AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of May 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," is is, amongst other things, enacted, "that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act provided or sanctioned, after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of any such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, or adjacent districts having a local establishment of police, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time, and as occasion may require, for this purpose, by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, upon the persons or properties within the same, or within the adjacent districts, which are now assessed for the purposes of police, and that according to the rules, methods, and proportions hitherto observed in such places in collecting such police assessments :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the borough of Dundee hath been, and is at the present time, affected with the said disease :

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police, in all cities, burghs, and towns having local establishments of police; and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health, consequent upon the determinations of such meetings :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health of the town of Dundee, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering by, or likely to be affected with, the said disease ; it is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that such Board of Health for the town of Dundee shall and may, by their chairman or secretary, apply to the acting chief magistrate of such town, to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police of such town; which said meeting shall accordingly be summoned and convened by the proper officers as early as can conveniently be done after intimation of the time and place of holding the same ; and at such meeting the Board of Health shall and may apply for a certain and sufficient sum of money, not exceeding in the whole the amount of five hundred pounds, for the discharge of the expences reasonably and properly incurred in providing hospitals with suitable accomodation for the reception and cure of the sick, affording relief in fuel and medical necessaries and comforts to the distressed and destitute inhabitants, and cleansing, whitewashing, and fumigating the houses of the poor who availed themselves of such assistance, together with other necessary incidental expences ; such Board of Health submitting to the said meeting all estimates, accounts, and vouchers necessary to shew the correct expenditure of sums of money to that amount ; and the said meeting of burgh magistrates and commissioners of police is hereby ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum by them allowed and granted for the discharge of all reasonable and proper expences incurred for the sanitary purposes aforesaid, but for no other purposes besides those before enumerated :

And for the discharge and payment of such ascertained expences, it shall be lawful for such Board of Health of the town of Dundee, and it is hereby authorised and directed, to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to the magistrates of the burgh to contribute and advance such sum as may be necessary, either out of the assessments by the said last-mentioned Act authorised and directed, or, in the event of such assessments not being realized, on the credit of such assessments :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by such board of health, and by such burgh magistrates, commissioners of police, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

W. L. Bathurst.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of May 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled " An Act for the prevention, as far as may be pos"sible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application hath been made by the Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, for the parish of Waltham Abbey to the vestry of the said parish, for authority and powers to carry into effect certain of the purposes of the before-recited Act, with an estimate of the necessary expences thereof, and a request for the funds required for their discharge; when it was unanimously resolved by the said vestry, that "it is necessary that the ancient drains of the town be cleansed and put into proper repair, from Cobbin's-brook to the Canals in the Abbey-garden;" and it was at the same time further resolved, by a large majority of the members of the vestry there present, that "application should be made to the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council to authorise the expence to be incurred (which it appeared would not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds), to be paid out of the poor rates of the parish at large:"

And whereas it hath been shown to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that the Master-General and Board of Ordnance have cleansed and repaired the drains running through their property, without any expence to the said parish, and have given an eight-inch bore of water from the tail stream of their mills, for the purpose of draining and cleansing the said town, for which there exist the greatest facilities, in abundance of water and fall in the ground:

And whereas it doth appear to their Lordships expedient and salutary, under all the circumstances of this case, that the old drainage of the said parish should be repaired and cleansed, agreeably to the resolutions passed at the said vestry; it is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, for the prevention of the spreading of the said disease, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that the said Board of Health, for the said parish of Waltham Abbey, shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace, living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Waltham Abbey, commanding them to pay the said sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish, which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money, in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order :

And the Lords and others of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, parish officers, guardians of the poor, district churchwardens, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Robert Montgomery Lord Belhaven, His Majesty's Commissioner, to Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

THE most gracious letter with which your Majesty has been pleased to honour the present General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, has been received by us with the most lively sentiments of respect and gratitude.

We offer our most sincere and humble acknowledgments for the approbation which your Majesty has been pleased to express of our zeal for the maintenance and advancement of the Protestant religion, and of our loyalty and affection to your Person and Government.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our great endeavour to act upon the same enlightened principles which your Majesty condescends to say have hitherto marked our conduct, and to carry on all our proceedings in that spirit of moderation and Christian charity which become us as the servants of the Prince of Peace.

That your Majesty continues to countenance our assembly with your Royal authority is to us a gratifying proof of your paternal goodness, and we repose with confidence on the pledge which your Majesty has given us, that the Church of Scotland, as by law established, shall enjoy your undiminished protection for securing to it all its rights and privileges.

The hereditary attachment of Lord Belhaven to the cause of civil and religious liberty, his undoubted regard for the Church of Scotland, his exemplary conduct in private life, as well as the wisdom and urbanity with which, on a former occasion, he discharged the duties of his high office, render the reappointment of him to represent your Majesty's Royal Person an acceptable mark of attention to our National Church.

We rejoice in the renewed expression of your Majesty's zeal for the propagation of the Reformed Protestant religion in the highlands and islands of Scotland, and it shall be our care, by a faithful application of the sum your Majesty has graciously bestowed, to fulfil the pious and benevolent intentions of the Royal Donor.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may protect your Majesty's person, prolong your days, and prosper your government,—that He may bless the Queen, and all the Royal Family,—that He may continue with us the many national privileges which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild administration, and transmit them as a precious inheritance to our children and our children's children,—and that, after a long reign over a free, a loyal, and a happy people, you may receive from Him the recompense of an heavenly crown, are the fervent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, Thomas Chalmers, Moderator.
