TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 19, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's next Levee will be held on Wednesday the 2d of May.

Office of the Vice-Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, April 16, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's-Palace, on the 3d, 17th, and 28th of May.

The 28th of May being appointed for the celebration of the King's Birth-day, no presentations will take place on that day.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 26th day of April 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, and vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, to be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts and places may be affected with the same disease:

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was amongst other things ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish or place, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act above recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestry:

And whereas it hath been shown, to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and accounts of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of four hundred and sixty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health of the parish of Birmingham, to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry hath declined or avoided to give any authority or directions to the Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby revoked and altered in so far as respects the said parish of Birmingham, and the said sum of four hundred and sixty pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the parish of Birmingham shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Birmingham, commanding them to pay the said sum of four hundred and sixty pounds for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, district churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

W. L. Bathurst.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of April 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," is, amongst other things, enacted, "that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act provided or sanctioned after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, or adjacent districts having a local establishment of police, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time, and as occasion may require, for this purpose, by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, upon the persons or properties within the same, or within the adjacent districts, which are now assessed for the purposes of police, and that according to the rules, methods, and proportions hitherto observed in such places in collecting such police assessments: provided always that the bounds of the Edinburgh police shall not for any purposes of this and the said recited Act, be held to extend over any part of the parish of South Leith:"

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the city of Edinburgh hath been, and is, at the present time, affected with the said disease:

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police, in all cities, burghs, and towns having local establishments of police, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health, consequent upon the determination of such meetings:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health of the city of Edinburgh, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering by, or likely to be affected with, the said disease; it is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that such Board of Health for the city of Edinburgh shall and may, by their chairman or secretary, apply to the acting chief magistrate of such city, to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police of such city; which said meeting shall accordingly be summoned and convened by the proper officers as early as can conveniently be done after intimation of the time and place of holding the same; and at such meeting the Board of Health shall and may apply for a certain and sufficient sum of money, not exceeding in the whole the amount of four thousand pounds, for the discharge of the expences reasonably and properly incurred in providing hospitals with suitable accomodations for the reception and care of the sick, furnishing attendance on the poor at their own habitations, supplying medicines at different stations of the city, affording relief in fuel and medical necessaries and comforts to the distressed and destitute inhabitants, and cleaning, whitewashing, and fumigating the houses of the poor who availed themselves of such assistance, together with other necessary incidental expences; such Board of Health submitting to the said meeting all estimates, accounts, and vouchers necessary to show the correct expenditure of sums of money to that amount; and the said meeting of burgh magistrates and commissioners of police is hereby ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum by them allowed and granted for the discharge of all reasonable and proper expences incurred for the purposes aforesaid, but for no other purposes besides those before enumerated:

And for the discharge and payment of such ascertained expences, it shall be lawful for such Board of Health of the city of Edinburgh, and it is hereby authorised and directed, to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to the magistrates of the burgh to contribute and advance such sum as may be necessary, either out of the assessments by the said last-mentioned Act authorised and directed, or, in the event of such assessments not being realized, on the credit of such assessments:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by such board of health, and by such burgh magistrates, commissioners of police, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

W. L. Bathurst.

Valuable and Extensive Print Works, &c.

TO be sold by auction (before the major part of the Commissioners in the Bankruptcy of Joseph Fielding and Jeremiah Fielding, both of Catteral, and also of Manchester, Calico-Printers, Dealers and Chapman) at the Red-Lion-Inn, Preston, on Friday the 25th of May 1832, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, in the following or such other lots as may be agreed on at the time of sale;

Lot 1. All those valuable, extensive, and compact print works, situate at Catteral and Barnacre, with bounds in the said County, with the newly erected buildings and conveniences thereon, heretofore used and well adapted for carrying on an extensive calico printing concern, consisting of printing shops, wash-houses, buildings, offices, and erections, together with the reservoirs, goits, and valuable streams of water the same belonging. The premises were lately in the occupation of Messrs. Fielding, and include a farm, formerly called Adamsons, and a dwelling-house with the wharfs and warehouses adjoining the Lancaster Canal, and contain altogether, including roads and conveniences, 44A. 0R. 29P. statute measure.

Lot 2. All those two valuable steam engines, the one of 16 and the other of 14 horse power, (the latter nearly new), at the said print-works, with the steam boilers, pipes, furnaces, millwright work and gearing (up to the first motion); together with two excellent water-wheels, (the one nine feet in diameter and eight feet wide, and the other fourteen feet in diameter and five feet wide), and the iron forebays thereto belonging, now also being in, or affixed to, the said print-works, with the millwright work and gearing thereto; and also 154 cast-iron grids now forming the floor of the hot or stove-room, and measuring 57 feet by 26½ feet. The articles comprised in this lot will be offered either together or separately, as may best suit the convenience of purchasers.

Lot 3. All those six messuages or cottages and gardens, with the yard, situate near the said works, containing altogether 2R. 28P. statute measure.

Lot 4. All that messuage or cottage, with the garden, stack-yard, thirteen-stalled stable, and appurtenances, situate in Catteral aforesaid, together with a close of land adjoining, called Hornby's Croft, and containing (including the site of the said buildings, and the road) 2A. 1R. 3P. statute measure.

Lot 5. All those nine messuages or cottages and gardens, together with a butcher's shop, situate in Catteral aforesaid, adjoining lot 4, together with a close of land, called Lucas Croft, which premises contain altogether 1A. 2R. 1P. statute measure.

The above works adjoin the canal between Kendal and Preston, and are well worthy the attention of calico printers and bleachers. The buildings being very substantial might be easily converted into spinning and power-loom factories. The Manchester and Carlisle mail coach road connects these works with Preston, at a distance of about nine miles. There is an abundant supply of water from the River Calder. The land is in excellent condition. The necessaries of life in the neighbourhood are very cheap, and labour may be procured at a very low rate.

Mr. James Kenyon, of Catteral, will shew the premises, and for further particulars application may be made at the Offices of Mr. Trappes, Solicitor, Clithero; Messrs. Duckworth, Denton and Humphrys, or Mr. Brackenbury, Solicitors, Manchester; or Messrs. Dixon and Abraham, Solicitors, Preston, where plans of the property may be seen.

TO be sold by auction, at the Auction Mart, London, on Monday the 14th day of May 1832, by order of Joshua Evans, Esq. the Commissioner to whom the Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against William Richardson, late of Adam's-Court, Broad-Street, Merchant, stands referred;

The estate and interest of Thomas Johnston, of and in a certain copyhold house and premises at Merton, in the County of Surrey, commonly called or known by the name of Dossett-Hall, which premises were lately rebuilt or altered, and were formerly in the occupation of T. P. Rasch, Esq., and seven cottages and a field, lately included, on Merton Common, and of and in a leasehold interest in a field at the back of the said premises, including the fixtures in the house, subject to the payment of one thousand pounds, and an arrear of interest thereupon, to Richard Blanshard, Esq. and others, and to the payment of the fine or fines to the Lord of the Manor, which said premises (subject as aforesaid) were mortgaged by the said Bankrupt to the said Thomas Johnston.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had of Messrs. Wilkinson, Auctioneers, Ludgate-Hill; and of Messrs. Baxendale, Tatham, Upston and Johnson, Solicitors, King's-Arms-Yard, Coleman-Street; and of Mr. Sheringham, No. 1, Raymond-Buildings, Gray's-Inn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture, dated the 29th day of February last, John Harnes Goulton, of Great Grimsby, in the County of Lincoln, Coal-Merchant and Warehouseman, did assign over all his personal estate and effects unto Blanshard Thorp and Thomas Newmarch, both of Kingston-upon-Hull, Merchants, in trust for such of the Creditors of the said John Goulton as shall execute the same, which said deed was executed by the said John Harnes Goulton on the said 29th day of February last, and by the said Blanshard Thorp and Thomas Newmarch on the 3d day of March last past, in the presence of, and is attested by, John Acton, of Great Grimsby aforesaid, Solicitor, with whom the said deed lies for signatures.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Bell, of No. 19, Cloth Fair, in the City of London, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday, the 23d day of May instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees abandoning certain freehold and other property to the Mortgagees thereof respectively, who will be named at such meeting, or to their selling the same by public auction or by private contract, as may appear most expedient, and to their compounding certain debts due from certain persons, to be named at such meeting, to the estate of the said Bankrupt; and also to their commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, for recovering of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Kaye, of Chorlton-Row, near Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Joiner and Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt on the 22d day of May instant, at the Office of Messrs. Claye and Thompson, Solicitors, No. 90, King-Street, Manchester, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, to confirm the proceedings of the provisional Assignee in carrying on the business of the said Bankrupt, and to ratify what has been since done by the said Assignees; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying into effect certain contracts entered into by the said Bankrupt for erecting certain dwelling-houses and other buildings before his said bankruptcy, or any and which of them, at the risk and expence of the said estate, and to the Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, being employed in overlooking the completing thereof at the like risk and expence; and also to the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, and upon such terms and conditions, for money or on credit, and upon such security as they may think proper, of all and singular the said Bankrupt's freehold and leasehold property, and to their paying off or making such arrangements with any person or persons having or claiming any mortgage or lien or charge upon all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from their disposing of the said Bankrupt's stock and implements of trade, goods, furniture, fixtures, book and other debts, and all other his personal estate, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, and together and separately, as they may think proper, either to the said Bankrupt or to any other person or persons, and to their giving time for payment of all or any part of the purchase money on having security; and also to their paying a sum of £15 to a person to be named at such meeting, being the costs of entering up judgment under a warrant of attorney, and of entering with an execution obtained thereon after an act of bankruptcy, such person having withdrawn such execution as he alleges on the terms of such costs being paid; and also to their paying, out of the Bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences of preparing certain deeds of lease, release, or assignment of the Bankrupt's real and personal estate since the issuing of the said Fiat, and other expences in endeavouring to effect an arrangement of the said Bankrupt's affairs thereunder; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or other person to investigate and make up the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to their making him such allowance as shall be just and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions or suits, at law or in equity, for recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Fielding and Jeremiah Fielding, of Catteral, and also of Manchester, both in the County of Lancaster, Calico-Printers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 23d day of May instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Brackenbury, in Spring-Gardens, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, or permitting the sale and disposition of the steam-engines, steam-boilers, water-wheels, and other matters and things now being in or upon the works at Catteral, near Garstang, late belonging to the said Bankrupts, for the benefit of the Mortgagee of the same works; and to assent to or dissent from the purchase money for the same being applied in the same manner as that arising from the sale of the said works, in part payment of the mortgage thereupon, with interest and costs.
