TUESDAY, JUNE 26, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 13, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 27th instant, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday till further notice.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th day of June 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the parish of Lambeth hath been affected by the said disease :

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been shown, to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, was made by the Board of Health for the parish of Lambeth to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry declined to give any authority or directions to the Board of Health and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

And whereas certain of the expences incurred by the said Board of Health for the parish of Lambeth, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering under the said disease, and for other sanitary purposes, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred pounds and upwards, remain at this present time undischarged:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, such last-mentioned necessary expences of the said Board of Health:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences to be fixed and declared by such select or parish vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the parish of Lambeth and the said sum of one hundred pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the said parish of Lambeth shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Lambeth, commanding them to pay the said sum of one hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, parish officers, guardians of the poor, district churchwardens, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
