IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 1st day of May 1832, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 91, intituled "An Act for enlarging and improving the west end of Cheapside, in the city of London, also St. Martins-le-Grand, Aldersgate-street, St. Ann's-lane, and Foster-lane, and for providing a site for a new Post-Office, between St. Martins-le-Grand and Foster-lane aforesaid;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 1st day of November next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 1st day of November next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £30,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the fifty-fifth of George the Third, ch. 91, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 1st day of November, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz,

The sum of one hundred pounds, the remaining part of a bond for one thousand pounds, under the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, of the fifty-fifth of George the Third, ch. 91, numbered 5; eleven bonds, for one thousand pounds each, under the said Act, numbered 6 to 16, both inclusive; and six hundred pounds, part of a bond for one thousand pounds, under the said Act, numbered 17.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, May 2, 1832.
