TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 1832.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 15th day of March 1832,
By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IT having been brought to the knowledge of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that several Masters of Vessels sailing from infected and other ports in the United Kingdom, have evaded the quarantine regulations, by communicating with vessels, ports, and places prior to their being visited by the proper Officer of Customs; it is hereby ordered by their Lordships, that in the event of any person dying, or of any person being affected with symptoms of cholera, on board of any vessel, or boat of any description, sailing from any port of the United Kingdom, at the time of or subsequently to her leaving her port of lading, the master or other person in charge of such vessel shall cause a yellow flag to be kept hoisted, and shall not himself leave his vessel, or permit any other person to do so, or to have any communication with any other vessel, or with the shore, in any port of the United Kingdom, until the said vessel shall have been examined by the proper Officer of Customs, and regularly released, or ordered to a quarantine station, where she will be subject to the rules, regulations, and penalties established by the Act of 6th George Fourth, ch. 78, and His Majesty's Order in Council of the nineteenth July one thousand eight hundred and twenty five.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 22d day of March 1832,
By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the decease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial places; out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the parish of Lambeth is at the present time affected with the said disease:

And whereas by an Order made on the sixth day of the present month of March, by the Lords a. d.
