carnival. This Senate is sending the Procurator Landi to the Court of Rome, and he has orders to hasten his departure. Our Letters from Spalans inform us that a party of Moslaques had been very near this place with design to surprize several Turkish Merchants, who they had notice were travelling that way, but that they missed them; and that 2000 Moslaques were marched towards Cilno to attack that place. Our advices from Turkey do all speak of the great preparations which are making against Spring, but without tell us, what there is among the people a general dissatisfaction and aversness to the War.

Vienna, Decemb. 26. Provision is making here by order of our Governor, of Materials for repairing the two Bastions, and the Bavelin ruined by the Mines and Cannon of the Turks during the late Siege, which work will be taken in hand so soon as the weather will suffer it, and a Fond of 100 thousand Crowns is assigned for this service. From Hungary we have an account that the Bassa of Offen hath demolished the Suburbs of that City, and that instead thereof he is raising some new Fortifications