

poses of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestry:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate of all the necessary expences, amounting in the whole to the sum of two hundred pounds, seventeen shillings, and six pence, hath been made by the Board of Health of the parish of Christchurch, in the county of Surrey, to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry hath declined to give any authority or directions to the Board of Health, or to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the parish of Christchurch, and the said sum of two hundred pounds, seventeen shillings, and six pence; and that the said Board of Health for the parish of Christchurch, in the county of Surrey, shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Christchurch, commanding them to pay the sum of two hundred pounds, seventeen shillings, and six pence, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in him by the before recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties and punishments consequent upon disobedience to such before recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, district churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of March 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and ships or vessels carrying passengers to the British possessions in North America, or to the United States of America, may be affected with the said disease; it is, therefore, ordered, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before recited Act, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that no ship or vessel carrying passengers on any voyage to, or for, any port or place in His Majesty's possessions on the continent or islands of North America, or to any port or place in the United States of America, carrying fifty persons or upwards (including the master and crew), computed in the manner prescribed by an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of the late King, intituled "An Act to regulate the carriage of passengers in merchants' vessels from the United
