

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday January 10. to Monday January 14. 1683.

Whitehall, January 12.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty, who received them very Graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, and oth^r the Officers of the Isle of Man, together with the Bishop, the Clergy, and the principal Inhabitants of the same.

Great S I R,

ALthough we are divided from Your Majesties other Dominions, not only by distance of place and interposition of the Sea (which we hope will atone for the slowness of this Address) but by many peculiar Laws and Customs of our own, which by Your Majesties Favour and Grace we enjoy, Yet as the Influences of Your Majesties just and wise Government extend also to us, and we live peaceable and happy under the safe Conduct of it; So we cannot but (in consurt with other Your Majesties Loyal Subjects) proclaim to the World our utmost detestation and abhorrence of the black and bloody Conspiracy of the Men of all Religions, and the Men of none, against Your Sacred Majesties Life and Government, and the Life of Your Royal Brother the Duke of York, and with equal Zeal and Sincerity admire and adore that unconceivable Providence, which in this and innumerable other instances of Your Life hath so miraculously appeared, for Your Majesties Deliverance, as if You was the single care of it: And as in the late times of Rebellion and Usurpation we constantly adhered to the cause of Religion and Loyalty, under the command of that Glorious Martyr to both, The Right Honourable James, Earl of Derby, and Lord of this Isle; When Your Majesties other Dominions had been long forced to submit to prosperous Wickedness: So we humbly crave leave to assure Your Majesty, that we shall still account our Lives and Fortunes a cheap Sacrifice in defence of Your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, and of the Succession in the Right Line; and that we bear nothing at the hands of Almighty God with more earnest affection and devotion than Your Majesties long and happy Reign over us; And that the Crown may be continued in Your Majesties Name and Family by an uninterrupted Succession until Time shall be no more.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, High Steward, Recorder, Justices of the Peace, Coroners, and Grand-Inquest of the Town and Burgh of Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, at the Sessions of the Peace and general Gaol-delivery held for the said Burgh, on Tuesday the Eighteenth day of December, in the Five and thirtieth Year of his Majesty's Reign.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Sense of Dangers past gives occasion to all thinking Persons with a cautious prudence, to arm themselves against all future Events.

It was but the other day that we felt the dire effects of Faction Rage and Mad Zeal, our Church was ruined, our Government subverted, and the best of Kings made a Sacrifice to the wild Fury of obstinate deluded Rebels.

The same Tragedy was now again begun, the Men of Tender Conscience grew Rampant, and by their arts and practices procured a Majority of Men of most Fiery and Seditious Spirits to be elected into the House of Commons, who had almost imposed upon the Nation under the old cry of a Parliament.

The Government was thought to lay at the mercy of Conspirators; whose ambitious Thirst nothing but Royal Blood could satiate, and therefore Your most Sacred Majesty, and Your I carest Brother were doomed to bleed.

That profound Treachery and Barbarism struck our Souls with horror, but the miraculous preservation of Your Majesty and his Royal Highness, revived us with unbounded Joy, and nothing on this account has been wanting, but opportunity to express our Love, Obedience, and reformed Loyalty.

Having at length gained it, we offer up our Prayers to God the Preserver of Princes, and lay our Lives and Fortunes at Your Majesties Feet, as at Gods greatest Representative on Earth, we beg of him the Conversion of ill men to Loyalty and Religion, and of Your Majesty, that Weapons may no longer be permitted in the hands of Mad men, that Schismatics and Traytors, those inseparable Companions, may feel the edge of those Laws they despise, till baffled in all their attempts against the Church and State, they may hurt themselves with their own Poison.

We are sensible of that Blessing we enjoy in a Prince so Great, so Good, and how much the continuance of our Felicity depends upon a Legal Succession, and therefore judge our selves obliged to endeavour the security of both, and to that end we now devote our Prayers, Persons, and Estates.

Venice, January 1. On Wednesday last the Marquis de Villa Garcia, Ambassador from Spain, had an Audience of the Senate, whom he acquainted, That the King his Master had sent orders to all his Viceroys, Governors of Places, and Commanders of his Ships, to fall upon the Subjects of France, and to treat them as Enemies of his Crown. We are told that the next week 20 new Gallies, 4 Galeasses, and seven Men of War will be launched, and that these and several others will be fitted out against Spring, pursuant to the League which it is said is now treating between the Pope, the Emperor, and this Republick against the Turks. The Procurator Lando, who is going Ambassador from this State to the Pope, will part from hence the 4th Instant, all things being in a readiness for his journey. By a Saigue arrived from Dalmatia we have advice, that the Morlaques had taken in a late Incurision they made into the Turkish Territories 4000 head of Cattle; and that they have had a Rencontre with a Party of Turks, whom they defeated, killing 120 upon the place. Our Letters from Constantinople give us account, that the Grand Signior was at Adrianople, and that he had sent orders to the Grand Visier, who continued at Belgrade, to repair immediately thither, but the Visier being unwilling to trust himself at the Court, did endeavour to excuse it, pretending his presence was absolutely necessary at Belgrade to direct the Preparations for the next Campaign.

Vienna, January 2. The Letters from Upper Hungary inform us, That the Endeavours which have been used to induce the City of Caschau to abandon Count Teckelzy and his Party, have been hitherto ineffectual; and that the Hungarians in Garisou there, have declared, That they have positive Orders not to quit the Place, but to defend it to the last. In our last we told you that General Dunewald had forced the City of Leutschau to put out the Hungarian Garisou, which consisted of 500 Men, and to receive one from him; and these Letters say, That a strong Party of Poles meeting the said 500 Hungarians in their march, fell upon them, and cut them all in pieces. From the Lower Hungary they write, That the Turks in Newbenes begin to be in great great want of Provisions, and that the Bassa of Buda is preparing to relieve them. Certain it is that the Turks are drawing together near Buda and Canisa, and we think their design must be to attempt the relief of the said Place, or to fall upon the Christians in their Winter Quarters. General Rabata, who commands the Imperial Forces in Hungary, has taken the Alarm, and has sent Orders to the several Troops to be upon their Guard, and in a readiness to march upon the first summons; and the Imperial Horse quartered in Bohemia, Silesia, Stiria and Croatia, are ordered to send Detachments for Hungary to strengthen the Cavalry that Winter there. We had a very strong report here some days ago, that the Imperialists had taken the Fortrels of Zolnock, which we shall be glad to have the confirmation of, it being a very important Post. The Emperor having resolved to employ six or eight small Gallies on the Danube the next Campaign, he has given the Command thereof to the Marquis de Vecchi, who is come hither to give the necessary Orders therein.

Lintz, January 4. The King of Poland, having put the Troops of Lithuania which are said to be about 12000 men, in the Quarters assigned him on the River Tibise, is gone home with the rest of his Forces. Count Serini, General of the Elector of Bavaria's Troops, is arrived here from Municken, and hath had several Conferences with the Duke of Lorraine and the Emperor's Ministers concerning the Preparations for the next Campaign. The Baron d'Abete has not yet begun his journey for Hungary; and in the mean time People are under a great expectation of the success of his Commission. The States of Croatia have been assembled, and have resolved, with the assistance of the Moneys promised by the Pope, to bring a very considerable Body of Men into the Field the next Summer. It is said that the Swissers have offered to send a good number of Troops to serve the Emperor against the Turks upon condition they have the same Pay which those of their Nation in other Foreign Service receive. We do not hear with any certainty what forwardness the Treaty with the Republick of Venice is in, though many people persuade themselves it will be very suddenly finished through the Interposition of the Pope who is very zealous therein. It is said that the Imperial Court will remove in the Spring to Crembs.

Cologne, Jan. 11. Our last Letters from Liege inform us, that the Bishop of Strasbourg was on his return from Paris, and that he was expected at Liege the 9th Instant; His chief business at the Court of France, has it's said, been to obtain a Neutrality for the Diocess of Liege, and the evacuation of the Places in that Country, where the French have at this time Gallies. From Lintz they write that the Emperor has resolved to grant the Hungarians the free exercise of their Religion, with the restitution of the Confiscated Estates, and a promise of maintaining all their antient Privileges. But as for Count Zeckley, who hath so long endeavoured to delude the Imperial Court with Overtures of an Accommodation, when he intended nothing less, and hath now manifested how obstinately he is resolved to continue in his Rebellion by his retreating among the Turks, the Emperor has promised a very great Reward to such as shall deliver him into the hands of any of his Officers either alive or dead. Levies are making here for the service of the Emperor, the King of Denmark, and other Princes.

Hague, Jan. 12. The States of Holland who Adjourned on Friday last that the Deputies of the several Towns might go and consult their Principals in the Affairs that are now before them, met again yesterday. Their final resolution concerning the New Levy is expected by many with much impatience, though the most general opinion is, that nothing will be done in it, for besides Delf and Sciedam, the City of Leyden begins to fall into the Sentiments of Amsterdam. The Count d'Avaux, Ambassador from France, had some days since a Conference with the Deputies of the States General, but it's not said on what occasion. The Heer Harfolte returned yesterday from Cologne, where he hath been in quality of Envoy Extraordinary from this State. It is said that a Treaty is Negotiating between the King of Denmark, the Elector of Brandenburg, and the Elector of Cologne, by which these Princes will be obliged to furnish a certain number of Troops for the forming a Body of an Army on the Rhine the next Summer to secure the Territories which the two last have on that side, against the Invasions, Quarters, and Passages of any Foreign Troops.

Whitehall, January 10. This afternoon a Chapter being held of the most Noble Order of the Garter, to fill the two vacant Stalls, the Dukes of Somerset and Northumberland were Elected Knights Companions of that Order. And the former (the Duke of Northumberland being absent) was invested with the George and Garter, having been first Knighted by the Sovereign.

A Barbarous Murder having been committed on the 26th of December last past at Hirslal, the Earl of Hume's House in Barwick-shire, in the Kingdom of Scotland, by Mr. William Hume, youngest Brother to the said Earl, upon the Person of Joseph Johnston of Hilton, and he having thereupon fled into England; He is aged about 26 years, of a tall stature, slender of Body, fair of Complexion, his Face somewhat freckled, his Eyes of a light Grey near to Blew, his Hair Red, but ordinarily wears a light coloured Perriwig. Whoever shall give notice of him, so as he may be put into the hands of Justice, to the Widow of the said Joseph Johnston at Huton Hall in the said Shire, or to Major George Winram at Mr. Everards House in Angle Court near Charing Cross Westminster, shall have 50 pounds Sterling as a reward, and their Charges born.

Mr. Mark Trouts, late Receiver of their Majesties, the King's and Queen's Fee Farm and other Rents within the Counties of Kent, Surry, and Suffex, being deceased, Henry Thornhill Esq; Succeeds him in the said Office; who hath appointed Mr. Tho. Rudge his Deputy, to Receive and give Acquittances for the same, to whom all Persons concerned are desired to pay the said Rents in Hilary Term now next ensuing, at the House of Simon Smith Esq; in the Old Palace-yard at Westminster; and to bring or send their last Acquittances.

Advertisements.

Stolen Jan. the 10th from Daniel White Esq; at Vintners near Maidstone in Kent, a bright Bay Mare, 14 hands high, being Rang on the Withers with the Saddle, with white Spots under the Saddle place, comes five next Grass, supposed to be taken away by a tall Man with short black Hair, having a Cast with one or both Eyes. Whoever discovers either the Man or Mare to D. White Esq; afore said, or to Mr. Tho. Saunders Silkman at the Ring at Ludgate, shall be well rewarded for their pains.

Stolen out of the Stable of Robert Calthorpe of Great Duamowe in the County of Essex, upon Friday the 4th of this Instant in the night, a large Bay Gelding, six years old, 15 hands high and upward, all his paces, short Tail, his Mane not shorn, with a little white behind his Ears: If any person can find him and gives notice thereof unto Mr. Pinfold's house in Holbourn, a Confectioner against Hatton Garden, so that the Gelding may be had again, they shall have a Guinea reward.

Stolen or Drayed out of the Ground of Frances Pearce of Hornley in the County of Middlesex, a Bay Gelding with a Star in his Forehead, and black List down his Back, a Scar on one Knee, 14 hands and a half high, all his paces. Whoever shall give notice of him to Mr. John Wright at the Three Crowns, Haberdalther near Durham-yard in the Strand, or to Tho. Bate at the White-Horse Inn in Coleman Street London, shall have Twenty shillings reward.