AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of June 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred and twenty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the parish of Ormskirk, to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry hath declined to give authority or directions to the Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences contained in the estimate and statement so submitted by the said Board of Health for the parish of Ormskirk to the vestry of such parish as aforesaid:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such select or parish vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the parish of Ormskirk, and the sum of seventy pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the said parish of Ormskirk shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Ormskirk, commanding them to pay the said sum of seventy pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish, which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money, in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order:

And the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, parish officers, guardians of the poor, district churchwardens, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th day of June 1832;

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more, of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter; or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the parish of Lambeth hath been affected by the said disease :

And whereas by an Order, made, on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas it hath been shown, to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, was made by the Board of Health for the parish of Lambeth to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry declined to give any authority or directions to the Board of Health and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon :

And whereas certain of the expences incurred by the said Board of Health for the parish of Lambeth, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering under the said disease, and for other sanitary purposes, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred pounds and upwards, remain at this present time undischarged :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, such last-mentioned necessary expences of the said Board of Health :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences to be fixed and declared by such select or parish vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the parish of Lambeth and the said sum of one hundred pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the said parish of Lambeth shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Lambeth, commanding them to pay the said sum of one hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order :

And the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, parish officers, guardians of the poor, district churchwardens, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of June 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is amongst other things enacted, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable

Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act, provided or sanctioned after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time for this purpose by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, in the manner therein prescribed, and where the occasion of expence shall arise in any landward parish (or in the landward part of any parish containing any burgh, or part of a burgh), the same shall be levied by a special assessment, to be from time to time made by the heritors, or their special mandatories, of such parish, or landward part of a parish, upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the said parish, or landward part of a parish, in the manner therein set forth :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the burgh of Rothesay hath been affected with the said disease :

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh, or the minister, or any three of the resident heritors, of any parish for which Boards of Health are appointed, to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and members of the kirk sessions, and resident householders occupying houses rated to the house duty, at twelve pounds or upwards of yearly value, in any burgh, and the resident heritors, and agents for non-resident heritors, together with the tenants paying fifty pounds of yearly rent, and the members of the kirk sessions of every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, and to apply to such meeting for the authority and powers therein mentioned; and for funds to defray the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said meeting, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health consequent upon the determination of such meetings :

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Acts above recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of all necessary expences incurred for sanitary purposes, amounting in the whole to the sum of four hundred and sixty-seven pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, to be levied by assessment on the burgh of Rothesay, and a like application for the sum of two hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, to be levied by assessment on the landward part of the parish of Rothesay, hath been made by the Board of Health for Rothesay to the meeting of burgh magistrates and resident householders in the burgh of Rothesay, and to the heritors and tenants of the landward part of the parish of Rothesay, and a great majority of such meeting hath consented to confer the necessary powers, and to provide for the expences aforesaid, when and so soon as such measure shall have received the sanction of the Lords of the Privy Council :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, the resolutions of the majority of the said meeting, making provision for the expences incurred by the Board of Health for Rothesay, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering by, or likely to be affected with, the said disease, and for other sanitary purposes :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that so much of the Order of the tenth day of March last past as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences; to be fixed and declared by such meeting of magistrates and householders for burghs, and of heritors, tenants, and kirk-sessions for every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as concerns the said burgh of Rothesay, and the sum of four hundred and sixty-seven pounds thirteen shillings and four pence; and in so far as regards the landward part of the parish of Rothesay, and the sum of two hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence; and that the said Board of Health for Rothesay shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to apply, by their chairman or secretary, to the magistrates of such burgh of Rothesay to raise the said sum of four hundred and sixty-seven pounds thirteen shillings, and four pence; and to the heritors, or their special mandatories, of the landward part of the parish of Rothesay, to raise the said sum of two hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, by special assessments, to be respectively levied in the form and manner by such last-recited Act prescribed, and which assessments such magistrates and heritors are hereby required severally to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by such Act :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by such Board of Health, burgh magistrates, heritors, or their special mandatories, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London, humbly approach your Majesty with the most profound sentiments of duty and respect, to express our horror and indignation at the daring outrage lately offered to your Majesty's sacred person.

While we deeply lament and deplore that any person should be found within your Majesty's dominions, capable of an act so atrocious,—so foreign to the British character,—and so disgraceful to human nature, we humbly offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's providential escape from such a wicked attempt, which might have produced the most awful consequences.

With the assurance of our steady loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's royal person, and our determination to support, on all occasions, the Crown and dignity of these realms. We beg to add our earnest hope, that by the permission of Divine Providence, your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and loyal people.

Signed by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

"I receive with the highest satisfaction this loyal and affectionate Address, from your ancient and respectable body.

"I thank you for the feelings which you express, upon my late escape, and I rely with entire confidence upon your assurances of loyalty and attachment to my person."

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour of kissing His Majesty's hand.

St. James's-Palace, June 27, 1832.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty with the following Address; which was read by Newman Knowlys, Esq. the Recorder; and which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive upon the Throne:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly present to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your providential deliverance from the late wicked and atrocious attack on your Majesty's sacred person.

While we rejoice that the intention of the wretched miscreant was providentially frustrated, we cannot forbear to express our unfeigned sorrow, that any subject should have been capable of such base and treasonable intention, and our joy that your Majesty was happily preserved from the fearful consequences which might have ensued. We renew to your Most Gracious Majesty, the assurances of our attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and our sincere hope, that your Majesty may long continue to live in the hearts and affections of a loyal and devoted people.

Signed by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I receive with the greatest pleasure the expressions of your attachment, and thank you for your congratulations on my escape from the attack which was lately made upon my person.

"I place the greatest confidence in my loyal city of London, the prosperity of which it will ever be my most anxious desire to promote."

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing His Majesty's hand.

St. James's-Palace, June 27, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King were this day presented to His Majesty at the Levee, and graciously received:

To His Most Gracious MAJESTY.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of Brighton, in public meeting assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the town of Brighton, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty to express our horror and indignation at the recent atrocious and brutal attack on your Majesty's sacred person, by a discontented and misguided individual, and our unfeigned gratification and joy at your Majesty's providential escape from so base and treasonable an attempt.

Convinced of your Majesty's paternal regard for the welfare and happiness of your subjects, we earnestly pray that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a loyal and devoted people.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the city of Norwich approach the Throne with unfeigned loyalty, to offer our sincere congratulations on the occasion of your Majesty's providential escape from the late dangerous assault on your Royal Person, and assault at once so atrocious that we deem it a matter of imperative obligation upon us to tender the renewed assurances of our entire devotion to your Majesty's Person, and of our determination, in common with every good and faithful subject, to exert ourselves for the vindication and protection of your Majesty, and the members of your august Family, against all treasonable attempts whatever.

Actuated no less by inclination than by duty to manifest, at a moment like the present, the most profoundly respectful sentiments towards our revered Sovereign, thoroughly convinced of the generous ardour of your Majesty's paternal love for your people, and deeply sensible of the important value of your Majesty's life and health to the peace, welfare, and happiness of these realms, we look with mingled feelings of horror, shame, and indignation upon the late flagitious occurrence at Ascott, regarding it as one which loudly calls upon the intelligent, well-disposed, and influential classes of your Majesty's subjects, to unite in using their utmost endeavours to calm the excited passions, and to suppress the lawless violence of the ignorant, depraved, and deluded portion of the community, as well by showing proofs of zealous firmness in the maintenance of public order, as by holding out examples of true allegiance to the principles of religion and loyalty.

We earnestly desire to add our heartfelt and most fervent prayers, that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, over a people devoted in attachment and personal affection towards so mild and beneficent a King, and grateful to Almighty God for the inestimable blessings of well regulated liberty hitherto enjoyed under the time-honoured institutions of the British Monarchy.

Our gratification in thus offering to your Majesty our sincere congratulations is much increased by the recollection, that this is the second anniversary of the day on which you Majesty was placed on the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, and we are anxious to offer to you our ardent wishes, that your Majesty's subjects may for many succeeding years hail the return of this auspicious day.

Given under our Corporation or Common Seal, this 26th day of June 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich, in Common Council assembled.

*May it please your Majesty,
Most Gracious Sovereign,*

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the borough of Harwich, impressed with horror and indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attempt upon your Majesty's life, most respectfully beg permission to approach your Majesty, to declare the sincere pleasure we experience in offering our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's escape from it, without injury to your sacred person.

With our most earnest and united praises and thanksgivings, we offer up to Almighty God our fervent prayers, that the Divine Providence may continue to watch over and protect a life so justly dear to the heart of every good subject, and of such high importance to the honour and welfare of the Empire.

Warned, but not appalled, by the progress of evil already made; and regarding with disgust and abhorrence the conduct of designing and desperate men, who have long been endeavouring, and who have seized every opportunity, by open uproar and insidious machinations, to subvert every virtuous sentiment, and every honest British feeling, it is with the deepest sorrow we have seen even the lowest of the people sufficiently prepared to offer insult in the royal presence; and that, at length, one misguided and unhappy man could be found capable of so flagitious a crime, as to attempt to lift his hand against your Majesty's august person.

We pledge ourselves to use our utmost diligence, and to make every exertion in our power, to counteract the poison, and to uphold the laws.

With no ordinary feelings, we beg to assure your Majesty of our steady attachment to your royal person and dignity, and of our truly unfeigned interest in whatever is connected with your Majesty's health and happiness.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, at a Court of Common Council, holden for the same borough, this 23d day of June, 1832. George Graham, Mayor

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the city of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, humbly approach your Majesty, to express our detestation and abhorrence of the late atrocious and disgraceful attack on your Majesty's royal Person, and our unfeigned and heartfelt satisfaction, that your Majesty, under the protecting hand of Divine Providence, has been preserved from injury. Permit us, Sir, to avail ourselves of this opportunity of renewing our assurance of sincere respect and attachment to your Majesty, to our most gracious Queen, and to every branch of the Royal Family; and we beg to assure your Majesty, that the utmost exertions of the ancient and loyal Corporation of the city of Bristol will be, at all times, used to support and maintain the religion, the laws, and the constitution of these realms, established by our ancestors on the firm basis of wisdom and justice, and under which our country has attained the highest rank amongst the states of Europe.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the City and Suburbs of Winchester, assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the city and suburbs of Winchester, assembled, humbly approach your Majesty, to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's recent escape from a treasonable attack on your sacred person.

We beg at the same time to express our deep concern and indignation, that a person could have been found in these realms capable of so atrocious and wicked an attempt; and we feel thankful to that merciful Providence, which protected a life so justly dear to a devoted and affectionate people.

In praying to Almighty God, that he will long grant to your Majesty health to reign over a grateful nation, we feel that we are only asking for ourselves a continuance of those blessings we have hitherto enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and beneficent sway.

Signed in behalf of the meeting,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High-Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bailiffs, High-Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, who have at all times been anxious to manifest our loyalty and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, feel ourselves especially called upon at this time, to offer our heartfelt and sincere congratulations upon your Majesty's happy escape, under Divine Providence, from the atrocious attack recently made upon your Majesty's sacred person.

Whilst we are desirous, in common with all your Majesty's subjects, to express our abhorrence at so treasonable an act, and had hoped, for the sake of our national honour, that there could not have been found one person, bearing the name of a Briton, so debased in principle, as to have sullied the fair fame of his country; it is nevertheless highly satisfactory to us to know, that this act has not arisen from any combined or preconcerted plan on the part of any number of disaffected persons, but from the depravity of an importunate individual.

We feel convinced that your Majesty will readily excuse the more than ordinary interest we take in your Majesty's welfare, strongly impressed with grateful and pleasing recollections, not only of the many virtues that adorn the character of your Majesty, but also of the bright and splendid example of amiableness and unaffected piety in the person of your illustrious consort, recollections which have been peculiarly endeared to us, from your Majesty's long residence in our immediate neighbourhood.

Permit us, Sire, to hope that your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a free, loyal, and united nation, being well assured that the real happiness of your subjects will ever be the warmest wish of your Majesty's paternal heart.

Given under our common seal, this 26th day of June 1832.

Chas. Edwd. Jemmett, Town-Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the City of Bath.

Sire,

WE, the Inhabitants of the city of Bath, beg leave to approach your Majesty, and to lay before you our assurance of loyal and dutiful attachment; and while we offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's late providential escape, we cannot refrain from expressing the indignation we feel at the late outrageous and atrocious attack made on your Majesty's person.

We cannot better conclude than in the emphatic words of one of your Majesty's Ministers, that "We make it our earnest prayer to Almighty God, that He will preserve to us the blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and that He will continue to watch over and protect a life so justly dear to us all."

Signed on behalf of the meeting,
Geo. Kitson, Mayor of Bath.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and other Inhabitants of the city of Gloucester, and its vicinity, beg leave most humbly to express our horror and indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attempt against your Majesty's sacred person.

Attached to your Majesty by every sentiment and consideration which can endear a Sovereign to his people, we unite in offering our congratulations to your Majesty upon the merciful interposition of providence, manifested on this occasion, and we make it our constant prayer, that the divine goodness may continue to guard your Majesty's sacred person, and long extend the blessing of a benignant reign to this highly favoured land.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commanalty of Merchant Venturers, of the city of Bristol, hasten to proffer to your Majesty the assurances of our deep participation, in the general feeling of horror and indignation, which the late atrocious and traitorous attack upon your Majesty's sacred person has excited throughout the country.

We grieve to think that any individual could have been found within your Majesty's dominions, even in these times of seditious excitement, capable of lifting his hand against a Prince, so justly endeared to the affections of his people. We cannot conceal from ourselves that the blow was aimed against your Majesty's life, and in proportion to the magnitude of the danger, is our gratitude to heaven for your Majesty's providential deliverance.

That the same gracious power which has protected our beloved Sovereign on this alarming occasion, may continue to watch over his safety, and that all traitorous designs against his person, crown, and dignity, may ever meet with similar discomfiture, is our most devout and fervent prayer.

26th of June, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the town of Romsey, in the county of Southampton, and its neighbourhood, beg leave to approach the Throne of your Majesty, to offer our humble but sincere congratulations on your escape from the effects of the brutal attack recently made on your Majesty's sacred person.

For the honour of our country, we trust it will appear, that the wretch who raised his hand against his Sovereign, was under the delusion of insanity, for we cannot conceive that any man, under other circumstances, could meditate evil against a King, who has such well-founded claims on the fidelity and affection of his people.

The last generation witnessed your Majesty's gallantry and devotion to the service of your country,—the present beholds your Majesty ruling a free and powerful people, in justice and in mercy, and hails your name as a tower of strength, in defence of a nation's rights.

The wisdom and equity of your Majesty's counsels will not be forgotten. Your subjects have contracted a deep debt of gratitude which none but the basest will forget. Be assured Sire, that should the hour of danger arrive (which heaven avert) all who deserve to be ranked among your people, will be found at the post of loyalty and honour.

We present to your Majesty the tribute of our willing allegiance. Our sincere acknowledgements as freemen, for benefits received, and the expression of our dutiful regard for your Majesty, as our common father and protector.

We beg your Majesty fully to believe, that our prayers will be ever offered to the King of Kings, for the welfare, true glory, and happiness of your Majesty and of your most amiable Consort, as well as that of every member of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Cleltenham, in public meeting assembled, most humbly beg to approach your Majesty, and to express our horror and indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attempt on your Majesty, and our heartfelt congratulations at your Majesty's providential escape from it, without any injury to your sacred person.

We also beg to express to your Majesty the deep concern we feel at there having been found in your Majesty's dominions, a person capable of so flagitious an attempt, and that we make it our earnest prayer to Almighty God, that He will preserve to us the blessings we enjoy, under your Majesty's just and mild Government, and continue to watch over and protect a life so justly dear to us.

To His Most Excellent Majesty, WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Dean and Canons Residentiary of the Cathedral Church of Hereford, in Chapter assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne, with our most cordial congratulations, on your late providential escape from all injurious consequences of the horrible attack recently made on your Majesty's sacred person.

After the decisive proofs of your Majesty's anxious desire to promote the peace and prosperity of the nation, it was with no less astonishment than abhorrence and disgust that we learned that an individual could be found therein, so base, and so devoid of all proper feeling, as to make such an atrocious assault.

While we devoutly present to the Throne of Grace our sincere thanksgivings for the mercies attendant on such preservation, we shall continue to implore, that all watchful providence, the peculiar guardian of good princes, still to watch over so valuable a life, and extend it as a blessing most cherished by your Majesty's subjects, most important to the whole nation.

In testimony whereof, we have caused our common seal to be hereunto affixed, this 25th day of June, in the second year of your Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ancient Body Corporate of the Shipmen of England, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Majesty, with the strongest assurances of our sorrow and indignation at the violence, to which your Majesty has been recently exposed, and the expression of our heartfelt congratulations, that this atrocious and treasonable attempt upon your Majesty, has been unaccompanied by injury to your Majesty's sacred person.

In tendering to your Majesty the expression of our sentiments upon this lamented occasion, we beg also to assure your Majesty of our participation in the deep concern, which pervades all classes of your Majesty's loyal subjects, that any one, yielding to the influence of the most guilty passions, should have proved capable of perpetrating an act of so great atrocity. And we fervently pray to Almighty God, that, protected by His divine providence, your Majesty may be shielded from all danger; and that, by your Majesty's preservation, this country may long continue to enjoy the manifold blessings, which attend your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

Given under our common seal, this 21st day of June 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the town and county of Poole, humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty our abhorrence of the late vile and infamous attempt on your Majesty's most sacred person, and to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations that the all-protecting hand of Divine Providence shielded your Majesty from any injury.

We further beg leave to express to your Majesty the deep and grateful sense we entertain of the many blessings enjoyed by the British nation under your Majesty's mild and paternal government; and earnestly pray that Almighty God may be pleased long to preserve your Majesty's valuable life, and impart to your Majesty health and every other blessing.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall, this 26th day of June 1832.

Geo. Welch Ledgard, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, in General Court assembled, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne with an expression of our deep abhorrence of the late daring and atrocious attack upon your Majesty's sacred person, and of our sincere congratulations on your escape from the danger to which your Majesty was exposed.

Permit us, Sire, at the same time, to renew the strongest assurances of the fervent and devoted attachment of the East India Company to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We humbly pray that it may please the Almighty to preserve your Majesty, and to grant that you may enjoy a long and prosperous reign upon the Throne of these Realms.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the borough and vicinity of Lyminster, in the county of Southampton, have learned with the deepest feelings of indignation, that an atrocious and treasonable attempt has recently been made on your Majesty's person, and we humbly approach your Majesty to express our heartfelt sorrow at this truly affecting event.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that our feelings are only alleviated by the knowledge that it pleased Divine Providence of his infinite goodness to defeat the heinous purpose of the traitor, and to shield your Majesty's person from injury.

We humbly tender to your Majesty our most sincere congratulations at your Majesty's escape; and that it may please Almighty God to continue to us the blessings of your Majesty's paternal Government, is the devout prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Planters, Merchants, and others interested in the West India Colonies, humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty the horror and detestation which we feel at the recent atrocious and treasonable attack on your Majesty's sacred Person, and our deep sorrow and indignation that there should be found in your Majesty's dominions any person capable of so daring and flagitious an outrage.

We offer to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's safety, and we fervently pray that your Majesty may long be spared to dispense the blessings of your Majesty's mild and beneficent government.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty, that none will approach your Throne with more ardent loyalty and attachment than your Majesty's faithful Colonists, to whom your Majesty is so justly endeared by your early devotion to the public service, in the active protection of their shores, and by the solicitude which your Majesty has continued to evince for their welfare and happiness.

Chandos, Chairman.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Inhabitants of the town of Uxbridge, and its vicinity, beg to assure your Majesty of our dutiful love and devoted attachment, and to express our indignation at, and our abhorrence of, the atrocious attempt lately made to injure your sacred person. Sensible of the blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and paternal sway, we offer you our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your providential escape without any serious injury; and we venture to hope that there is not a man in your Majesty's dominions who does not agree with us in denouncing the late attack upon your Majesty as most infamous and flagitious. This universal feeling cannot fail to be highly consolatory to your Majesty, as it affords a strong and incontrovertible proof of the affectionate regard which is every where felt for your Majesty by all ranks and classes of men throughout the kingdom. We beg to add our fervent prayers that the same providence which has hitherto preserved your Majesty will long, very long, continue to bless both you and your Royal Consort with health and happiness.

Whitehall, June 29, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects of the county of Southampton, assembled at the Castle of Winchester, this 22d day of June 1832, beg humbly to express to your Majesty our indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attempt upon your Majesty, and our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations that your Majesty has escaped from it without injury to your sacred person. We beg further to express to your Majesty the very deep concern we feel, that there should be found in your Majesty's dominions a person capable of so flagitious an attempt; and that it is our earnest prayer to Almighty God, that he will preserve to us the blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government, and that He will continue to watch over a life so valuable and justly dear to us.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,
William Heathcote, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Exeter, humbly beg to approach your Majesty, to express our deep concern and indignation at the atrocious and wicked outrage that has been committed upon your Majesty's sacred person.

We do indeed deplore, with all your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, that any individual should be found in these realms who could premeditatedly perpetrate a crime so treasonable and flagitious, and we trust, for the honour of our country, that, on investigation, a maniac only could have been influenced to the commission of so detestable an attack.

We humbly beg to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations, that Divine Providence has protected your Majesty from serious injury; and we humbly implore the Almighty to preserve your Majesty's valuable life, and continue to us those blessings we have so long enjoyed under the paternal government of your Majesty and your illustrious House.
