IF any child, or the issue of any child, of Sarah Lawton, late of the City of Lichfield, Spinster, deceased, or of Wallis, formerly a Gardener in General Dyett's family, at Forsfoot, near Lichfield, will apply, either personally, or by letter, post paid, to George Maule, Esq., of No. 5, Stone-Buildings, Lincoln's-Inn; London, Solicitor for the Affairs of His Majesty's Treasury, they may hear of something to their advantage.

The said Sarah Lawton was the daughter of Walter Lawton, late of Lichfield, Shoe-Maker, deceased, and left one illegitimate child, named Mary, by the said Wallis, who married William Oldroyd, late of Fisherwick, near Lichfield, Farmer, and died without issue, and it is understood that the said Sarah Lawton left another illegitimate child, but whether by Wallis or not is not known, named Thomas Lawton, who was apprenticed by the Parish of St. Mary, Lichfield, to a Bridle Bit and Stirrup Iron-Maker, near Lichfield, about thirty-four years ago; and afterwards enlisted as a soldier, and, it is supposed, died abroad.

WHEREAS Adam Mort, heretofore of Tildesley, in the Parish of Leigh, in the County of Lancaester, Esq. by his last will and testament, bearing date on or about the 19th day of March 1630, devised certain lands, situate in Pennington, in the said County, to certain persons therein named, in trust, to permit the rents thereof to be yearly for ever employed for, and towards the maintenance of, a Schoolmaster for the teaching and instructing of such children as should repair to the chapel built by him, in Astley, in the said Parish; and the said Adam Mort thereby declared, that his son Thomas Mort should during his life have the nomination and election, and likewise power of displacing and removing of the said Schoolmaster as he should see cause; and likewise that he might by his last will and testament, or other his deed in his lifetime, set down some good order or course for the nomination and election, displacing, and removing of the said Schoolmaster after his decease; and that the same course or order should be from time to time for ever observed, holden, and kept; and unless it should happen that the said Thomas Mort should not set down any course or order for the same as aforesaid, that then the said Schoolmaster should be nominated and elected, displaced, and removed as occasion should be from time to time, by all the householders and heads of families in Astley aforesaid, and the heirs male of his, the said testator's body, and such other of his kindred or blood as should have any lands in Astley aforesaid, or the greater number of them, with the advice of some godly minister near adjoining, wherein it was the said testator's mind and will, that the voice of such person as for the time being, should be the heir male of his body, should ever be accounted as an equal to six of the other voices in the election and removal of the said Schoolmaster; and whereas the said Thomas Mort did not set down any course or order for the nomination or election, displacing, or removing of the said Schoolmaster after his decease; and whereas the office of the said Schoolmaster is at present vacant; now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that a meeting will be held of all the householders and heads of families in Astley aforesaid, and the heirs male of the body of the said Adam Mort, and such other of his kindred or blood, as have any lands in Astley aforesaid, at the house of Thomas Part, known by the sign of the Fleece, in Astley aforesaid, on Thursday the 21st day of June 1832, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to nominate and elect a Schoolmaster, pursuant to the directions of the said will.

All candidates are requested to send in their names and testimonials, one week at least before the day of election to Mr. Robert Arrowsmith, of Astley, Manufacturer.
