TUESDAY, JULY 10, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 4, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's Levee next week will be on Wednesday, as usual, instead of Monday the 9th instant, as announced in the last Gazette.

Whitehall, July 10, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Provost and College of Eton, desirous of testifying with the nation in general our dutiful and sincere attachment to your Majesty, and also, if we may be allowed to mix our private with our public feelings, cherishing the warmest gratitude for the repeated marks of peculiar favour and protection, with which your Majesty has graciously condescended to honour the establishment of our pious Founder, King Henry the Sixth, beg leave humbly to express our grief and indignation at the late atrocious outrage committed against your sacred person, and while we acknowledge the protecting care of that Providence, which watched over your safety, we desire to offer our heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's happy deliverance from the threatened danger.

We should be wanting to our sense of duty if, on such an occasion, we withheld the declaration of our unfeigned abhorrence of the many previous insults with which, by misguided and evil-minded men, your Majesty and your beloved Consort, so deservedly the object of the veneration and love of a grateful nation, have been wantonly assailed.

While, however, we deeply lament that so gracious and benevolent a Sovereign should have experienced such flagrant instances of disloyalty, and even the violence of treasonable aggression, we have ample reason to rejoice that it has pleased the Almighty, out of evil, to produce good; and that the malicious designs of partial disaffection have been triumphantly overawed by an almost universal manifestation of sentiments, recording the zealous and devoted loyalty of your Majesty's subjects.

In praying that He, to the guidance of whose wise and merciful Providence, we can alone look for all blessings, will continue to preserve the life of your Majesty, we are convinced that we pray for that which will promote our own happiness, and through the influence of our holy religion, uniting us in the willing discharge of our moral and civil duties, will secure the general welfare and prosperity of a happy people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Cork.

Most Gracious Sovereign;

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the city of Cork, beg leave to approach your royal presence, in order to give expression to those feelings of attachment and devotion to your Majesty with which we are animated.

We have heard, with mingled astonishment and indignation, of the recent attack by which your Majesty's sacred person has been endangered, and humbly offer our earnest congratulations on your Majesty having escaped from injury in that most wicked attempt.

Permit us, Sire, to add our fervent prayers, that your reign over the United Kingdom may be long and prosperous.

Done under the common seal of the said city, the 25th day of June 1832.

Julius Cæsar Besnard, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, loyal and dutiful Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverness.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient burgh of Inverness, beg leave humbly to express to your Majesty the sentiments of indignation and abhorrence we felt on hearing of the late disgraceful and traitorous attack on your Majesty's sacred person.

We deeply lament that any one of your Majesty's subjects should have been capable of committing such a wicked and atrocious outrage; but we have the great satisfaction of believing, and of assuring your Majesty, that your subjects, in this northern part of your dominions, share with their countrymen, in other parts of your kingdom, in thankfulness to Divine Providence for your Majesty's happy preservation from the dangerous consequences which might have ensued from the mad-like attempts of an assassin.

We repeat to your Majesty the assurances of our duty and devoted attachment to your Majesty's person, and, sensible of the blessings we enjoy under your paternal Government, we earnestly pray, that your Majesty's valuable life may be long preserved to your attached and loyal subjects.

Signed at Inverness, the 2d day of July 1832, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Inverness, by me, Provost and Chief Magistrate of the burgh,

Jn. Ross.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the town of Deal, humbly beg leave thus to offer our sincere lament of the recent and atrocious insult at Ascot of a beloved Monarch, whilst animating thousands of his devoted people, by his condescending and endearing presence.

Sire, the deep sense of shame that we feel of the atrocity, is inexpressible, and the more especially as to a prince, the recollection of whose glorious reign, and the many virtues which so eminently and justly attach him to his people, should have shielded from aught but demonstrations of affection.

Whilst however we have to deplore the indignity which your Majesty, your amiable Consort, your illustrious house, and your whole nation has thus sustained, we take some consolation in the knowledge that it was the act of a deluded individual only, and that it has elicited universal deprecation and abhorrence.

Permit us, therefore, most gracious King, in the affections and loyalty of our hearts, to add our warmest congratulations, that yourself, and the Royal Partner of your Majesty's Crown, are yet left to us, and in the uninterrupted exercise of wonted benificence, that your Majesties may long live in the enjoyment of excellent health, witnessing the appreciation of measures essentially contributing to the happiness and prosperity of the British people, and in their entire and unabated gratitude, is our fervent prayer.

Given under our seal, the 5th day of July 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Durham, assembled at a meeting convened by the High-Sheriff, beg permission to approach your Majesty with the assurance of our devoted loyalty and affection.

We have heard with indignation and horror, of the ruffianlike and treasonable assault which has been made upon your royal person; and whilst we express our gratitude to Divine Providence for the protection which has been vouchsafed to your Majesty on this occasion, we pray that your Majesty's life may be preserved, and that you may continue to reign for many years over an united, loyal, and contented people.

Signed at the request, in the name, and on the behalf of the meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Durham, now assembled.

C. J. Clavering, Sheriff.

Durham, July 8, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The very dutiful and loyal Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Irvine.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council, of the royal burgh of Irvine, beg leave most humbly to express our indignation and deep regret, at the daring and atrocious outrage which was lately committed upon your Majesty's sacred person. Although we are fully persuaded that the recent base attack upon your Majesty did not proceed at all from any political motive, yet we feel great cause to be thankful for the providential escape which your Majesty has made; and most fervently do we hope and pray, that this country may never again be disgraced by such a deed.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our most devoted loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, and that your Majesties may both be long spared, to reign in the hearts of a loyal and loving people, is our most earnest wish and prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, this 3d day of July 1832.

Wm. Montgomerie, Provost.

To His Gracious Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH, Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of Totnes and Bridgetown Pomeroy, in the county of Devon, impressed with horror at the recent diabolical attempt on your sacred person, approach your throne with sentiments of joy and congratulation at your providential escape. Sincerely do we assure your Majesty of our unfeigned attachment, and of our readiness at all times to sacrifice our lives and property in protecting the Monarch and maintaining the dignity of his Crown. But it is our unalterable persuasion, that, if any circumstance can enhance the lustre of your reign, or increase the endearments of your people, it is the parental zeal and unconquerable determination of your Majesty to support your patriotic Ministers, in complying with their just and reasonable supplications, convinced that, without your royal aid, they would in vain have looked for those happy events which constitute the maturity of the British Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Provost, Baillies, Treasurer, and Councilors of the burgh of Paisley, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person, family, and government.

Appreciating as we do the many blessings we enjoy, under the constitutional sway of a just and beneficent Monarch, we cannot avoid expressing the indignation we have felt, at the treasonable attack lately made in public upon your Majesty's sacred person.

And we pray that your Majesty may continue to experience the protecting care of the Almighty, and may long be spared in the enjoyment of every earthly blessing to reign in the affections of a free, a loyal, and happy people.

Signed and sealed in our name, and in our presence by William Gilmour, Provost.
Paisley, 3d of July 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the borough and parish of Totnes, and Inhabitants of the manor of Bridgetown, in the county of Devon, beg leave to offer our warmest congratulations on your Majesty's late providential escape from the attack of a vile and desperate assassin.

The uniform anxiety which your Majesty has evinced, to promote the welfare and happiness of your people, gives you a just claim to our loyal and sincere attachment, and it was with feelings of the utmost abhorrence that we heard of the crime, intended to be perpetrated against your Majesty's royal person. We trust, however, that Almighty God, who has so manifestly protected your Majesty in the present instance, will continue to defeat the designs of your enemies, that He will preserve your Majesty in health, and that you may long reign in peace and happiness, over a loyal and grateful people.

Totnes, 25th of June 1832.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects of the town of Ross and its vicinity, in the county of Hereford, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the offering of our sincere congratulations, while we are thankful to heaven for the preservation of your valuable life from the late wicked and atrocious assault committed on your Majesty's most sacred person.

We should be devoid of all feeling of gratitude did we not hasten to express to your Majesty that the late God-like act, unparalleled in the annals of the world, by which your Majesty was graciously pleased to restore the happy constitution of this country to its pristine vigour, has fixed most firmly your Majesty's Throne in the hearts of the people.

We pray the Almighty disposer of events to preserve your Majesty long to reign over your loyal and loving subjects.

PARDON.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a large body of armed smugglers assembled on the night of the 28th ultimo, near Lulworth, on the coast of Dorset, for the purpose of effecting the landing and running uncustomed and prohibited goods; and that a violent attack was made on the occasion, by the smugglers so assembled, on Lieutenant Thomas Edward Knight, R. N. Chief Officer of the Lulworth Coast Guard Station, who was thrown over the Cliff, and so injured that he has since died of the wounds and injuries he received; and that John Duke, the chief boatman, was also severely beaten;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the persons who have been guilty of this felony and murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons so assembled (except those who actually perpetrated the act) who shall discover any of the parties concerned in the felony and murder aforesaid, so that he or they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

MELBOURNE.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs are hereby pleased to offer a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS to any person or persons who shall discover, or cause to be discovered, any of the persons concerned in the said felony and murder, so that he or they may be apprehended.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the port of Weymouth.

Custom-house, London, July, 1832.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place, July 4, 1832.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of April to the 30th of June last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Navy Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 16th, 17th, and 18th of July, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 19th, 20th, 23d, 24th, and 25th of July, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 26th and 27th of July, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may be payable to them; each Officer, or his Attorney, must produce an affidavit, as required by Orders in Council, the form of which may be procured at this Office.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce their letters of leave, or attested copies thereof, before the half-pay can be paid.

Officers entitled to half-pay may receive the same personally, at the Navy Pay-Office, or through their Agents; or (under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy) in any of the following modes, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount.

2d. By a remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence.

3d. By extract, upon which those Officers who reside in the neighbourhood of a Dock-yard, where there is a Clerk of the Treasurer of the Navy, may be paid.

If they wish to receive it by bills of exchange, they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay," and thereupon the proper form will be sent to them.

If they wish to have it remitted to them, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

If they reside near a Dock-yard, and desire to receive it there, they are to give notice of such desire to the Superintendent, in order that the necessary measures may be taken for obtaining the requisite extract from the Half-pay List, and the consequent authority for payment.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence:

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 29, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

DEPARTMENT OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL OF THE NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, June 21, 1832.

To Holders of Navy and Victualling Bills of Exchange.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all bills drawn upon the late Navy and Victualling Boards are in future to be left for acceptance at the Office of the Accountant-General of the Navy, at the late Navy-Office, Somerset-house.

Arrangements have been made for the delivery of the bills generally, if regular, the day after they shall have been left for acceptance, provided they shall have been left before eleven o'clock A. M.

In future, in pursuance of the Act of the second of William the Fourth, cap. 40, all bills of exchange are to be drawn upon the Accountant-General of the Navy.
