

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and loyal Address of the Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, and Justices of Peace of the County of Nairn.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, and Justices of Peace of the county of Nairn, beg leave most humbly to approach the throne with the assurance of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's sacred person and government.

Having, in common with the rest of your Majesty's faithful subjects, heard with the utmost horror of the outrage recently perpetrated by an infatuated individual on your Majesty's person, we hasten with the most sincere and lively satisfaction to convey to your presence the expression of our heartfelt gratitude to Almighty God for your Majesty's preservation.

That a gracious Providence may long preserve a life so dear to the nation, and that it may be the glory of your Majesty's reign to perpetuate and extend the blessings of peace, happiness, and security to these kingdoms, is our earnest prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Nairn, the 28th day of June, 1832, by William Brodie, Lieutenant.

To His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the diocese of Ossory, beg leave to approach your Majesty, to express our unfeigned congratulation on your Majesty's late escape from the wanton and brutal attempt upon your sacred person.

It must be a source of deep satisfaction to your Majesty's mind to feel that the assault upon your Majesty was not caused by any act emanating from the throne, and that it called forth that general expression of loyalty, which your paternal care for your people had so effectually secured, and while we express our sincere gratitude to Divine Providence for your preservation, we beg at the same time to assure your Majesty of our unalterable attachment to your royal person, and our desire to uphold the safety and dignity of your Majesty's throne.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with the expression of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

Animated, at all times, with the most unshaken loyalty to your Majesty's illustrious house, and grateful for the many and great blessings which these countries have continued to enjoy under the auspicious sway of its truly patriotic princes, and sharing, in common with all your Majesty's dutiful subjects, in the most anxious solicitude for the long continuance of your Majesty's life and happiness, we have lately heard, with horror and indignation, of the most outrageous and wicked attempt made by a sanguinary and desperate ruffian against your Majesty's sacred person—horror and indignation equalled only by our joy, that your Majesty has escaped, unhurt, from that ferocious and most flagitious assault.

Persuaded that to the care of Divine Providence for this favoured nation we are indebted for your Majesty's present safety, to the same Almighty protection we look for the constant preservation of your Majesty's sacred person from all dangers. Accordingly, we shall not cease to offer up our fervent prayers to the Giver of all good, that your Majesty may ever continue to be the special object of His protection and favour, and to enjoy the happy consciousness of fulfilling the high trust with which your Majesty is commissioned from above, as well as the satisfaction which must ever attend the possession of the affections of a dutiful, a loyal, and a grateful people.

Given under the public seal of the College, this 2d day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, Common Councilmen, Free Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and West-street of Axbridge and its vicinity, viewing with abhorrence the late treasonable attack and outrage on your royal person, beg leave not only to congratulate your Majesty, but also to express our happiness at your having escaped uninjured from the miscreant's aim.

We also beg leave to assure your Majesty of our unaltered and unalterable attachment to your sacred person and government, that it will be our constant prayer to Almighty God that your Majesty's reign may long continue over us, and it will always be our study and endeavour, by every act of zeal, gratitude, and obedience, to render it happy and glorious.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Chichester, humbly approach your Majesty with feelings of loyal and devoted attachment, to offer our dutiful and heartfelt congratulations on the providential protection afforded your Majesty on the late premeditated and treasonable attack upon your Majesty's sacred person.

It must, however, be gratifying to your Majesty to witness the universal burst of indignation, which the atrocious act has called forth from your Majesty's affectionate people.

We implore the same Divine Providence, which on that occasion shielded you from the fatal effects which the misguided individual contemplated, to continue His protection, and ever to unite the hearts of all your Majesty's subjects in affectionate attachment to your Majesty's illustrious family.

In testimony whereof we have caused the seal of the said city to be hereunto affixed, this 30th day of June, in the third year of your Majesty's reign.