Office of the Vice-Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, June 6, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold her last Drawing-Room for the season, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday next the 14th instant; and those Ladies who purpose attending, or of having the honour of being presented to Her Majesty on that day, are requested to send in their cards to the Office of the Queen's Vice-Chamberlain, before two o'clock on Wednesday the 13th instant.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of June 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the
