AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 2d day of May 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders. to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, and vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parishes or townships, or in extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one); it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, duly constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish or place for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the before recited Act, and the measures of precaution in such Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by such vestry:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for the employment, maintenance, and regulation of the poor of the city of Bristol, and for altering the mode of assessing the rates for the relief of the poor, and certain rates authorised to be raised and levied within the said city by certain Acts for improving the harbour there; and for paving, pitching, cleansing, and lighting the same city; and for the relief of the churchwardens and overseers from the collecting of such rates; and for amending the Act for paving, pitching, cleansing, and lighting the said city;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the Mayor and Aldermen of the said city and county of the city of Bristol for the time being, and the senior churchwardens for the time being of the several parishes within the said city and county, together with the several other persons theretofore elected guardians of the poor, under and by virtue of certain recited Acts, thereby then repealed, and their successors, to be elected and appointed in the manner thereafter expressed, should be, and they were thereby appointed, guardians of the poor of the said city and county, for the purposes of well governing, providing for, employing, and managing the said poor, and were made, and thereby declared to be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Governor, Deputy Governor, Assistants, and Guardians of the Poor of the city of Bristol;" and that such corporation shall have the care of, and provide for, the maintenance of the poor, and shall ascertain and set down what sum or sums of money will be requisite for the maintenance of the poor of the said city and county in every year, and shall be and are invested with, and are thereby required to exercise, all and every the powers and authorities with which churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or any of them, are invested:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), necessary and expedient, in order to carry into effect the purposes of the first before-recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships before mentioned, in the most convenient manner, within the said city and county of the city of Bristol, that the Board of Health for such city and county should be empowered and authorised to apply for all the necessary powers and expences to the "Governor, Deputy Governor, Assistants, and Guardians of the Poor" for such city and county, in lieu and stead of applying to the vestries of the several parishes and townships therein:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), that the Board of Health, constituted for the said city and county of the city of Bristol, shall and may apply to the clerk of the said corporation to convene a general meeting of the said assistants and guardians of the poor for the said city and county (which court the said clerk is hereby commanded and directed forthwith to convene), and the said Board of Health, by their chairman or secretary, shall and may submit proposals, accounts, and estimates to such court, and apply for the necessary powers and authorities, and for a certain sum of money to defray the reasonable expences thereof, delivering their proposals to such assistants and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in the place and stead of making any such application to the vestries of the several parishes as in the before recited Order mentioned; and the said assistants and guardians of the poor for the said city and county shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered (if they think proper so to do), to confer upon the Board of Health of the said city all or any of the powers and authorities mentioned in the said Order of their Lordships; and the said assistants and guardians of the poor for the said city and county are further ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum to be allowed for carrying into effect the purposes of the first before recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships before mentioned, in the place and in lieu and stead of the vestries in the before recited Order mentioned, and to use and exercise all other the functions and powers given by such Order of their Lordships to select or parish vestries:

And for all acts and deeds properly done by such assistants and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in execution and furtherance of this, or of any other Order or Orders of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 26th day of April 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them: (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, and vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, to be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts and places may be affected with the same disease:

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was amongst other things ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish or place, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act above recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestry:

And whereas it hath been shown, to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and accounts of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of four hundred and sixty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health of the parish of Birmingham, to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry hath declined or avoided to give any authority or directions to the Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby revoked and altered in so far as respects the said parish of Birmingham, and the said sum of four hundred and sixty pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the parish of Birmingham shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Birmingham, commanding them to pay the said sum of four hundred and sixty pounds for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, district churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

W. L. Bathurst.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of April 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spas-

"modic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act provided or sanctioned after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, or adjacent districts having a local establishment of police, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time, and as occasion may require, for this purpose, by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, upon the persons or properties within the same, or within the adjacent districts, which are now assessed for the purposes of police, and that according to the rules, methods, and proportions hitherto observed in such places in collecting such police assessments: provided always that the bounds of the Edinburgh police shall not for any purposes of this and the said recited Act, be held to extend over any part of the parish of South Leith :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the city of Edinburgh hath been, and is, at the present time, affected with the said disease :

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police, in all cities, burghs, and towns having local establishments of police, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health, consequent upon the determinations of such meetings :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health of the city of Edinburgh, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering by, or likely to be affected with, the said disease ; it is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that such Board of Health for the city of Edinburgh shall and may, by their chairman or secretary, apply to the acting chief magistrate of such city, to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police of such city ; which said meeting shall accordingly be summoned and convened by the proper officers as early as can conveniently be done after intimation of the time and place of holding the same ; and at such meeting the Board of Health shall and may apply for a certain and sufficient sum of money, not exceeding in the whole the amount of four thousand pounds, for the discharge of the expences reasonably and properly incurred in providing hospitals with suitable accommodations for the reception and care of the sick, furnishing attendance on the poor at their own habitations, supplying medicines at different stations of the city, affording relief in fuel and medical necessaries and comforts to the distressed and destitute inhabitants, and cleaning, whitewashing, and fumigating the houses of the poor who availed themselves of such assistance, together with other necessary incidental expences ; such Board of Health submitting to the said meeting all estimates, accounts, and vouchers necessary to show the correct expenditure of sums of money to that amount ; and the said meeting of burgh magistrates and commissioners of police is hereby ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum by them allowed and granted for the discharge of all reasonable and proper expences incurred for the purposes aforesaid, but for no other purposes besides those before enumerated :

And for the discharge and payment of such ascertained expences, it shall be lawful for such Board of Health of the city of Edinburgh, and it is hereby authorised and directed, to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to the magistrates of the burgh to contribute and advance such sum as may be necessary, either out of the assessments by the said last-mentioned Act authorised and directed, or, in the event of such assessments not being realized, on the credit of such assessments :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by such board of health, and by such burgh magistrates, commissioners of police, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.
