TUESDAY, MAY 29, 1832.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of May 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHIEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act provided or sanctioned, after they are incurred by any such

Order, shall, whenever the occasion of any such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, or adjacent districts having a local establishment of police, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time, and as occasion may require, for this purpose, by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, upon the persons or properties within the same, or within the adjacent districts, which are now assessed for the purposes of police, and that according to the rules, methods, and proportions hitherto observed in such places in collecting such police assessments :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the borough of Dundee hath been, and is at the present time, affected with the said disease :

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police, in all cities, burghs, and towns having local establishments of police, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health, consequent upon the determinations of such meetings :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health of the town of Dundee, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering by, or likely to be affected with, the said disease ; it is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that such Board of Health for the town of Dundee shall and may, by their chairman or secretary, apply to the acting chief magistrate of such town, to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police of such town; which said meeting shall accordingly be summoned and convened by the proper officers as early as can conveniently be done after intimation of the time and place of holding the same; and at such meeting the Board of Health shall and may apply for a certain and sufficient sum of money, not exceeding in the whole the amount of five hundred pounds, for the discharge of the expences reasonably and properly incurred in providing hospitals with suitable accomodation for the reception and cure of the sick, affording relief in fuel and medical necessaries and comforts to the distressed and destitute inhabitants, and cleansing, whitewashing, and fumigating the houses of the poor who availed themselves of such assistance, together with other necessary incidental expences; such Board of Health submitting to the said meeting all estimates, accounts, and vouchers necessary to shew the correct expenditure of sums of money to that amount; and the said meeting of burgh magistrates and commissioners of police is hereby ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum by them allowed and granted for the discharge of all reasonable and proper expences incurred for the sanitary purposes aforesaid, but for no other purposes besides those before enumerated:

And for the discharge and payment of such ascertained expences, it shall be lawful for such Board of Health of the town of Dundee, and it is hereby authorised and directed, to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to the magistrates of the burgh to contribute and advance such sum as may be necessary, either out of the assessments by the said last-mentioned Act authorised and directed, or, in the event of such assessments not being realized, on the credit of such assessments:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by such board of health, and by such burgh magistrates, commissioners of police, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

W. L. Bathurst.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of May 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application hath been made by the Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, for the parish of Waltham Abbey to the vestry of the said parish, for authority and powers to carry into effect certain of the purposes of the before-recited Act, with an estimate of the necessary expences thereof, and a request for the funds required for their discharge; when it was unanimously resolved by the said vestry, that "it is necessary that the ancient drains of the town be cleansed and put into proper repair, from Cobbin's-brook to the Canals in the Abbey-garden;" and it was at the same time further resolved, by a large majority of the members of the vestry there present, that "application should be made to the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council to authorise the expence to be incurred (which it appeared would not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds), to be paid out of the poor rates of the parish at large."

And whereas it hath been shown to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that the Master-General and Board of Ordnance have cleansed and repaired the drains running through their property, without any expence to the said parish, and have given an eight-inch bore of water from the tail stream of their mills, for the purpose of draining and cleansing the said town, for which there exist the greatest facilities, in abundance of water and fall in the ground:

And whereas it doth appear to their Lordships expedient and salutary, under all the circumstances of this case, that the old drainage of the said parish should be repaired and cleansed, agreeably to the resolutions passed at the said vestry; it is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, for the prevention of the spreading of the said disease, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that the said Board of Health, for the said parish of Waltham Abbey, shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace, living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Waltham Abbey, commanding them to pay the said sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish, which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money, in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, parish officers, guardians of the poor, district churchwardens, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

St. James's-Palace, May 23, 1832.

The following Address was this day presented to His Majesty at the Levee, and graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, Proprietors, Merchants, Planters, and other Inhabitants of the Island of Saint Lucia, pray leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of those feelings of duty and affection for your Person, and sincere loyalty to your Crown, which the gracious protection hitherto extended by your Majesty, and your predecessors, to this unfortunate colony, has not failed to excite within us. Encouraged by the ancient laws of the colony, by the Royal proclamations of your Majesty's predecessors, and by repeated acts of the British Parliament, our ancestors and ourselves have invested our substance in the purchase and settlement of estates and other properties which can be made productive only by the labour of our slaves, and of which, therefore, such labour constitutes the most valuable part. These properties we have hitherto held and enjoyed under the faith of a sacred compact, whereby the British faith was pledged for its protection, and under the solemn sanction of the laws, by which even your Majesty is prohibited from invading the rights of private property, without full previous compensation.

The Lords of your Majesty's Privy Council have advised your Majesty to promulgate, in this colony, an Order in Council, dated the 2d of November last, which, under the specious pretext of ameliorating the condition of the slaves, is subversive of the rights, and destructive to the property, of their owners.

The provisions of this Order, which limit the hours of labour in a most unnecessary and unreasonable manner, the restriction of domestic punishment, which prevents the master from punishing serious offences in an adequate manner, and the extravagant regulations respecting the food and clothing of the slaves, will, if enforced in this colony, leave the sugar-planter nothing to hope from the cultivation of his estate, and nothing to fear from its entire confiscation; and that these and other claims, and especially those which permit the entrance on our estates, and into our negro-houses, at all hours of the day and night, to a salaried officer, whose duty is that of an informer, are, we most humbly submit, violations of our properties and infringements of our rights, which exceed the lawful bounds which limit the exercise of your Majesty's Royal prerogative.

Wherefore, we humbly pray your Majesty, as the guardian of the laws and the fountain of justice in your dominions, either altogether to repeal the Order in Council of the 2d of November last, or to cause the following reasonable modifications to be made therein:

1. That the right of protectors and assistant protectors to come on estates and enter negro-houses, without the proprietor's consent, be limited to cases where complaint has been made, or where information has been given, and that, as heretofore, in such cases, they be accompanied by the Commissary-Commandant, or Lieutenant-Commissary of the quarter.

2. That the restrictions on the hours of labour be modified so as not to prohibit nine hours of agricultural labour out of crop, and ten hours of agricultural and twelve hours of manufacturing labour in crop.

3. That the number of days allowed to the slaves be limited, as at present, to one day in every fortnight, during crop, and one day in every week out of crop, exclusive of their four festivals, the proprietor continuing to give his slaves the present allowance of salt fish.

4. That the right of domestic punishment be limited, as now, to twenty-five stripes, and no more.

5. That the regulations respecting food and clothing be referred to your Majesty's Council in this island. The proprietors being ready to make such allowances in both these respects, as, after a fair and impartial examination, that body shall deem amply sufficient to secure the comfort of the negro.

6. That the obligations and restrictions already imposed on us, from which the colonists of other nations are wholly free, have encouraged the extension of the slave-trade, and the production of sugar in the foreign plantations, to a degree which has reduced us to the brink of ruin; and, as these obligations will become much more onerous, and these restrictions more oppressive under the new order, even when modified in the manner above-mentioned, we feel assured, that your Majesty's justice will not refuse to provide for us full and satisfactory compensation for all the losses and additional expences entailed on us by these and other legislative enactments.

Your petitioners sincerely desirous of evincing their readiness to adopt such measures as your Majesty may deem necessary, for the purpose of ameliorating the condition of the negro slaves in this colony, will, even under the numerous other provisions of the Order which are injurious to them, endeavour to struggle against the misfortunes which they have so long endured, provided such compensation is assured to them; but if your Majesty should unfortunately deem it proper not to comply with this our humble (and we trust not unreasonable) prayer, then availing ourselves of the sacred and unalterable laws by which our rights are protected, we, one and all, tender our properties to your Majesty, offering to convey and assure the same to such persons, and in such manner, as your Majesty may direct, on receiving an indemnity for the value at which they would have been appraised, previously to their depreciation by legislative enactments, to be made payable, and secured to ourselves and our representatives.

Should this alternative also be rejected, only one course remains for us to pursue. Sincerely attached as we are, and ever shall be, to your Majesty's person, and glorying as we have done in our dependence on the British Crown, because we have hitherto thought ourselves secured in the enjoyment of our properties, by the faith of the British nation, by the force of British laws, and by the sanctity of British justice, we, with reluctant hearts and most unwilling prayers, request that your Majesty will be pleased to dissolve the connexion which has hitherto united us to the British empire, and bound us in allegiance to the British Crown, and will permit us, either with the protection of some other power, or relying, under the assistance of Divine Providence, on our own exertions, to seek that safety for our lives, and security for our properties, which, even by this solemn appeal to your Majesty, we shall have failed to obtain.
