FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 13, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 27th instant, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday till further notice.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of June 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is amongst other things enacted, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act, provided or sanctioned after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time for the purpose by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, in the manner therein prescribed, and where the occasion of expence shall arise in any landward parish (or in the landward part of any parish containing any burgh, or part of a burgh), the same shall be levied by a special assessment, to be from time to time made by the heritors, or their special mandatories, of such parish, or landward part of a parish, upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the said parish, or landward part of a parish, in the manner therein set forth :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the burgh of Rothesay hath been affected with the said disease:

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh, or the minister, or any three of the resident heritors, of any parish for which Boards of Health are appointed, to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and members of the kirk sessions, and resident householders occupying houses rated to the house duty, at twelve pounds or upwards of yearly value, in any burgh, and the resident heritors, and agents for non-resident heritors, together with the tenants paying fifty pounds of yearly rent, and the members of the kirk sessions of every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, and to apply to such meeting for the authority and powers therein mentioned, and for funds to defray the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said meeting, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health consequent upon the determination of such meetings:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Acts above recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of all necessary expences incurred for sanitary purposes, amounting in the whole to the sum of four hundred and sixty-seven pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, to be levied by assessment on the burgh of Rothesay, and a like application for the sum of two hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, to be levied by assessment on the landward part of the parish of Rothesay, hath been made by the Board of Health for Rothesay to the meeting of burgh magistrates and resident householders in the burgh of Rothesay, and to the heritors and tenants of the landward part of the parish of Rothesay, and a great majority of such meeting hath consented to confer the necessary powers, and to provide for the expences aforesaid, when and so soon as such measure shall have received the sanction of the Lords of the Privy Council:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, the resolutions of the majority of the said meeting, making provision for the expences incurred by the Board of Health for Rothesay, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering by, or likely to be affected with, the said disease, and for other sanitary purposes:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that so much of the Order of the tenth day of March last past as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such meeting of magistrates and householders for burghs, and of heritors, tenants, and kirk-sessions for every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as concerns the said burgh of Rothesay, and the sum of four hundred and sixty-seven pounds thirteen shillings and four pence; and in so far as regards the landward part of the parish of Rothesay, and the sum of two hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence; and that the said Board of Health for Rothesay shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to apply, by their chairman or secretary, to the magistrates of such burgh of Rothesay to raise the said sum of four hundred and sixty-seven pounds thirteen shillings and four pence; and to the heritors, or their special mandatories, of the landward part of the parish of Rothesay, to raise the said sum of two hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, by special assessments, to be respectively levied in the form and manner by such last-recited Act prescribed, and which assessments such magistrates and heritors are hereby required severally to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by such Act:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by such Board of Health, burgh magistrates, heritors, or their special mandatories, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 16th day of June 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and in other extra parochial places out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the town of Gainsborough, to the vestry of the said township, and such vestry hath declined to give authority or directions to the Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such select or parish vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said town of Gainsborough, and the said sum of one hundred pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the said town of Gainsborough shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said town of Gainsborough, commanding them to pay the said sum of one hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, parish officers, guardians of the poor, district churchwardens, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, June 14, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of eight and nine in the evening of Saturday the 28th day of April last, some evil-disposed person or persons, unknown, did maliciously and feloniously fire a gun, loaded with slugs and shot, into a dissenting chapel, near the village of Llanystynday, in the county of Carnarvon, in which upwards of one hundred persons were then assembled, in the performance of their religious duties, eleven of whom were more or less wounded;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, June 15, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Thursday the 24th, or early on the morning of Friday the 25th, day of May last, a plantation of many years growth, called the Telegraph Plantation, situated in the parish of Ottery St. Mary, in the county of Devon, the property, and in the occupation, of Sir John Kennaway, of Escot-lodge, in the same parish, Bart. was maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby four acres thereof were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said plantation) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, June 15, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Monday the 11th day of June instant, between the hours of five and six, a most daring and brutal assault was committed by two men on the person of Nicholas Fairles, Esq. a Magistrate for the county of Durham, on the King's highway, near to the toll-bar, on the Slakeside, in the township of Westor, in the said county, whilst he was riding on a pony from the Barnes Colliery towards Jarrow Colliery, in discharge of his magisterial duties; and that the injuries which he has received have placed his life in serious danger;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually committed the said assault) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.
