

and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been shown, to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, was made by the Board of Health for the parish of Lambeth to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry declined to give any authority or directions to the Board of Health and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

And whereas certain of the expences incurred by the said Board of Health for the parish of Lambeth, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering under the said disease, and for other sanitary purposes, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred pounds and upwards, remain at this present time undischarged:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, such last-mentioned necessary expences of the said Board of Health:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences to be fixed and declared by such select or parish vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the parish of Lambeth and the said sum of one hundred pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the said parish of Lambeth shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Lambeth, commanding them to pay the said sum of one hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, parish officers, guardians of the poor, district churchwardens, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, June 26, 1832.

The following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the undersigned, Inhabitants of the town of Brighthelmston, deeply affected by the late atrocious attack on your Majesty's sacred person, do most humbly express our horror and indignation at so treasonable an attempt; and we do thus most dutifully presume to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's providential escape from so imminent a danger.

We sincerely deplore that there should be in your Majesty's dominions a person capable of so flagitious an act, and we do most humbly assure your Majesty of the continuance of our most devoted and unalterable loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's most sacred person and authority.

[Here follow the signatures.]

From the Inhabitants of Dalkeith and vicinity, in public meeting assembled, signed by the Chair-