Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 15, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room to be held at St. James's-Palace, on Monday the 28th instant, being for the celebration of His Majesty's Birth-day, the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d day of May 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that all goods, wares, and merchandize which shall be imported into or exported from the Island of Mauritius, from or to any place whatever other than the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall, upon such importation or exportation respectively, be liable to the payment of the same duties, and shall be subject to the same regulations, so far as any such regulations can or may be applied, as the like goods, wares, and merchandize would be liable to the payment of or would be subject to upon importation or exportation into or from any of His Majesty's islands in the West Indies:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that Port Louis, in the Island of Mauritius, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that Port Louis, in the Island of Mauritius, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

St. James's-Palace, May 16, 1832.

Description of the Uniform Coat which, in pursuance of His Majesty's pleasure, is to be worn by Flag-Officers, Commodores of the First Class, and Captains of the Fleet (not being Flag-Officers), in the Royal Navy.

COAT—blue cloth, with a scarlet stand-up collar, with two inch lace round the top and front, and three quarters inch lace along the bottom; a slashed sleeve, with blue three pointed flap, edged with one and a quarter inch lace, with three small buttons, half an inch in diameter, a scarlet cuff, with two inch lace (of the Navy pattern) round the top and down the front edge; pocket flaps with three points, edged with gold lace, same as on the cuffs and collar, viz. two inches wide, and with three buttons underneath; the body of the coat lined with the same cloth, and the skirts lined with white kerseymer; two rows of buttons in the front, ten buttons in each row, the two rows to be three inches apart from the front of the button-hole to the centre of the button; the skirt to begin at one sixth of the circumference from the front edge, two buttons on the hips, and two buttons on the bottom of the plait; the button to be raised, gilt, one inch in diameter, indented with a round rim, and within the rim an anchor and a cable, and a crown over, between two wreaths of laurel.

The EPAULETTES—to be the same as commanded by His Majesty's regulations of 18th of December 1827, but they are not to be worn with binders.

No alteration has taken place in the Uniform Coats of Commodores of the Second Class, Captains, or other commissioned Officers.

By command of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Geo. Elliot.

Whitehall, May 7, 1832.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto George Rennie, of Wateringbury, in the county of Kent, Esq. a Captain in the Royal Navy, and Caroline his wife, third daughter and coheir expectant of Matthias Prime Lucas, of Wateringbury aforesaid, Esq. one of the Aldermen, and sometime Lord Mayor, of the city of London, and in the Commission of the Peace for the said county of Kent, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that the said George Rennie and Caroline his wife may take and use the surname of Lucas, in addition to and before that of Rennie; that the said George Rennie may bear the arms of Lucas quarterly with his own family arms; and that the said surname of Lucas, and the arms of Lucas, may in like manner be taken, used, and borne by the issue of their marriage, out of grateful and affectionate respect to the said Matthias Prime Lucas; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.
