Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 4, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's Levee next week will be on Wednesday, as usual, instead of Monday the 9th instant, as announced in the last Gazette.

St. James's-Palace, July 4, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King were this day presented to His Majesty at the Levee, and graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery, of the City of London, in common hall assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of London, most respectfully approach your Majesty, to offer our sincere congratulation, that, under the protection of Divine Providence, your Majesty was preserved from harm, when the hand of an ignorant and desperate individual was raised against your Majesty's Royal Person.

We sincerely lament that there should be any one, so lost to every feeling of loyalty, duty, and love to your Majesty, as to offer such an atrocious insult.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our unabated attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and we earnestly trust that your Majesty may long be preserved, to protect the civil and religious liberties of a free, loyal, and grateful nation.

Signed by order.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, who have the honour and happiness to live under your Majesty's more immediate protection, beg to present at your Majesty's Throne those feelings of abhorrence and indignation with which we have been impressed, on hearing that a most atrocious attack had been made, but most happily without serious injury, upon your Majesty's sacred person, on a late occasion of public amusement, which your Majesty, with the kindest consideration, has been pleased to patronize, and to grace with your royal presence.

Born British subjects, and living under the benign sway of a Constitutional Sceptre, we justly consider every attempt upon the safety of our King to be impious and parricidal; we feel the act to be flagitious beyond our powers of expression, and in the prompt arraignment of the culprit before the criminal tribunals of the country, we anticipate the vindication of the national character from participation in so foul a crime.

To the throne of our Sovereign shall we ever look up, as the surest safeguard of our own rights and liberties: we regard it as the palladium of our constitutional freedom, and with our lives and fortunes pledge ourselves to avenge every insult, and defend every privilege with which it has been endowed, to the utmost extent of our humble abilities.

We entreat your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this humble offering of our loyalty and attachment, and we beg to subscribe ourselves your Majesty's most devoted and most loyal subjects and servants.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the borough of Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, are anxious to be amongst the foremost, in expressing our abhorrence of the late atrocious and traitorous attack upon your Majesty's sacred person, and our unfeigned joy at your Majesty's preservation from the fatal consequences, which might have resulted from so daring and violent an outrage.

Acknowledging, in your Majesty's safety, the merciful interposition of Almighty God, we ardently pray, that, by a continuance of the Divine protection, your Majesty may long possess the throne of your illustrious ancestors, and that the nation may feel and recognize, in the exercise of the Kingly authority, your Majesty's unceasing and anxious desire to further the happiness and prosperity of your subjects, and that they may unite in loyalty to your royal person, in sincere attachment to your august family, and in dutiful submission and obedience to the laws.

In conclusion, Sire, we humbly beg to offer you our ardent and dutiful veneration and esteem; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, to our utmost, faithfully and zealously, support your Sovereign power, and our happy and glorious constitution, in church and state.

Given under our common seal, at our Tollhouse-hall, this 25th day of June 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the town of Northampton, in public meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with feelings of the most devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and to express our unfeigned sorrow and indignation that any one of your Majesty's subjects should be found so abandoned and depraved as to attack your Majesty's sacred person, and endanger the life of your Majesty, endeared to the whole of the British people, not only as the King of these realms, but as the beloved Sovereign, under whose auspices so many wise and salutary measures have been promoted, tending to engage the affections of your Majesty's subjects, and to establish your Majesty's throne, by consulting the general welfare of the people.

While, therefore, we express our utter abhorrence of the atrocious attack on your Majesty, permit us most confidently to assure your Majesty, that the attack on your Majesty is not to be falsely and slanderously attributed by any party to a spirit of disaffection among any portion of your Majesty's subjects, who are, on the contrary, deeply attached to your Majesty's person and government, and conscious of the great blessings derived from your Majesty's liberal and paternal sway. And we beg most cordially to congratulate your Majesty on your happy escape from the attack of an assassin, and trust that your Majesty may long be preserved to reign over a free and grateful people.

And your Majesty's most dutiful subjects will ever pray for the stability of your Majesty's Throne.
Signed on behalf of the meeting,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the city of Coventry, in Council assembled, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty, with the expression of our sorrow and indignation at the recent outrage committed upon your sacred person; we entreat your Majesty to accept our earnest and heartfelt congratulations, that, under Providence, your Majesty sustained no serious injury from that wicked and atrocious attack.

We are deeply sensible of the blessings and freedom which we, in common with all our fellow-subjects, enjoy under the mild and equal sway of your Majesty's Government; and we will pray that your Majesty may long continue to exercise your just and royal authority, supported by the attachment of a dutiful and loyal people.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our common seal, this 27th day of June, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the borough of Christchurch, in the county of Southampton, and the Inhabitants thereof, and of its neighbourhood, humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty the horror and indignation we feel at the late flagitious and treasonable attack on the person of your most sacred Majesty, and to offer our most sincere and hearty congratulations upon your Majesty's providential escape.

We feel deep concern that a person capable of performing an act so detestable and atrocious should be found in your Majesty's dominions, and it is our earnest prayer that Almighty God may long preserve the life of a Sovereign, so justly dear to all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Wardens and Court of Assistants of the Goldsmiths' Company of the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Wardens and Assistants of the Company of Goldsmiths of the city of London, most humbly beg to approach your royal presence, to offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations upon the providential escape your Majesty has recently experienced, and to express our indignation at the atrocious and treasonable attack made on your Majesty's sacred person.

Devotedly attached to your Majesty, as we ever have been to the members of your illustrious house, who for a series of years have, happily for this nation, swayed its sceptre, we cannot refrain from expressing the peculiar interest we feel in every event connected with your Majesty's safety and happiness, and earnestly pray that your Majesty may, under Divine Providence, be long permitted, together with your illustrious Consort, to reign over a free, loyal, and happy people.

Henry Blanshard, Pimè Warden.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Livery of the town and county of the town of Nottingham approach your Majesty to express our abhorrence of the atrocious attack recently made upon your Majesty's sacred person, by a desperate and infatuated individual, and our ardent congratulations upon your Majesty's preservation from more serious personal injury.

We pray your Majesty to accept the renewed assurances of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and family; we feel that the country is deeply indebted to your Majesty for the gracious sanction given by your Majesty to the great measures of national amelioration, which have long absorbed the public interest, and we rejoice in the many blessings which, under the British constitution, and your Majesty's benign and just government, we enjoy.

May the Supreme Disposer of human events continue to protect your Majesty's life, and grant your Majesty a long reign, glorious to the nation from the advanced state of its domestic and foreign policy, and happy to your Majesty in the devoted affections of a free and loyal people.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall, the 3d day of July, in the year of our Lord 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Reading.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Reading, in the county of Berks, beg leave to approach your Majesty with renewed expressions of duty and loyalty, in consequence of the late atrocious attack upon your Majesty's royal person.

We congratulate your Majesty and the country upon your escape from a vindictive and wicked attempt upon the life of the Chief Magistrate of these realms, and we pray that a most merciful Providence may continue to watch over and protect the sacred person of your Majesty, and the safety and the interests of this favoured nation.

Done under our common seal this 3d day of July, 1832, Wm. Elundy, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Deputy-Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Carnarvon, in the Common Hall assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Burgesses and Inhabitants of Carnarvon, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, beg to approach your Majesty's throne, for the purpose of expressing our horror at the flagitious and treasonable attack lately made upon your Majesty, affil of mingling our unfeigned and most enthusiastic congratulations with those which rise simultaneously from thousands and tens of thousands of British hearts on your Majesty's having escaped without serious injury.

We avail ourselves of the present opportunity to lay at your Majesty's feet the renewed assurances of our affectionate unshaken attachment to your Majesty's person and royal house; and it is our fervent prayer that your Majesty may long live to be the guardian of that free constitution under which we are ourselves so happy, and the praises of which are resounded in all tongues and from all quarters of the globe.

Signed by order and in behalf of the meeting,

William Roberts, Deputy Constable, and as such Deputy Mayor; Edward Parry, O. O. Roberts, Bailiffs of the borough.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy High Steward, High Bailiff, Deputy High Bailiff, Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, High Constable, and Burgesses' Assistants of your ancient city of Westminster, and liberty of the same, most humbly approach your royal presence, with our renewed assurances of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, and to the constitution of our country, in church and state.

Strongly impressed with these sentiments, we deem it our duty to express to your Majesty our feelings of sorrow and indignation at the atrocious attack by which your Majesty's sacred person has been recently endangered; and it fills us with astonishment and shame, that there should be found, among our fellow-subjects, an individual so wicked, ignorant, or deluded, as to be insensible to the substantial benefits derived to the nation, by the just and mild administration of its government by your Majesty.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty's valuable life, which has been so providentially preserved, may long be spared to your people; the solicitude which your Majesty has constantly manifested for their welfare and happiness, has impressed them with the strongest conviction, that no greater calamity could befall them than that of being deprived of your Majesty's fostering and paternal protection.

Given under our common seal, this 3d day of July, 1832. Jno. Robson, Town Clerk.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors of the Scottish Hospital, of the foundation of King Charles the Second, re-incorporated by King George the Third, of ever-blessed memory!

Sire,

WE beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our deepest horror, at the treasonable attack recently made upon your Majesty's sacred person, while we are penetrated, at the same time, with sentiments of sincere gratitude to that pro-fecting Providence, which has preserved your Majesty to our affections.

Lamentable as it is that such acts of atrocity should be attempted, and impossible as it unfortunately appears, entirely to check the bad passions of the ignorant and illiterate. We pledge ourselves to your Majesty, that our collective and individual exertions shall not cease to be zealously employed in inculcating, upon all within the sphere of our influence, that reverence for our holy religion, that warm and loyal attachment to your Majesty, and that respect for the laws and institutions of the country, which afford the only solid basis upon which can be securely founded the character of a good subject.

We beg, in conclusion, respectfully to offer to your Majesty, the reiterated assurances of our continued and undeviating loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Throne, and our fervent wishes, that it may please Almighty God long to protect your Majesty in the exercise of those virtues, which have endeared you to the best feelings of our hearts.

Given under our common seal, at our Hall, Crane-court, Fleet-street, this 2d day of July, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Portsmouth, beg leave to approach your Majesty to express the abhorrence we feel at the atrocious act by which your Majesty's person has been traitorously assaulted and endangered. We sincerely rejoice that your Majesty should have been providentially preserved from injury, and we desire to offer to your Majesty our humble yet earnest congratulations, that your Majesty has not suffered from the criminal danger with which your Majesty has been assailed. We further beg leave to assure your Majesty of our ardent attachment to your Royal Person, and of the deep and lively interest we feel in your Majesty's welfare; and we ardently pray that your Majesty may be long preserved, in health and safety, to reign over a loyal and affectionate people.

Given under our common seal, on the anniversary of your Majesty's happy accession to the throne of these realms; the 26th day of June, 1832.

To His Most Excellent Majesty the KING.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Presbytery of Edinburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, have heard, with grief and indignation, of an outrage committed against your Majesty's sacred person. We had not supposed it possible that, throughout the widely extended empire over which your Majesty reigns, there should have been found a heart to devise, or a hand to perpetrate, such an atrocious deed. Far less could we have imagined that it should have proceeded from one connected with that department of the national science to which your Majesty's early years were devoted, and which has been unceasingly honoured with your Majesty's protection and encouragement. This consideration, if any, would lead us to hope that insanity alone must have been the cause. At the least, we derive some consolation from believing that the wretched man, whose atrocity we deplore, has not had a single associate in his wickedness; and, while we rejoice in your Majesty's providential escape from imminent danger, our thankgivings on account of it are devoutly offered to Almighty God, the Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, accompanied with fervent prayers that He may be graciously pleased long to preserve your Majesty for a blessing to a loyal and affectionate people.

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment.

Edinburgh, 27th June, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Vicar, Churchwarden, and Inhabitants of Kew.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Vicar, Churchwarden, and Inhabitants of Kew, feeling indignant that any individual in your Majesty's dominions should have dared to assault your Majesty's most sacred person, beg to approach your august presence, with the expression of our detestation and abhorrence of so treasonable and atrocious an attack.

It is our earnest hope, that the same protecting Providence, which has recently shielded your Majesty from the malice of so desperate an assassin, may continue to your Majesty a long life of safety, health, and happiness; and bless your Majesty's reign with an uninterrupted course of peace and prosperity, both domestic and foreign.

We, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, grateful for favours, for a series of years conspicuously, and bountifully bestowed upon your parish by your Majesty, feel bound, in a more especial manner thus to testify our affectionate duty, loyalty, and devotion.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Hereford, unanimously agreed to at a Common Council, held at the Guildhall in that city, on Monday, the 25th day of June, 1832.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of your ancient and loyal city of Hereford, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to express our abhorrence of the late treasonable attack on your Majesty's sacred person; and, in unison with the feelings of every loyal subject, most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on your providential escape.

We regret that the atrocious and libellous attacks of a licentious press on your Majesty, and the Members of your illustrious Family, should have been permitted to afford incentives to the commission of such crimes.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in the hearts and affections of a loyal people, to uphold their interests, and to advance their prosperity and happiness, is our fervent prayer; and we avail ourselves of this opportunity of renewing our assurances of loyalty and devoted attachment to your Majesty, and to the illustrious House of Brunswick.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the borough of Reading, humbly approach your Majesty with the expression of our deepest regret and indignation, that, within your Majesty's dominions, any man could be found capable of so traitorous an outrage as that which has been committed on your sacred person.

We congratulate your Majesty on having escaped without injury, and hasten to offer the assurances of our fervent attachment and devotion; and, whilst we offer up our sincere and heartfelt thanks that your Majesty has been preserved from a premeditated attack of malice or madness, we humbly hope that a merciful Providence, which has so long watched over and blessed this favoured nation, may continue to your Majesty that protection and support so necessary to the prosperity and happiness of a faithful and loyal people.

Signed on the part of the inhabitants of the borough of Reading,

Wm. Blandy, Mayor and Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Magistrates, Sheriffs, Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Bankers, Traders, and other Inhabitants of the city of Bristol and its vicinity, in public meeting assembled, beg to approach your Majesty with renewed expressions of the most heartfelt affection to your Majesty's royal person, and with the most cordial assurances of attachment and loyalty to your Majesty's family, and to the excellent constitution under which we live.

We beg to convey to your Majesty, in the strongest language our hearts can dictate, our deep feeling of abhorrence at the late most disloyal and treasonable attempt against the safety of your Majesty's sacred person, and to express our sorrow, that there could be found within your Majesty's dominions an individual so depraved as for a moment to have contemplated an act so atrocious.

We offer up our most grateful acknowledgments to Divine Providence for your Majesty's preservation under so detestable an outrage, and for the safety of the nation from those calamities in which any personal disaster to your Majesty would have involved it.

It is our most fervent prayer that your Majesty may be long spared to reign over a grateful, loyal, and united people.

*Charles Pinney, Mayor,
On behalf of the meeting.*

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of Hammersmith, duly convened in public vestry.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Hammersmith, beg to approach your Majesty with the assurance of our continued loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

We have heard, with great sorrow and regret, that some persons in this hamlet, unmindful of the gratitude due to your Majesty, for your Majesty's exertions for the welfare and liberty of your Majesty's subjects, have dared, by various acts, to insult your Majesty on your Majesty's passing through this hamlet.

We would willingly persuade ourselves, that individuals capable of such disgraceful conduct are not resident inhabitants of this hamlet, and we hasten to assure your Majesty, that the respectable portion of the population are actuated by one feeling of firm and devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

In conveying to your Majesty this expression of our unalterable loyalty and affection, we humbly pray that your Majesty may be long preserved to receive the homage and devotion of your loyal and affectionate people.

Signed on behalf and by the unanimous desire of the vestry,

Joseph Purdon, Churchwarden, and Chairman.

From the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the county palatine of Chester, whose names are signed, thanking His Majesty for having refused to create Peers.

Whitehall, July 6, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Association of West India Planters and Merchants of Glasgow, humbly approach your Royal presence, to express to your Majesty our great concern at the atrocious assault lately made on your Majesty, and our sincere congratulations upon your Majesty's happy escape from it, without sustaining serious injury. And while we thus desire to manifest our own sentiments, we feel entitled to assure your Majesty, that they are common to all your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects in the West India Colonies, where the most lively attachment to your Majesty's person universally prevails.

Signed in the name, and by the appointment, of the Association of West India Planters and Merchants of Glasgow, on the 29th June, 1832.

To the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, beg most respectfully and dutifully to express our unbounded loyalty and devotion towards your most gracious Majesty.

While we deeply lament that any subject, under your Majesty's mild and paternal sway should have dared to commit so atrocious an act, as to assail your Majesty's sacred person, we feel the most lively gra-made to Divine Providence, that your Majesty has not sustained any serious injury.

That your Majesty may very long be spared to reign over this free, loyal, and happy nation, is the earnest prayer, may it please your Majesty, of your most loyal and dutiful subjects, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

Signed in their name, and by their appointment, at Edinburgh, this 29th day of June, 1832.

John MacWhirter, President.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Vicar, Churchwardens, the undersigned Vestrymen, and other Inhabitant Householdors of the parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, beg leave to approach your royal presence with the strongest expression of horror and detestation at the late wanton and treasonable attack upon your sacred person.

Justly proud of the distinction, which we possess, in comprehending your royal residence within the limits of our parish, we claim and we feel a more than ordinary interest in whatever affects the safety of your Majesty's person. And this danger, now happily passed, calls forth our ardent prayer to the Great Disposer of all events, that He will be pleased to protect you from the open or secret attacks of your enemies, and that He will grant you a long and happy reign in the hearts of your people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your city of Aberdeen, beg leave at this time most humbly to approach the throne, under a deep sense of the great importance of your Majesty's valuable life, to the happiness and prosperity of the United Kingdom, and to assure your Majesty, that we reflect with equal astonishment and horror on the late most atrocious and treasonable attack made upon your Majesty's most sacred person, while attending Ascot races.

At the same time, when we consider the very signal preservation of your Majesty, in so critical and alarming a situation, we feel the utmost gratitude and thankfulness for the remarkable interposition of the Divine Providence, so eminently manifested on this occasion, in saving your Majesty from so great and imminent a danger; and do, in the most dutiful and affectionate manner, congratulate your Majesty upon so providential and momentous a deliverance to yourself, to Her Majesty, and to your faithful people.

That Almighty God may long continue to protect and preserve your Majesty's precious and valuable life, as a lasting blessing to the Royal Family and all your faithful subjects, and that your Majesty may long, very long, reign over a people, deeply sensible of the many signal advantages and blessings which they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious government, are the ardent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your city of Aberdeen, in Common Council assembled.

Signed in their name and presence, and by their appointment, and the common city seal hereto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 29th day of June, 1832 years. Ja. Hadden, Provost and C. M.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Members of the Corporation and other the Inhabitants of the Town of Glastonbury, in the County of Somerset.

Sire,

WE, the undersigned Members of the Corporation and other the Inhabitants of the town of Glastonbury, in the county of Somerset, having heard with feelings of the deepest indignation and regret, that a most atrocious assault has been perpetrated on the most sacred person of your Majesty, entreat your Majesty to accept our cordial congratulation for the providential escape from severe injury which your Majesty might have experienced on that occasion.

We, being duly sensible of the blessings resulting from your Majesty's mild and paternal government, take advantage of the present opportunity to offer to your Majesty our most cordial assurances of sincere affection and attachment.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal town of Shrewsbury, in Common Council assembled, being most deeply affected by feelings of horror and indignation at the traitorous, malicious, and premeditated attack of violence recently perpetrated upon your royal and sacred person, through the base excitement of a disappointed and desperate man, with a high sense of gratitude for the Divine blessing, which has so providentially protected and preserved to us a Prince, to whom we are attached by the strongest ties of loyalty and affection, do humbly approach your august and venerated Majesty, with expressions of our cordial and heartfelt congratulations, on your Majesty's most happy deliverance and escape from the intended effect of this treasonable and gross assault.

That your Majesty's sacred life may long be spared to a loyal and affectionate people, is our earnest prayer.

We remain, with the profoundest veneration, Sire, your Majesty's most faithful subjects and dutiful servants.

Thos. Farmer Dukes, Mayor.

Thos. Loxdale, Town Clerk.

Shrewsbury, June 29, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals and Professors of the University of Saint Andrews, humbly approach the Throne, to express our detestation of the late atrocious and traitorous attempt upon your Majesty's sacred person, to convey anew to your Majesty the assurance of our devoted attachment, and to offer our most fervent prayers, that through the mercy of Divine Providence your Majesty may long be preserved, to reign in the hearts and the affections of your people.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the University of Saint Andrew, this 29th day of June, 1832, by Melville, Chancellor.
Robert Haldane, Rector.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the city and liberties of Westminster, at the general quarter session of the peace assembled, most humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty the deep concern we have felt at the late treasonable and atrocious outrage on your Majesty's sacred person. And we further humbly offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's providential escape from severe injury, with our prayers that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the hearts and loyal affections of your grateful and devoted subjects, dispensing to them the inestimable blessings of your mild and paternal government.

Francis Const, Chairman.
The Guildhall, Westminster, June 29, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Office-bearers and Members of the Ancient Association of Freemasons, styled "The Lodge Canongate Kilwinning," humbly beg to approach the throne, and to express our horror and detestation at the late treasonable and atrocious assault on your Majesty's sacred person. We beg, Sire, to express these sentiments of devoted loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and government, which have at all times been characteristic of our ancient fraternity, under the benignant dominion of your Majesty's august house. We beg to congratulate your Majesty upon your escape from this most wicked attack; and we pray that Almighty God may be pleased long to continue to this country your Majesty's invaluable life.

Given at Edinburgh, in Saint John's Chapel, in the Canongate, on the Eve of Saint John the Baptist, in the year of our Lord 1832, and subscribed for us, and on our behalf, by our Master and Secretary.
Alexander M'Neil, Master.
James M'Millan, Secretary.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the royal borough of Dundee, humbly approach your Majesty to express our heartfelt gratulations at your Majesty's providential escape from an attempt to injure your Majesty's sacred person, as unexpected as it was atrocious.

That a Monarch so pre-eminently distinguished for the wisest and most benevolent endeavours to promote the happiness and prosperity of his people, should have been so barbarously, so madly assailed, must excite in all the deepest abhorrence and regret.

It must, however, be consoling to your Majesty, as it is to your faithful subjects, that the wretched perpetrator is a being, in whose distempered feelings none but the most abandoned or insane could participate; and that an event, in other respects so much to be deplored, has been followed up on all sides by renewed expressions of affection and attachment to a Sovereign, who has proved himself the benefactor and the friend of his people.

That your Majesty's reign may be long and happy, as it has been just and glorious, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and devoted subjects.

Subscribed by desire, and in presence of the Magistrates and Town Council of Dundee, and the common seal of the borough hereunto appended, at Dundee, the 29th day of June, 1832 years.

William Lindsay, Provost and Chief Magistrate of the royal burgh of Dundee.

To His Most Gracious Majesty, WILLIAM, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith.

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Clergy, Parish Officers, and other Inhabitant Household-ers of the District Parish of Saint Mark the Evangelist, Clerkenwell, in the County of Middlesex, and Diocese of London.

WE, the undersigned, your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, the Magistrates, Clergy, Parish Officers, and other Inhabitant Household-ers of the district parish of Saint Mark the Evangelist aforementioned, beg leave, in all dutiful reverence, to approach your Majesty, to express our horror and indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attempt upon your Majesty, and our heartfelt congratulations that your Majesty escaped from it without injury to your sacred person; and to declare to your Majesty the deep concern which we feel at there having been found within your Majesty's dominions a person capable of so flagitious an attempt; and to assure your Majesty, that we make it our earnest prayer to Heaven to preserve to us the blessings which we enjoy under the just and mild government of your Majesty, and that Almighty God may continue to watch over and protect your Majesty and your royal Consort, whose lives are so justly dear to us, and to every British subject in your Majesty's realms.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE we reflect with mingled indignation and abhorrence on the late atrocious assault on your Majesty's person, we beg leave most cordially to congratulate your Majesty on your escape, under Divine Providence, from more severe injury; and we not only feel it to be our public duty, but are earnestly desirous, on this occasion, to convey to your Majesty the renewed assurances of our firm and steady loyalty, and of our zealous and warm attachment to your royal person and government.

Signed by me, Lord Provost, and Chief Magistrate, in name, and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council of Glasgow, and the common Seal of the said city hereunto affixed, at Glasgow, the 29th day of June, 1832.

Robert Dalglisli, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and loyal Address of the Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, and Justices of Peace of the County of Nairn.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, and Justices of Peace of the county of Nairn, beg leave most humbly to approach the throne with the assurance of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's sacred person and government.

Having, in common with the rest of your Majesty's faithful subjects, heard with the utmost horror of the outrage recently perpetrated by an infatuated individual on your Majesty's person, we hasten with the most sincere and lively satisfaction to convey to your presence the expression of our heartfelt gratitude to Almighty God for your Majesty's preservation.

That a gracious Providence may long preserve a life so dear to the nation, and that it may be the glory of your Majesty's reign to perpetuate and extend the blessings of peace, happiness, and security to these kingdoms, is our earnest prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Nairn, the 28th day of June, 1832, by William Brodie, Lieutenant.

To His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the diocese of Ossory, beg leave to approach your Majesty, to express our unfeigned congratulation on your Majesty's late escape from the wanton and brutal attempt upon your sacred person.

It must be a source of deep satisfaction to your Majesty's mind to feel that the assault upon your Majesty was not caused by any act emanating from the throne, and that it called forth that general expression of loyalty, which your paternal care for your people had so effectually secured, and while we express our sincere gratitude to Divine Providence for your preservation, we beg at the same time to assure your Majesty of our unalterable attachment to your royal person, and our desire to uphold the safety and dignity of your Majesty's throne.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with the expression of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

Animated, at all times, with the most unshaken loyalty to your Majesty's illustrious house, and grateful for the many and great blessings which these countries have continued to enjoy under the auspicious sway of its truly patriotic princes, and sharing, in common with all your Majesty's dutiful subjects, in the most anxious solicitude for the long continuance of your Majesty's life and happiness, we have lately heard, with horror and indignation, of the most outrageous and wicked attempt made by a sanguinary and desperate ruffian against your Majesty's sacred person—horror and indignation equalled only by our joy, that your Majesty has escaped, unhurt, from that ferocious and most flagitious assault.

Persuaded that to the care of Divine Providence for this favoured nation we are indebted for your Majesty's present safety, to the same Almighty protection we look for the constant preservation of your Majesty's sacred person from all dangers. Accordingly, we shall not cease to offer up our fervent prayers to the Giver of all good, that your Majesty may ever continue to be the special object of His protection and favour, and to enjoy the happy consciousness of fulfilling the high trust with which your Majesty is commissioned from above, as well as the satisfaction which must ever attend the possession of the affections of a dutiful, a loyal, and a grateful people.

Given under the public seal of the College, this 2d day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, Common Councilmen, Free Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and West-street of Axbridge and its vicinity, viewing with abhorrence the late treasonable attack and outrage on your royal person, beg leave not only to congratulate your Majesty, but also to express our happiness at your having escaped uninjured from the miscreant's aim.

We also beg leave to assure your Majesty of our unaltered and unalterable attachment to your sacred person and government, that it will be our constant prayer to Almighty God that your Majesty's reign may long continue over us, and it will always be our study and endeavour, by every act of zeal, gratitude, and obedience, to render it happy and glorious.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Chichester, humbly approach your Majesty with feelings of loyal and devoted attachment, to offer our dutiful and heartfelt congratulations on the providential protection afforded your Majesty on the late premeditated and treasonable attack upon your Majesty's sacred person.

It must, however, be gratifying to your Majesty to witness the universal burst of indignation, which the atrocious act has called forth from your Majesty's affectionate people.

We implore the same Divine Providence, which on that occasion shielded you from the fatal effects which the misguided individual contemplated, to continue His protection, and ever to unite the hearts of all your Majesty's subjects in affectionate attachment to your Majesty's illustrious family.

In testimony whereof we have caused the seal of the said city to be hereunto affixed, this 30th day of June, in the third year of your Majesty's reign.

Westminster, July 4, 1832.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
July 4, 1832.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of April to the 30th of June last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Navy Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 16th, 17th, and 18th of July, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 19th, 20th, 23d, 24th, and 25th of July, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 26th and 27th of July, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may be payable to them; each Officer, or his Attorney, must produce an affidavit, as required by Orders in Council, the form of which may be procured at this Office.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce their letters of leave, or attested copies thereof, before the half-pay can be paid.

Officers entitled to half-pay may receive the same personally, at the Navy Pay-Office, or through their Agents; or (under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy) in any of the following modes, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount.

2d. By a remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence.

3d. By extract, upon which those Officers who reside in the neighbourhood of a Dock-yard, where there is a Clerk of the Treasurer of the Navy, may be paid.

If they wish to receive it by bills of exchange, they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay," and thereupon the proper form will be sent to them.

If they wish to have it remitted to them, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

If they reside near a Dock-yard, and desire to receive it there, they are to give notice of such desire to the Superintendent, in order that the necessary measures may be taken for obtaining the requisite extract from the Half-pay List, and the consequent authority for payment.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

DEPARTMENT OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL OF THE NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, June 21, 1832.

To Holders of Navy and Victualling Bills of Exchange.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all bills drawn upon the late Navy and Victualling Boards are in future to be left for acceptance at the Office of the Accountant-General of the Navy, at the late Navy-Office, Somerset-house.

Arrangements have been made for the delivery of the bills generally, if regular, the day after they shall have been left for acceptance, provided they shall have been left before eleven o'clock A. M.

In future, in pursuance of the Act of the second of William the Fourth, cap. 40, all bills of exchange are to be drawn upon the Accountant-General of the Navy.

John Barrow.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Trustees acting in execution of the powers of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for taking down the parish church of St. Dunstan in the West, in the city of London, and building a new church in lieu thereof," intend, in pursuance of the 54th section of the said Act, to resell and dispose of a certain freehold messuage or tenement, situate and being No. 186, in Fleet-street, in the said city, which hath been purchased by them, the said Trustees, and is not required for the purposes of the said Act; and if any one or more of the persons who were entitled to the said messuage or tenement, or any estate of freehold therein, is or are desirous to purchase the same, notice in writing, signed by such person or persons, of such his or their desire, must, in pursuance of the said section, be left with me, the undersigned, within one calendar month next after this present advertisement.

John Hopkins, Clerk to the said Trustees.

Vestry Clerk's Office, Fetter-lane,
July 6, 1832.

THE

AVERAGE PRICE OF BROWN OR MUSCOVADO SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 3d day of July 1832,

Is Twenty-nine Shillings and One Farthing per Hundred Weight,

Exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

Grocers'-Hall,
July 6, 1832.

By Authority of Parliament,
THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Reversionary Interest Society,
London, July 5, 1832.

THE Proprietors of the Reversionary Interest Society are requested to take notice, that there being a vacancy in the office of Auditor, every Proprietor intending to become a Candidate for the said office must, within thirty days from the appearance of this advertisement, signify, by some writing to be left within the said thirty days, at the office of the Society, No. 17, King's Arms-yard, Coleman-street, his intention to become a Candidate for the vacant office.

Wm. Sim, Secretary.

London, June 29, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an account, the residue of proceeds of the ship and cargo of the Flora, captured by His Majesty's sloop Lightning, on the 13th July 1815, will be registered in the High Court of Admiralty, agreeably to Act of Parliament.

Cooke and Halford, Agents.

London, June 29, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an account proceeds of the head-money bill granted to the officers and company of His Majesty's sloop Prospero, John Hardy Godby, Esq. Commander, for the destruction of a Danish cutter privateer, name unknown, on the 17th of February 1811, will be registered in the High Court of Admiralty, agreeably to Act of Parliament.

Cooke and Halford, Agents.

London, June 29, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an account, balance of proceeds of the sum retained to meet expences on sundry captures made in the months of June and July 1810, by His Majesty's ship Topaze, together with the proceeds of sundry coins sold at Malta, will be registered in the High Court of Admiralty, agreeably to Act of Parliament.

Cooke and Halford, Acting Agents.

London, July 6, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given to the officers and company of His Majesty's ship Iphigenia, the late Sir Robert Mends, Captain, who were actually on board, on the 15th April 1822 (in company with His Majesty's sloop Myrmidon), at the capture of the slave ship Vecua, that they may receive their respective proportions of the bounty-money granted for the slaves found on board (subject to a deduction of their proportions of the law expences incurred on substantiating the claim of the Iphigenia to share in the money received by the Agent for the Myrmidon), on Tuesday the 17th of July instant, at my Office, No. 1, New Boswell-court, Corey-street; and that the sums not then demanded will be recalled at the same place every Tuesday and Friday for three months.

VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Tuesday the 26th day of June in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, 1832, between Charles Fellows, Samuel Fox Stephens, William Hallam, and Patrick Johnson, Assignees of the estate and effects of Charles Wood, a Bankrupt, Plaintiffs; Thomas Richard Till, now called Thomas Richard Till Alston, and others, Defendants.

UPON opening of the matter this present day unto this Court by Mr. Sharpe, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, it was alleged, that it appears by the affidavit of Algernon Sydney Field and Henry Ellwood amongst other things, that the bill in this cause was duly filed on the 4th day of May last, and that a subpoena to appear and answer the said bill had been duly issued against the above named defendant; and that in May last, Messrs. Sharpe and Field in the said affidavit mentioned, caused two letters, at an interval of some days from each other, to be sent to Cecil Becke, the defendant's, Solicitor, as in the said affidavit stated, requesting him to accept service of the said subpoena against the said defendant; and that having received no answer to either of such letters, the said deponent Algernon Sydney Field, called on the said Cecil Becke to know if he would accept service of the said subpoena, when the said Cecil Becke refused to answer such question, and thereupon left the room, and would not further listen to the said deponent; and the said deponent Algernon Sydney Field, did on the 14th day of June instant, inquire at every house in Marshall-Street, London-Road, Surrey (except at three houses which were shut up, and in which the said deponent was informed no body was living) for the said defendant, both by his former name of Till, and by his present name of Alston, and he was informed by some, or one of the inhabitants of every house at which he so inquired, that no one, either of the name of Till or of Alston was then, or ever had been to their knowledge resident therein; and that he did on the said 14th day of June instant, inquire at every house in Tower-Street, Westminster-Road, Lambeth, in the said affidavit mentioned (except at a few houses in that street, which were shut up, and in which the said deponent was informed no one was living), for the said defendant, both by his former name of Till, and by his present name of Alston, and he was informed by some, or one of the inhabitants of every house in the said last mentioned street, in which he so inquired as aforesaid, that the said defendant was not then, and had not ever been to their knowledge resident therein; but that at No. 28, Tower-Street aforesaid, he saw a woman, who informed the said deponent, that she was the owner of that house, and that her name was Mrs. Richards, that she knew well the said defendant, and saw him frequently; that the said defendant was not then there, but was then gone to the said Cecil Becke; and that the said defendant was not resident in her said house, nor ever had been, and that he had been living for a long time in the house in which he was then living, and the said Mrs. Richards refused to give to the said deponent the address of the said defendant, and said that she did not exactly know where the same was, but said that she would forward to him any message or letter which the said deponent wished, and the said defendant should have the same in a quarter of an hour's time, and upon being asked how she could convey letters to the said defendant, if she did not know his address, she told the said deponent, that though she did not know his address exactly, yet that she knew where she could send any thing, so that the said defendant should get the same; and the said deponent Algernon Sydney Field enquired of the said Mrs. Richards, if the said defendant was then at her said house, and was informed that he was not then there, but had been there about a quarter of an hour before, and that she expected him there again in about an hour, though she could not say precisely, as the said defendant was very uncertain; and the said deponent thereupon requested the said Mrs. Richards to ask the said defendant what was his present address, so that the said deponent might be able to meet the said defendant, and the said Mrs. Richards stated in answer thereto, that she did not believe that the said defendant would leave word for the said deponent where he was living, as he had good reasons at present for not doing so; and upon being further questioned, she told the said deponent that the said defendant was afraid of the lawyers; and the said deponent then informed the said Mrs. Richards, that he called from the said Messrs. Sharpe and Field, and wished to see the said defendant on some business respecting the stock in the said affidavit mentioned, when the said Mrs. Richards said, that she had thought from the first that the said deponent had come from them, that she knew that they were the Solicitors to the Assignees of the Bankrupt Charles Wood, and that he then asked the said Mrs. Richards why it was that the said defendant was afraid of the lawyers, and asked her whether the said defendant had got into debt, or was afraid of being arrested, or what he was afraid of, when the said Mrs. Richards said, that the said defendant had not had any misfortune of that kind, and that the said Sharpe and Field were the only lawyers with whom the said defendant had to deal; and the said Mrs. Richards further stated, that she was sure that the said defendant was not living in Tower-Street aforesaid, and that no one in that street, but herself could give the said deponent any information concerning him; and that after he had so informed the said Mrs. Richards, that he came from the said Sharpe and Field, he again asked her for the address of the said defendant, or that she would tell the said deponent when and where he could be met with; but the said Mrs. Richards again refused to do so, but said that the said defendant would perhaps leave word for the said deponent where he was living, and directed the said deponent to call again tomorrow; and that he did on the following day, namely, on the 15th day of the said month of June instant, call again on the said Mrs. Richards, but was informed that she had just left her home, and would not return again till six o'clock, or perhaps later, that evening; and the said deponent Henry Ellwood called on the evening of the said last mentioned day, and saw the said Mrs. Richards, who informed the said deponent, that she had not seen the said defendant since the said 14th day of June aforesaid, and that she was informed that the said defendant was gone out of town; and the said Algernon Sydney Field, did on the 16th day of the said month of June instant, call again on the said Mrs. Richards, who informed the said deponent, that the said defendant was gone out of town, but she did not know where the said defendant was gone to, and refused to inform the said deponent who had told her that the said defendant was so gone out of town, and the said Mrs. Richards said that the said defendant would return home on about Tuesday or Wednesday next, and the said deponent Henry Ellwood, said that he did on Wednesday the 20th day of June instant, call again on the said Mrs. Richards, who informed the said deponent, that she had received a letter which the said defendant had left for her, previous to his departure from town, which said letter stated that he the said defendant was gone to Paris, to a sister there, who owed him some money with which the said defendant intended to defend this suit, and that the said defendant would not return for three weeks; and the said deponent Henry Ellwood did on the 19th day of June instant, call on the said Cecil Becke who refused to inform the said deponent where the said defendant was living, and endeavoured to avoid further conversation with the said deponent, and desired the said deponent to leave his said Office; and the said deponent Algernon Sydney Field, from the circumstances before stated, believes that the said defendant is concealing himself to avoid being served with the aforesaid subpoena, so issued against him out of this Court as aforesaid; it was, therefore, prayed, that the said defendant may be ordered to appear to the said bill, whereupon and upon hearing the said affidavit read, this Court doth order that the defendant Thomas Richard Till, otherwise Thomas Richard Till Alston do appear to the said plaintiffs' bill, on or before the 1st day of August next.

T. A. R. (L. S.)—Entd. J. R.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made under a Commission of Bankrupt against Samuel Holditch, late of Totnes, Merchant, on the 20th day of July instant, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Globe Inn, Totnes;

The fee simple and inheritance of a newly built and commodious dwelling-house, with extensive quays, wharfs, granaries, lofts, cellars, and premises thereto, and adjoining the River Dart, in the Parish of Totnes, called St. Peter's Quay, now in the occupation of Messrs. Phillips and Searle, Merchants.

For further particulars apply (if by letter, post paid), to Mr. Taunton, Solicitor, Totnes, Devon, or Mr. Joseph Blake, Solicitor, No. 19, Essex-Street, Strand, London.

TO be sold by auction, under an order of the Court of Bankruptcy, by Mr. J. Harrison, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Richard Beasant, of Wolverton, in the County of Buckingham, Miller and Meal-Merchant, at the Bull Inn, in Stony Stratford, in the said County of Buckingham, on Thursday the 26th day of July instant, between the hours of Two and Five in the Afternoon (subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced) the following property, being part of the Bankrupt's real estate;

Lot 1. A close of rich pasture land, situate in the Parish of Colverton, in the County of Bucks (being the north west part of an old inclosure, called Higlin's piece) immediately adjoining the Town of Stony Stratford, containing by estimation 7 acres and a half, or thereabouts (be the same more or less) now in the occupation of William Barber.

Lot 2. A close of rich pasture land, situate in the said Parish of Colverton (being the south east part of the said old inclosure, called Higlin's piece) adjoining lot 1, and containing by estimation 7 acres and a half, or thereabouts (be the same more or less) late in the occupation of the said Richard Beasant. And also all that stable, cow-house, and buildings, now divided into three parts, which have been recently erected upon the said close of land, and the yard or piece of ground inclosed adjoining the same, together with the stone wall, now dividing the said piece of land from lot 1.

Lot 3. Three several cottages or tenements, with gardens thereto belonging, and a newly erected barn standing thereon, situate in the said Parish of Colverton, adjoining lot 1, and fronting the road leading from Stony Stratford to Colverton, now or late in the several occupations of Daniel Tucker, James Chanbrill, and Edward Munday.

Lot 4. A messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, most delightfully situated in Old Stratford, in the County of Northampton, with a garden walled round, and out offices thereto belonging, now in the occupation of Mr. Whitticombe.

Lot 5. A newly erected messuage, tenement, or dwelling house, and bake house adjoining, situated at the north western extremity of the green, in the pleasant Village of Densbanger, in the Parish of Pessenham, in the said County of Northampton, within two miles of Stony Stratford, together with a small paddock in the front of the said messuage, and a home close adjoining, with a small cottage standing thereon, called Noah's Ark, as the same premises are now in the occupation of Mr. John Latimer.

Lot 6. A messuage, cottage, or tenement, and premises, situate at Pavenham, in the County of Bedford, and fronting the Town-Street there, as the same are now or late were in the occupation of Michael Howe.

Lot 7. One undivided third part or share of and in all that capital inn, situate in the centre of the High-Street, in Stony Stratford aforesaid, called the Bull Inn, and of the garden, stables, and other buildings thereto adjoining and belonging, now in the occupation of Mrs. Elizabeth Watson.

Nota.—By an arrangement with the owners of the other two third parts or shares of the said inn and premises, the entirety thereof will be offered for sale in one lot.

The whole of the above lots are freehold, and the lands are tithe free.
