

Royal College of Surgeons in Edinburgh or Dublin, or before the Medical Faculty of the University of Glasgow.

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such Surgeon shall have a medicine chest properly stored with medicines in proportion to the number of persons on board such ship, of the kind and according to the assortment generally used and made for the like voyages, on board of His Majesty's ships of war; and before any such ship shall be allowed to be cleared out, such Surgeon shall make a declaration, subject to the usual penalties attached to false declarations, before the Collector or Comptroller of the Customs at the port from whence such ship is to be cleared out, of the contents of such medicine chest, and shall further make a like declaration, subject to the like penalties, that the medicines are of good and proper quality, and of the assortment generally used and made for the voyages on board of His Majesty's ships of war, to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that he is engaged and does intend to go the voyage as Surgeon on board such ship; and the affidavit of every such Surgeon shall be deposited and preserved in the Custom-house where the clearance of such ship shall be granted.

And the owner or master of every such ship or vessel failing to provide a Surgeon so qualified, and a medicine chest properly stored as aforesaid, is hereby warned and admonished that the penalties and punishments consequent upon any such disobedience to this Order, and to the provisions of the before recited Acts of Parliament, will be forthwith enforced against him.

And it is hereby further ordered and directed, that the bedding of each and every passenger on board any such ship or vessel shall be aired by exposure upon the deck, when the weather will permit, daily, during the voyage; and the master of such ship or vessel is hereby admonished that he will become subject to the penalties and punishments provided by such before-mentioned Act, for any failure or neglect in airing the said bedding in the manner by this Order directed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners of the Customs, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at St. James's, the 14th day of March 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, chapter fifty-seven, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.
